A STORY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

I.

Edith stood before the mirror; but her face was turned towards her husband, who raised his hand to remove what he considered a defect in her toilet;—a wreath of exquisite flowers which a friend had sent her expressly to wear to that evening's soiree. Robert was clumsy in handling the wreath, as gentlemen always are in such cases, albeit they can pick up a lady's fan, or put on her shawl with infinite grace and gallantry.

"Take care, Rob! you will disarrange my hair, and poor Juliette will be distressed in consequence. Stop; I'll call her, if you really dislike the wreath"——and the lady crossed the room to ring for her maid; adding—"it is strange; Mrs. Morris said it was very becoming. She will be displeased, I know, if I do not wear it."

"But, my dear, I have some taste, as well as Mrs. Morris. It is too heavy for your small head. Would you please Mrs. Morris, or your husband, Edith?"

She was standing beside him. A smile broke on her lips as she raised them for a kiss, saying, half in play, half in earnest, "My husband." Juliette came in.

"Take off this wreath, Juliette, and put these buds in my hair, instead."

"O! Miss Kirkdale!" moaned Juliette, drawing down her face, and making great eyes at her mistress, as she proceeded to obey orders; pausing an instant as if to give the lady time to repent ere the deed was done; and affecting the tone and expression of Mrs. Morris as she added, "It looks lovely; perfectly lovely! Don't you think so, Mr. Kirkdale?"

"No, it is too heavy. Make haste, Juliette."

"Very well!" whined Juliette, with a kind of doleful compassion for the two individuals, who, seen from the stand-point of her profession, by the light of fashion, appeared to her regenerated optics sufficient proof of the doctrine of total depravity. In a few moments the toilet was re-completed; and the coach was heard rolling round the street corner. Edith and Robert stood alone in the hall. The gas-light fell on the wife's uplifted face;—a face expressive of intelligent sweetness, and by no means lacking in that delicate coloring and contour which go so far in making a woman beautiful. Fixing her dark eyes on her husband's face, and dropping her voice to the low key of dove-toned tenderness, she said,

"Do not take any wine to-night, please, dear Rob?"

His cheek burned; he threw back his fine, manly head, with a careless laugh; and then—with a husbandly thoughtfulness, checking his mirth at its height lest it should wound rather than ease the sensitive heart in it anxious pleading, he drew her to his side, and answered,

"Trust me, Edith. An occasional glass cannot make me a drunkard, Sweet! any more than the perusal of novels, occasionally, can make a sickly, sentimental novel-reader of you."

She looked straight into his face; her eyes full of tears. He led her out, and placed her in the coach, springing in after her; but in the darkness, the husband could not see how fast the dews of her sorrow fell!

Robert talked as merrily as possible; and Edith soon caught the brightness and buoyancy of his spirit, with that ready sympathy which a true wife always feels for a faithful husband in joy or grief.

The night passed pleasantly. Once a shadow crossed the young wife's face—as a cloud glides over the blue of heaven—when she saw the wine-cup at Robert's lips; but Mrs. Morris pressed between them with,—

"Where's the wreath? O! Edith Kirkdale! You foolish child!"

"Robert liked this best; and I dress to please my husband," smiled Edith.

"Nonsense! Gentlemen know nothing about a ladies' dress! Do you think I'd trust myself to my husband's taste? N-o-o in—deed!" And Mrs. Morris waved her dainty hand and tossed her head with an air of gay superiority, as she went away with a sneering laugh.

"Take care!" cried Edith; laughing in return, and shaking her finger. Suddenly she beheld Robert looking at her with mingled pride and admiration; and he leaned forward, smiling triumphantly as he whispered,

"Thank Fortune! she's not my wife! Morris has 'caught a Tartar,'—I know!"

The love in Edith's heart, leaping up in a spray of happiness, threw a little sunbow of blushes, across her face. She forgot, in the pleasure which she afforded her husband, by complying with his wishes, that he had refused to grant the far more important request, which she had pleaded but an hour or two before.

The coach was at the door; the "adieus" uttered; and in a few moments Robert and Edith were at home again. They sat a little while before the fire, discussing, as people are wont to, the dress and manner of different individuals; the magnificence of the entertainment; the dignity and grace of host and hostess; and lastly, Mrs. Morris.

"Well," said Robert, she is a willful, unlovely woman; you know I never liked her. She is witty and brilliant, but'——

"I fear," interrupted Edith, "that her husband is equally so. They cannot live as happily as they should, because they do not yield to one another as they ought. I have often seen them in dispute."

"Oh! that is bad—bad!" murmured Robert.

"Yes; much must be given up on either side. This strife for rule and reign is indeed unfortunate, dear Rob!"

They fell into silence. It was New Year's Eve. Perhaps Robert was thinking how well pleased his wife would be, on the morrow, with the set of jewels he had purchased for her; perhaps she was wondering what the gift was. Could it be? No; it was evident that both dwelt deeply on the subject they had briefly discussed; for each looked grave and thoughtful, as though weighing apart the acts of their lives, in that solemn lapse of five minutes' quiet. Presently Robert rose.

"Enough brown study over these coals, Edith."

Then he sat down again beside her, passing his arm around her. She turned her dark eyes full upon him, and dropped her hand in benediction on his head; but did not speak. He started a little as he returned her look with a searching gaze into her serious orbs; and then, as if satisfied that there was no sorrow there, he again arose, and proceeded to secure the hall door and turn off the gas.

II.

A year had passed. Edith was sitting in her chamber, knitting and thinking;—knitting one of the tiniest things in the shape of a stocking you ever saw; and thinking of one of the tiniest feet in the world, that was to fill that stocking. A light was on her face that a word or glance would broaden into a smile, and a frown or cry utterly banish. Presently she thought something stirred; and tip-toeing to one corner of the room, putting up one hand as if to hush her own breath, she peered into the crib to see if all was right. Tenderly she pressed the pillow down on one side, to give "baby" a little more breathing space; tenderly she turned back the embroidered blanket, so that it should not lie against the sweet rose of a cheek, deepening in the moist warmth of infant slumber. Then the mother tip-toed back to her low rocking chair, which would creak when she sat down, spite of all her precautions. After knitting awhile longer she heard a footstep. The light of her countenance grew to a radiant smile, and she must need tip-toe to the door, lest Robert's entrance should waken little Bessie. She held the door open—the warning sign, the mother-finger lifted; and when her husband came in, and stooped to meet her lips, she didn't even dare kiss him aloud—as she couldn't help kissing Bessie—for fear the little lady should start and cry for jealousy, with a baby-fancy that "somebody" was taking advantage of her temporary oblivion, and stealing what rightfully belonged to her.

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUE INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a q tipl dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1858.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

This is our wish to every reader!—and the blessing itself is within every reader's reach. It may not be possible for all to be rich or great,—to clothe in purple or fare sumptuously. But it is possible for him who has a contented mind, to enjoy the continual feast which riches cannot confer, and which poverty cannot take away.

A cheerful reliance on a good providence which is at once allwise and almighty, will also carry us safely and happily through privations and losses, which cannot be estimated by any comparison with gold or silver gained or lost.

Our springs of happiness, if we have any, must be in God, the only wise, our Father. Our wells of comfort, if we have any, must be in our bosoms. Some cisterns we have, in our friends;—but they break,—and then unless we draw from the fountains, we are a dry and thirsty land where no water is.

How readily the earthly cisterns break, let the deaths of the past year here witness.

Of the prominent men who have died in this State during the past year, are the following:—

Henry Hubbard of Charlestown, who graduated at Hanover in 1808, entered the Legislature in 1813, and was elected Governor in 1842 and 1843. He died in June at the advanced age of 74 years.

Jamis Bell of Gilford, was born in Francestown, and graduated at Bowdoin College in 1822, and died May 26th, aged 53 years. He was elected to the U. S. Senate in 1855, and had a high reputation.

Lyman B. Walker of Gilford, was a native of Massachusetts. His talents were of a high order, and his social qualities won him many friends. He died June 23d, aged 71 years.

Richard Boylston, the oldest printer in New Hampshire, and for half a century the editor and proprietor of the Farmer's Cabinet, Amherst, died July 18th, aged 75 years. His industry and perseverance had gained him a generous competency.

Judge Israel W. Kelly was a native of Goffstown, and died at East Concord, March 9th, aged 79 years.

William Berry of Concord, was born at Barnstead, where he passed the greater part of his life as a farmer. In June, 1855, he was chosen State Treasurer, which office he held at the time of his death, January 23d. He was 57 years of age, and a faithful and honest citizen.

Samuel Shekle, Esq., an opulent merchant of the old school, died in Portsmouth, Nov. 13, aged 70.

And these are only a small part of the catalogue.

They have only gone before—we follow,—and why not cheerfully? knowing that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

THE NEW GOVERNOR OF KANSAS.—The St. Louis Republican has the following letter dated Westport, Mo., Dec. 20:

Mr. Denver arrived here last week, and will enter upon the discharge of his official duties to-day. The people seem very much prejudiced against him because he comes here at this time to supercede Mr. Stanton. From what I can learn of him I am sure that the President has made nothing by the exchange, for it is understood that Mr. Denver endorsed all the official acts of both Gov. Walker and Secretary Stanton, even to the convening of the extra session of the Legislature.

☞ The Telegraph is to be extended from Gloucester to Rockport, a distance of five miles, to the end of Cape Ann, the necessary amount, $800, for the erection of the wires and posts having been subscribed by the citizens of Rockport.

SISKIYOU.—A wagon road is about to be made by joint stock, from Yreka to Humbug City.—San Francisco Chronicle.

We can't make out much from this item. There are plenty of humbug cities in California, but we didn't know before that any of them were called by that name.

☞ The body of Henry Wade, who was drowned on Newburyport Bar, about a month since, washed ashore, on Hampton beach, on Tuesday last, and was buried in Newburyport.

☞ A noble old horse, named "Charley," about 28 years old, owned by Rev. H. Holmes, South Bradford, N. H., was buried with due honors recently. Peace to his manes.

As a ship having a sure anchor may lie safe in any place, so the mind that is ruled by reason is quiet anywhere.

EXETERIANA.

EXETER, Dec. 31.

Dear Chronicle:—Before the invention of newspapers, what must have been the work of the gossipers, the compiling and publishing (sometimes in revised and enlarged editions) of the news of the day. In the present age the reporter finds no place more abounding in news, great and little, than the social gatherings of town folks. We were indulging ourselves in the innocent belief that Exeter had been as dull as ever for the last fortnight; but an hour or two passed at a soiree, an evening or two since, seemed to say:

More news in Exeter, F. G.,
Than dreamt in your philosophy.

Subtracting the weather and kindred topics, adding our previous knowledge to what we there learnt, and dividing by the product of our time and inclination into the patience of your readers, we arrive at a quotient as follows:

The parodic poet, speaking of misfortunes, likens them to sheep jumping over a wall—the leader goes over, and the whole flock are sure to follow. This has been the rule of fires in our usually quiet place. On Friday night, about half past nine o'clock, the bells rang, and men, women and children, without distinction of age, party or color, struck up the cry of fire.—The engines went out, and the fire, under the cooling influence of a bucket of water, did the same thing. Scarcely had the palpitating hearts of the aforesaid men, women, &c., regained their wonted quietness, when a third alarm, on Sunday evening, set the whole town mad. This latter conflagration was got up on an equally small scale as its predecessor, neither of them being calculated to break any insurance office. The Pipe Shop fire is all we can afford for a year. We understand that the works of the New England Company are to be re-built here. If true, this is good news for Exeter.

Our village was busy last week with preparing for the fair to be holden on Christmas eve, by the ladies of the Second Cong. Society. The Town Hall was crowded with an admiring throng, and everything went off (according to the well-established formula) "as successfully as could be wished." The great attraction of the evening was Tableaux, which the beauty of Exeter rendered with fine effect. Among the scenes were "Little Nell and her Grandfather," "Pocahontas saving the life of Capt. John Smith," "The trial of Mary Stuart," and "The execution of Lady Jane Grey." The receipts were about $130.

The First Cong. Society have just made an organic change in the musical department of their church. A fine instrument, saved from a church destroyed by fire in Lawrence, Mass., has been put up at a cost of $500. To help "pay the fiddler," a concert of vocal and instrumental music is to be given in the church to-morrow evening.

No services were held in this town on Christmas. On that evening, however, the Unitarian Society passed a few social hours at the house of their beloved pastor, Rev. Mr. Cole. Mr. Cole will preach at his church this (New Year's) eve.

Mr. H. J. Smart, Jr., the School Commissioner, lectured in this town last evening. In the afternoon, he visited some of the schools. We attended the examination of the Grammar School, of the Second District, on that afternoon. The schoolroom was very tastily decorated with mottoes, and maps drawn by the scholars. The examiners spoke highly of the school. Mr. W. A. Currier, the teacher, is certainly entitled to much praise for the thorough manner in which his scholars seem to have been drilled.

The Exeter Band, it appears, maintained their previous good reputation. Some of our citizens say that the Portsmouth Band have much improved since the Fair. It is understood that the latter Band are to play here, at a Promenade Concert, in about three weeks.

The parish meeting of the Second Congregational Church (late Mr. Mann's) was held yesterday afternoon. The Society have raised nearly the required amount of a subscription to procure the services of the Rev. Mr. Lamfield, late of Lowell, as a pastor. They will probably give him a call.

A correspondent of the Boston Ledger writes that the Steam Ferry Boat, lately running across the Piscataqua at Dover Point, was sold at auction in Dover on Saturday last. He does not mention who purchased her; but says it is understood that Mr. Paul of New Market bought her, to run between Portsmouth, Exeter and New Market.

Wishing you and your readers a Happy New Year, we remain, yours, P. G.

What bar is that which often opens, but never shuts? Crow-bar.

LIFE IN CALIFORNIA.—A pedlar near Nevada, one Sunday morning, was accosted by two robbers with masks on, who compelled him to surrender $380 in money, and his pack worth about as much more. The villains then tied him to a tree and threatened him with death should he endeavor to escape, or hail the Marysville stage which was shortly expected to pass. He was informed that he might call for help when another stage came along, at 8 o'clock. Accordingly the driver, hearing the calls of the uncomfortable man, loosened him and brought him into Nevada, together with the masks of the villains which he found hard by. A horse was stolen the same night below Rough and Ready.

Two cousins named Wm. Rogers and F. Barber came to Nevada with a load of produce next day, which they disposed of and returned in the evening. Both learned of the events of the day before, recounted in the preceding item. On their way, one of the cousins jumped from the wagon and went on ahead. Thinking it a good time to test the courage of his companion, he concealed himself by the road side, and when the team came along he leaped out and climbing up the wagon, with a counterfeit voice demanded the purse of his cousin or his life. The latter had been thinking of the robbery of the pedlar as he rode along alone, and having a hatchet in the wagon he placed it on the seat by his side. It being dark, no sooner had had he heard the demand of the supposed robber, than he seized the hatchet and buried it in his face, inflicting a most horrid wound extending across his mouth.

The driver of the Rough and Ready stage came dashing in, with an agitated countenance, declaring that a quantity of powder had been flashed under his stage. The notorious Jim Webster had been seen by several.

RECORD OF INTEMPERANCE.—Mr. Benjamin Manly, of Westfield, (Middletown, Ct.,) was thrown from his wagon, with his wife, a daughter aged about twenty, and a child, while they were returning from Middletown. None were much injured except the daughter. The father went to one of the neighbors for a light, returned and found the young lady a lifeless corpse. It is said that the accident was caused by the intoxication of the father.

A physician residing in Dearborn, Mich., fell from his horse while in a state of intoxication, and having fallen into a mud hole, was unable to extricate himself, and froze to death before morning. He was found the next day imbedded in the mud.

FATAL COASTING ACCIDENT.—The Boston Bee states, that as a number of boys were coasting on the Common, on Monday, one of the number named John Shehan had an umbrella forced into his person several inches, by collision with a sled which came upon him in the rear. He was carried to his home, where he lingered in great pain until 8 o'clock on the morning, where he died. He was 17 years old. The accident is as singular as it is sad.

That he has used it in the fall and summer months, and has seldom been disappointed in its use. Beyond a doubt Myers' Extract Rock Rose is a specific in Diarrhea. See Circulars.

THERE ARE OCCASIONS

When even the healthiest people need medicine; the changes of diet, of weather, and hundreds of other causes, produce a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged and needs a stimulator. If all who find themselves in this situation will try Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing Headache, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ills so common in a family. It acts, as a medicine, easier and better than any dose of pills we ever swallowed, and so mild that the smallest infant can take it.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 30.

Ar sch Golden Eagle, Perkins, Fishing.
Advance, Ames, Fishing.

Sch Edward & Frank, Stewart, old Boston 30th for this port.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—A man named Newgarset was fined ten dollars on Saturday by the Judge of the Police Court, for throwing filth into the street. A few such examples might possibly prevent the streets from being, as baretofore, the receptacle of all kinds of rubbish, thereby making them nuisances.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Newgarset had better move to Portsmouth. Why, our city authorities allow a certain stable-keeper to drain his stable, above ground, through Fleet, Hanover and Vaughan streets,—though no good citizen would do it, and it is hard for decent neighbors to endure it.

☞ We have received from our old friend, B. H. Penhallow, Esq., of Lowell, his annual Counting-Room Almanac Card—which is the neatest and most convenient specimen of the article which meets our eye anywhere. Also his miniature Pocket Almanac Card.

We notice by the Report of the Committees at the late Middlesex Fair, the following awards were made to our former townsman and his sisters.

To Miss Susan Penhallow, for Wrought Sleeves, Diploma.

To Miss K. Penhallow, Wrought Handkerchief, "Very well done."

To Miss Julia M. Penhallow, Wrought Handkerchief, Bronze Medal.

To B. H. Penhallow, for frame of Card Specimens; one show case and one book of specimens of letter-press and lithographic printing. These samples evince great skill and superior taste, entitling the exibitor to commendation. The branch of lithographic printing has been but recently introduced into Lowell. We notice among the letter-press samples, some very nice work in colors. Diploma.

IMPORTANT FROM KANSAS.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—Johnson County, Kansas, gives 2000 majority for slavery.—Oxford cast 1300 votes.

Gov. Denver has given up the Territorial arms to the militia.—[Another version says he has refused to give them up, which is more probable.]

Kansas advices of the 24th, just received by the Democrat, say that civil war is raging in Bourbon County. Several conflicts have taken place between Free State and Pro-Slavery parties, and a number of prisoners had been taken on both sides.

The U. S. Marshal, with a force of 80 men, demanded the surrender of a Free State party, and the demand was answered with a volley of musket balls. The fire was returned, and the fight lasted an hour, when the Pro-Slavery men retreated, with the loss of one man killed and two mortally wounded. The Marshal was dangerously wounded.

Gen. Lane was intrenched at Sugar Mound, and determined to fight the dragoons, if they attacked him. A battle was regarded as inevitable.

An exciting debate occurred in the Lawrence Convention. The Committee on Resolutions presented three reports. The majority report disapproves of voting for State officers. The first minority report recommends the maintenance of a full State ticket; and the second, signed by Mr. Redpath, recommends a participation in the election, for the purpose of destroying the Lecompton Constitution,—that no man be nominated who will not pledge himself to crush that instrument,—that the Topeka Constitution be submitted to the people, and loyalty to that instrument be made the test of fealty to the Free State party; also that the Legislature should repeal the present code of laws.

Messrs. Robinson, Phillips, Conway, Schuyler and Vaughan spoke in favor of voting. The most radical revolutionary speeches were made.

AMERICAN MISSIONARIES KILLED BY SEPOYS. Newark, N. J., Dec. 30.—Letters have been received here from India announcing the massacre at Delhi, of the Rev. Mr. Freeman and wife, American missionaries. They were beheaded by the natives after having been kept prisoners for some days. They were both natives of New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.

Steamship Arago, from Southampton 16th inst., arrived at this port this evening.

Cotton was very dull at Liverpool, with sales for three days of 6500 bales, including 1000 on speculation and for export.—Prices were nominally easier, though not quotably lower.

Flour had advanced 6d per barrel.—Wheat was 3d dearer on the week, and corn slightly higher since Friday.

Several large failures are announced;—among them are Salfield Brothers, of Leeds, London, and Hamburg, in the woolen trade, liabilities £200,000; Balli & Abaleyps, Marseilles, corn trade, liabilities $280,000.

The Austrian government has advanced a loan of 10,000,000 florins to the city of Hamburg, at 6 per cent. The loan will be employed in giving aid to the large houses.

A proposition has been made to the Swedish Chambers to contract a loan of $10,000,000 to support commerce.

Norway has contracted a loan of $2,000,000 for the same purpose.

Six or eight more houses at Hamburg had stopped previous to the 10th, and the Savings Banks were crowded with persons anxious to draw the smallest deposits.—The authorites had resource to the military to keep order On the 13th there was no general return of confidence, and further failures were expected.

Five houses in Stockholm had suspended.

The Danish Council of State had authorized the Minister, Kerr Krieger, to bring in a bill for the loan of £300,000 sterling, at 8 per cent., secured on the finances of the whole kingdom.

John Edward Stephens, of the late London and Eastern Bank, had failed to appear before the Bankrupt Court at Edinburg, after several day's examination, and a warrant was issued for his apprehension.

Henry Smith Bright, formerly a large corn merchant at Hull, has been sentenced to ten year's penal servitude, for forgery.

The Arago brings 67 passengers and $15,000 in specie.

No further progress had been made towards launching the Leviathan.

ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH CABLE.—Washington, Dec. 30.—A letter from Secretary Toucey to Messrs. Peter Cooper and Cyrus W. Field informs those gentlemen that the steam frigate Niagara will be again detailed to lay the Atlantic telegraph cable. Chief Engineer Everett, U. S. N., has been granted leave of absence to give his services to the telegraph company.—The President and Secretary are both favorable to the enterprise.

COMMODORE PAULDING ORDERED HOME FOR TRIAL. — Washington, Dec. 30.—(Times correspondence.)—Capt. Engle received orders to-night to return immediately to Aspinwall, with orders to Commodore Paulding to come home for trial.

"THE WORLD'S" DEFINITIONS.—Life—a time to make money. Money—the end of life. Man—a machine to make money.—Woman—a machine to spend it. Children—machines to spend it on.

HAIR RESTORATIVE.—The demand for this unrivaled preparation for the hair and skin is beyond the possibility of a doubt, and its sale is greater than any other Hair Restorative that has ever been before the public. Tens of thousand of persons who were bald and gray, and others whose faces were covered with unsightly blotches and pimples, are now, with their own glossy hair, and with faces comely and fair to look upon, seen daily promenading the streets of all the principal cities of the Union, and by their influence spreading the fame of Wood's Hair Restorative throughout the civilized world. But the trial of one bottle is more convincing than all we can say in a whole Newspaper column.

It does not dye, but gives life, health and beauty to the decaying, failing, and dead, restoring as if by magic, that which was supposed to be irrecoverably lost.—Heads nearly bald and others nearly white, are daily being changed to their pristine beauty, and faces covered with pimples are rendered as smooth as an infant's and blushing as a rose, all by the use of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.—St. Louis, Commercial List. Sold by all respectable Druggists.

Clock Repairing.

I. P. LIBBEY

All work executed promptly, in the best manner, at low prices, and WARRANTED.

Orders may be left at the store of F. W. Rogers, Congress street, A. A. Payne, Market street, or at his residence, No. 39 Deer street, Portsmouth, or addressed through the Post Office. d17 1mdaw

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove this to be MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resp'ly,
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD.—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing our sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other boy. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,
O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the success of which at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send tickets to Georgia, and that the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must come out a winner, and the prizes, payable in quarters, $2,50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $30,000, and the amount each prize and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m181y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the public should pay attention to, is that all prizes have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the week, Sundays excepted. If no particular number is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tuesday combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: The Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of air, at once more, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be distributed, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed.

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent. in fuel, expense.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, truth, honesty and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that the GREAT MAN'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married portion, they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and PERFECTLY SAFE in all cases, and perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it known, that the GREAT MAN'S PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be confidently relied on, that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

VOL. 11. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, JAN. 2, 1858. NO. 126.

A STORY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

Robert and Edith sat down, and began to talk in whispers. Robert looked very pale and troubled, and there was a restless, nervous motion in his glance. It made Edith drop the tiniest little thing in the shape of a stocking, and put up her hand to brush back the thick curls from her husband's forehead, and smooth his brow, and sigh very softly.

"Rob, what makes you look so unlike yourself to-night? Whatever your burdens are let me help you to bear them: for this, God gave me to be your wife." This was uttered in the gentlest whisper; and followed by Edith's kneeling beside her husband, and laying her head confidingly on his shoulder. He caressed the head that had pillowed itself so trustingly, in an abstracted manner, and answered,

"Hard times, Edith. You can't do anything about it."

"Yes, I can, Rob! I can deny myself scores of comforts—aye, luxuries."

Robert continued his caresses in the same unconscious way, and after a long pause he said,

"We pay the nursery-girl enormous wages; can't you cut them down?"

"It is the cook whose wages are enormous," she replied. "I cannot cut down Maria's wages, for she would only leave me in a huff if I mentioned it; but I will cheerfully dismiss her. If she knows I do not intend to hire another, she will not be angry."

"I do not wish you to do that, my dear; for you dismissed one girl but a few days since."

"O, never mind that, Rob! I would dismiss them all to-morrow if you wished."

Robert lifted the fair face between his palms, and stooped and kissed it, saying,

"Edith, how good you are! I wish I was so unselfish!"

Edith's face flushed, as she dropped her head again to his shoulder, murmuring, "I am not good, Rob. Please, dear, don't say good!"

After a pause, she added, "You, who give me so much are far better than I, who only live and enjoy it all."

He put her away, gently. Then he rose and walked up and down the room, looking more and more troubled. Meantime Bessie gave a little pleading cry; and Edith lifted her rosy darling from the crib. Pressing the hot, dimpled cheek close to her own, she held the child in her arms; and the wee hand stretched out toward Robert, while the wee rose-bud lips tried hard to master the word "Papa!" Robert's face brightened; and he played bo-peep with Bessie over Edith's shoulder.

"With such a treasure," said the mother solemnly, what other blessing can I not cheerfully resign?"

That night Robert came home sadder than ever, and with the same answer for Edith's question as before:—'Hard times.' Even when his wife told him that she had dismissed Maria, and cut down the cook's wages, he scarcely noticed her remarks. After sitting awhile with his head bowed on his hands, he said in an authoritative tone,

"I am not well, Edith. Get me some brandy, and then I will go to my room." The manner in which he spoke seemed to startle the wife; and she shuddered as she answered him;

"Dear Rob! I would not take brandy, a dose of sleep will cure you!" And she tried to laugh, but Robert broke in hastily:—

"So you think. That's wherein you and I differ. Come, get me the brandy for I am sick; and unfit for word-playing."

Still Edith hesitated; offered a few more persuasions; and at last brought a small potion with a trembling hand, and a fainting heart. The husband drank it, and went away, without the usual, "I thank you, Edith."

Indeed, why should he thank her? Did not her own heart rebuke her? A long time Edith stood, leaning one white arm on the marble mantel; the empty glass her in her hand; offering her self-accusing heart unsatisfactory apologies for yielding to cowardice and fear. "I feared to refuse?" she asked, and her heart's answer was "yes!" Do not call her weak. Never is a woman so utterly undone, as at the first angry word from lips that have named her "dear!"

Shadows crossed and recrossed the face of the young wife;—doubts that arose in her mind, harbored for an instant, and then driven back, yet returning in increasing darkness, and brooding in the heaven of her love with most portentous gloom.

Then came the storm; torrents of rain and quick succession of despairing sighs. The little clock on the mantel—an exquisitely curious peice of workmanship made and purchased in Italy—kept quietly tick ing; not the pert, forward, audacious tick of one of our ordinary eight-day clocks; nor yet the stately, solemn, foreboding voice of "the old clock on the stair,"—but a little lady-like, graciously-civil tick, that was willing to be heard or not heard, at pleasure; and never lost its perfect equanimity, but sang out the hours silverly, as if it were a happiness to count them;—and very unlike those impertinent sisters, who go through with a series of preparatory wheezings and throat-cleanings, as though they were about to do something that was never before done by any one of the clockhood fraternity!—something surprisingly smart, and startingly original! and also very unlike "the old clock on the stair," that always tolls the house away, knelling rather than singing!

Well; the old clock kept ticking, and and at last sang twelve notes, close in Edith's ear; yet so unintrusively that she did not hear it. Another hour passed, and when the little clock told it, Edith started. I know not how it is; but the car is more surely attracted by a single stroke of time than by a multiplicity of strokes. Have you never noticed it, reader? Listen then on a breathless summer night, to the clock in the neighboring steeple, and then realize the fact. When it tells the midnight hour the tale is repeated by every stroke—each one verifying the utterances of its predecessors; but when one note floats out alone into the dark, followed only by its murmurous vibrations, you are left in a maze of wonderment, asking yourself,—"Did the clock strike?" And yet more mysteriously, "What was that sound? Was it, in truth, but another step in the great march of Time?" And so you are left wondering over that strange, weird tone, that proceeded from you know not what, and that will not re-assure you by repeating itself.

Even thus was Edith startled when the silver-toned clock gave out the hour of "one!" She had been lost in thought so deep, so profound, that she had ceased weeping. The fire had ceased on the hearth, and her slippered foot tapped nervously on the stone. Suddenly, with a quick gesture of passionate despair, she raised the goblet high above her head, moaning, "O! cursed hand! that added fuel to the fire?"—and then dashed it down!

Fearfully loud was the crash, and the very silence of the room seemed shivered in pieces even as the wine-cup was. Edith sprang forward, terrified by her own act. She threw her hair back from her pale, stricken face; and the hundred glittering fragments glared like innumerable evil eyes upon her; and the stillness was full of accusing voices. She buried her face in her hands and sobbed aloud. Softer and meeker grew the storm; and at length sank to the low breath of prayer; and she fell on her knees, and lifted her pitiful, dumb lips to Him who hears

The heart throb, heavy with its weight of tears!

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUE INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a sewing needle dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1858.

LETTER FROM VERMONT

Dear Chronicle:—I am just back to my post after a long absence, and am stealing a little time to look over back numbers of the Chronicle to see what the Granite State is doing. I must apologize for my long silence. I have lost my pen—my best fountain pen—my "Princes Protean Pen, Indicator pattern with regulator;" and a pen it was, worthy of a prince. I am not sure that the successful introduction of the Fountain Pen by Rev. Mr. Prince, may not prove an era in the world. It may yet be capable of further improvements, but even in its present form it is such a boon to the ready writer, that to be appreciated it must be used—and lost. Your pen runs on almost of its own accord, and my long use of it has materially modified my hand and increased the rapidity of my writing, and still more increased the quantity of my lucubrations. If it does not deteriorate the quality of the fabrics of my brain, nor the legibility of my chirography, it is all I ask.

The news of the morning here is that Fillibuster Walker is a prisoner at Washington. Unhappy Cabinet! It had already there one Walker more than it knew what to do with—could not the fates have spared them this infliction? So Capt. Chatard is to be court-martialed for letting him land at Punta Arenas, and Com. Paulding for bringing him back. One man is punished for letting him run away, and another for his re-capture. I know of no better way to dispose of the matter now than to send this president of a sister republic round Cape Horn in a national vessel and land him at San Juan del Sur, whence a national vessel once took him, and leave his fellow citizens to welcome him as they choose.

But a new trouble springs up. It is a principle of the great Democratic party that the offices belong to the party, and ought to be distributed among them as impartially as possible. This the Cabinet admits. But the Boston Pilot claims that twenty-nine-fortieths of the Democratic voters in Massachusetts are Catholics, and that of the 1161 federal offices in the Bay State, 841 at least should be filled by Catholics. All the Protestant officeholders over 320 are benefitted by an odious proscription for religious opinions. Admit the principle, and the claim is perfect. I suspect the carrying it out would be found inconvenient.

In Cornwall, Vt., a town on Otter Creek, the party have been in pursuit of a postmaster under difficulties. There happened to be but one voter for Pierce in town.—They gave the office to him. He lived some miles from the office, but suffered his name to be printed on the way bills. But last fall he voted against Buchanan; so they appointed a nephew of Silas Wright, who lives half a mile south of the Weybridge line, and whose post office address is Middlebury. He takes no notice of the appointment, but the man that keeps the post office says that something must be done soon, for his way-bills, with his predecessor's name on them, are nearly exhausted. I am led to think that, in little things, the present administration is a little the littlest we have had.

What a world of trouble the doctrine of squatter sovereignty has been to its inventors! It takes a standing army to make a colony govern itself. Half our national force was inadequate to enable Kansas to hug slavery to her virgin breast; so obstinate are sovereigns in voting the way they are not wanted to. And the whole disposable force is four regiments short of sufficient to enable the Mormons to eschew polygamy, and exchange their peculiar views of the right of theft for that entertained by Judge Taney.

I am in favor of having Kansas a slave State. I should like to have a hand in framing its slave laws, which should be after the newest mould. The import and export of slaves should be forbidden. Moral suasion alone should be relied on to enforce obedience and diligence. The maintainance of the slave in sickness and old age should be a lien on the property of the owner. And no man should be permitted to put his slave on the underground railroad without a spare suit of new clothes, suitable for the snows of Canada, even tho' he were unable to sell him or give him away. With a few more provisions of this kind, slavery might continue, in that devoted territory to the end of time, for all I care. I have no kind of objection to the slavery element in the Lecompton Constitution.

Seriously, the existence of slavery in any place requires slave laws as truly as fire requires combustible materials. Constitutions are not sufficient. If the U. S. Constitution brings a slave into New Hampshire, it cannot make him work nor walk. The State might exclude him from all railroad trains not running northward. What is essentially wanted is a decision of the U. S. court, that all suits arising in New Hampshire, between a Virginian and his slave, shall be tried in the U. S. Court, by Virginian laws, and without a jury. The Taney decision is absolutely worthless without this crowning work, which only waits perhaps, the resignation of Judge McLean and the appointment of another judge 'recommended particularly by Judge Taney.' Till we have that, no ingenuity can convert a slave carried without his consent from Baltimore to Philadelphia, into a fugitive; and no law can compel him to go back. Is there any man with half an eye that cannot see this?

I am forgetting one local incident. I have attended an examination and concert of the Middleburg Female Seminary under the charge of Miss Agnes Gordon. The examinations were characterized by the thoroughness of the mathematical department particularly, a trait not usual in Female schools. Drawing from nature, and painting, seem particularly in vogue here, not only in the school, but among the ladies resident in and near Middlebury. Of the concert, you can judge something by by the programme which I send for your own inspection and not for publication. Prof. Arthur Bott, Ph. D., is a young German, whose zeal for music has been crowned with such success, that had the concert been repeated the next night, I think the hall would have been, as before, crowded. Eight-handed piano pieces are a novelty with us, and I have never heard better music except in cities.

And now what are my Democratic friends doing about your impending election? Has the Daily Patriot made its appearance? Is its nominal price still 25 cents? Where does the money that sustains it probably come from now that Uncle Sam's treasury has collapsed? Has Gov. Walls resumed his "moral lectures?" Do they still cry that the prohibitory law was never intended to be executed? Do they like the law any better now that they find it is not a dead sham? My conclusion from reading your paper is, either that they are rather lax this year, or that you are forgetting them on account of your interest in things further off. But no more at present from

Your friend, OTTERBANK.

LAW IN MAINE.—The Portland Argus of Dec. 31st says:—

The revised statutes of this State, which go into effect on and after to-morrow, Jan. 1, provides that all marriages of residents of the State, solemnized in another State, with intent to evade the publishment laws, shall be null and void. As our previous statement of this fact has been called in question, we publish the provision:

"Sec. 9. When residents of this State, with intent to evade the preceeding provisions, and to return and reside here, go into another State or country, and have there their marriage solemnized, and afterwards return and reside here, such marriage shall be void in this State."

No doubt the Argus is correct:—but then, says Uncle Toby, this is no law at all, but a mere blunder in legislation!—Such marriage would not be null and void, but the silly provision in the statute is void and of no force. A couple, legally married in New Hampshire—are quite as legally husband and wife after they cross the bridge to live in Kittery, or any other town in Maine. This law, so called, is a mere brutum fulmen,—and we doubt not will soon be repealed. It could not stand an hour in any decent court.

☞ On Wednesday evening, in Manchester, one Patrick Tally, a paddy, 18 years old, fired a pistol at Carles B. Seavey, in Pope's saloon, firing twenty-two small shot into Seavey's head. The Mirror says Tally was a fast boy, quick-tempered, and "somewhat in liquor, undoubtedly." Exactly so; total abstinents do no such deeds.

☞ The Pennsylvanian, Mr. Buchanan's organ in Philadelphia, is bitter in its hostility to Col. Forney of the Press. It begs of him to cease hypocrisy, and pretend to nothing (in the words of the Pennsylvanian) "but what you are, a secret enemy all the time, and an open one when you dare, to the present federal administration." This charge of being "a secret enemy all the time" indicates something beyond a temporary disagreement.

ALMOST THROUGH.—The Shasta (California) Courier states that "Mr. Sites sunk a shaft near Weaverville, a year or two since, to the depth of upwards of seven hundred feet." John Chinaman had better look out, or he will be undermined.

THE EAST BOSTON MURDER CASE.—Wm. Joyce has been indicted for the murder of Policeman Hodsdon at East Boston, by shooting, several months ago. Joyce was arrested a few days subsequent to the murder, for store-breaking, and the evidence against him is said to be very strong but circumstantial. At the time of the murder Hodsdon had arrested him on the same charge of shop-breaking that he was subsequently taken for. Joyce is an Englishman, about 29 years of age. He has twice been an inmate of the State Prison for burglary.

The Jury summoned to investigate the circumstances connected with the death of Officer Ezekiel W. Hodsdon in October last, at East Boston, after several sittings, and a most minute and thorough examination of a large number of witnesses, concluded their labors on Monday evening and returned the following verdict:

"That the said Ezekie W. Hodsdon came to his death about 10 o'clock A. M., Oct. 18, 1857, in the Station House No. 7, on Paris street, from a wound inflicted about 5 o'clock A. M., on said 18th day of October, having been shot in the head by a ball discharged from a pistol in the hands of William Joyce; and at the time the deceased, in the proper discharge of his duty as a Police officer, had arrested and had in custody William McNulty, in Havre street, East Boston."

And the Jury further find that McNulty, during the previous night had been at Lynn, North Chelsea and other places in company with said Joyce, and that as soon as the officer was shot, McNulty fled, and the next day, after an interview with Joyce left the State for parts unknown to the Jury.

☞ Over one hundred fishing vessels are now hauled up for the winter at Provincetown. The fishing fares brought to that port during the last season have been 25,000 quintals less than the previous season, and only about 18,000 quintals remain unsold. Sales have been made as low as $2.50 per quintal, which is about a dollar less than the usual price.

"SEE-SAW."—"Well," said a carpenter, "of all the saws ever I saw, I never saw a saw saw as I saw that saw saw."

LOST,—On Thursday evening, in this city, a Miniature BOSOM PIN, with the owner's name.—The finder is requested to leave it at the Chronicle Counting Room. j2

—OF—

The Character of Washington.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT having accepted an invitation of the citizens of Portsmouth, will deliver his ADDRESS on the CHARACTER OF WASHINGTON,

At the Temple,

On MONDAY Evening, Jan. 11, 1858.

Doors to be opened at 6½ P. M., and the Address delivered at 7.

TICKETS of single admission at 50 cents; and Family Tickets, admitting three or more, at two shillings each person, may now be procured at the stores of Messrs. J. F. Shores, Jr., J. H. Foster, C. C. Harvey, W. R. Preston, and J. H. Thacher.

No Family Tickets will be disposed of after 6 P. M. on that day. Should any single tickets remain unsold, they can be procured at the door.

The subject is one to which every lover of his country delights to listen—the proceeds of the receipts will be a contribution by Mr. E. towards the purchase of Mount Vernon—the orator, the Demosthenes of his day, possesses great attractions aside from the subject and object. This threefold attraction will render the occasion one of great interest. Purchasers will therefore do well to secure their Tickets as early as possible, as the number to be sold has been limited.

That he has used it in the fall and summer months, and has seldom been disappointed in its use. Beyond a doubt Myers' Extract Rock Rose is a specific in Diarrhea. See Circulars.

THERE ARE OCCASIONS

When even the healthiest people need medicine; the changes of diet, of weather, and hundreds of other causes, produce a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged and needs a stimulator. If all who find themselves in this situation will try Dr Sanford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing Headache, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ills so common in a family. It acts, as a mother has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

☞ The editor of the Bath Organ, Democratic, is an out-spoken, fearless writer, and is blamed by some of his cotemporaries—to whom he replis that he "does not think a democratic editor is bound to make an ass of himself, through fear that the republican papers will "admire" his articles."

☞ The New Orleans Picayune denies the statement now going the rounds of the press, that the new Custom House in that city has been greatly injured by the settling of its foundation. It admits that the building has settled considerably, as all heavy structures in that city do; but the settling has been so uniform that, in its whole length of 300 feet, it is only a trifle out of line.

☞ Frederick Burkee has been arrested in Rochester, N. Y., for beating and starving his wife to death. The body of the poor woman was terribly emaciated, and was covered with bruises and sores. The children were almost eaten up with vermin. The family were Swiss, and one of the little children testified that her father was sent away from Switzerland for his own cruelty.

☞ One evening last week Mrs. Prather was married at her father's house in Clark county, Indiana, and had got on horseback to accompany the bridegroom to his home, when her horse was frightened by a party of young men coming to charivari the marriage company, and starting suddenly, threw her off and broke her neck.

Postmaster Arrested for Mail-Robbing.—On the 23d inst., an agent of the Post-Office department arrested William Ferguson, Postmaster at Mottville, Mich., for embezzling letters. It is said that his guilt is beyond question, a part of the bills contained in a decoy letter, having been found on his person.

☞ A lady named Catharine Gray, residing in Newark, fell dead on Tuesday morning, while at prayer. Her death is attributed to grief and depression of spirits, caused by the death of her husband, who was lost by the wreck of the Central America, on which he was a passenger.

Naval Apprentices.—Capt. Dupont, of the U. S. steam frigate Minnesota, reports unfavorably upon the employment of landsmen taken from large cities in ships of war, as they prove vicious and worthless.

☞ In New York on Sunday, a mere child, not six years old, died from the effects of drinking brandy, which he obtained from a bottle, in the absence of his mother. The liquor produced congestion of the brain.

☞ The Provincetown Banner says that Thomas A. Miller of that place has eloped with a Miss Mary A. Pope of Sandwich, who is reported to have $1800 dollars in her possession. Miller has a wife and children in Provincetown.

☞ Schooner Molly, Capt. Hutchinson, of Frankfort, Me., left Bangor seven weeks ago, loaded with brick, consigned to Nelson Curtis, of Roxbury, Mass., and has not been heard from since. It is feared she has foundered at sea.

☞ Three more cargoes of Africans have been landed in Cuba. The schooner James Buchanan landed one hundred, and left the coast for Tobasco, or other parts unknown.

Naval. — The United States supply schooner Cobb, was lost off Abaco Point, on the 13th ult. Her crew arrived at Charleston on the 30th.

☞ The Texas Legislature has passed a bill which allows free negros who may desire it, to select masters and become slaves!

Enforcement of the Law.—Prosecutions for liquor selling are becoming very frequent in different parts of the State.—There seems to be little difficulty in enforcing the law. Commodore Paulding's Instructions.—The following were the circular instructions sent to him:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18, 1857.

Sir: From information received at this department, there is reason to believe that lawless persons are now engaged within the limits of the United States in setting on foot and preparing the means for military expeditions to be carried on against the territories of Mexico, Nicaragua and Costa Rica—republics with whom the United States are at peace—in direct violation of the 6th section of the act of Congress approved 20th April, 1818. And, under the eighth section of the said act, it is made lawful for the President, or such person as he shall empower, to employ the land and naval forces of the United States, and the militia thereof "for the purpose of preventing the carrying on of any such expedition or enterprise from the territories or jurisdiction of the United States." I am directed by the President to call your attention to the subject, and urge you to use all due diligence and to avail yourself of all legitimate means at your command to enforce these and other provisions of the said act of 20th April, 1818, against those who may be found to be engaged in setting on foot or preparing military expeditions against the territories of Mexico, Costa Rica and Nicaragua, so manifestly prejudicial to the national character and so injurious to the national interest. And you are hereby instructed promptly to communicate to this department the earliest information you may receive relative to such expeditions.

I am, sir, your obedient servant.
LEWIS CASS.

Com. Paulding.—Hiram Paulding comes honestly by his skill in arresting unlawful expeditions. His father was the celebrated John Paulding, the Peekskill farmer, who was one of the captors of Major Andre. Hiram was born in Westchester county, and early in life entered the Navy, where he has gradually worked his way up through the grades of Midshipman, Lieutenant, Commander and Captain. He has ever been one of the most efficient and valuable officers in the service; and Government a short time since showed its appreciation of the fact by appointing him to the command of the Home Squadron, which command he now holds.

We observe that the Atlas intimates that the Commodore "exceeded his instructions" in so promptly capturing Walker. The same complaint was made by Arnold's friends against John Paulding. Nevertheless, history and public opinion justified the one, and will justify the other.—Alb. Eve. Journal.

Washington, Dec. 31.—(Tribune correspondence.)—The Cabinet met this morning. Com. Paulding's case was fully considered, and it was determined to disapprove his seizure on the land as violating the sovereignty of Nicaragua and his letter of instructions, but did not resolve to recall him or order a court of inquiry. Aside from the technical considerations of the discipline of the service, the President strongly approves the morale of his conduct and speaks with unreserved admiration of his letter.

The South has pushed this point offensively to Mr. Buchanan's sensibility. Capt. Engle will carry back Secretary Toucey's answer.

Gen. Walker intends to leave Washington on Monday for the South.

Gen. Denver declares openly that Walker and Stanton pursued the right course in Kansas, and that the President is much mistaken if he supposes that he, Denver, will not follow their example.

(Courier and Enquirer correspondence.) The treaty with Nicaragua will be laid before the Senate next week. It was confirmed by the government of Nicaragua on the 16th Nov. One of its stipulations pledges the faith of the United States to protect the transit route against vagabonds. This provision will provoke the hostility of the fillibuster interest and will perhaps cause the rejection of the treaty.

The daughters of Mrs. Cunningham are said to be in Paris, under fictitious names. Bath Tribune.

"The daughters of Mrs. Cunningham," Miss Augusta and Miss Helen, reside with their brazen mother, at No. 191, 23d st., New York.—N. Y. Paper.

Medical Preachers.—John Wesley was a doctor and preacher, and as he was successful in both capacities, Doctor Cornell and some others deduce an argument in favor of making "Primitive Physic" one of the theological text books.

☞ The Journal of Commerce estimates that there is now a stock of 850,000 barrels of flour in New York.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents, (Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
Testimonials.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, dispatch, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissione of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that today we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the appreciation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.
Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very respt'y,
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.
Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do heartily recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

Emerson's Magazine

AND

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.

TWO GREAT MAGAZINES IN ONE.

90,000 COPIES THE FIRST MONTH!

MAGNIFICENT PROGRAMME FOR 1858.

$20,000

IN SPLENDID WORKS OF ART.

FIVE-DOLLAR ENGRAVING

TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER.

THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER.

AGENTS GETTING RICH!!

The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consolidated work a circulation second to but one similar publication in the country, and has secured for it a combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivaled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 90,000 copies, and the numbers already issued of the consolidated work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents, and the professors of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these evidences of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers, as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines. With this view they now announce the following splendid programme. They have purchased that superb and costly steel-plate engraving, and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1858. It was engraved at a cost of over $6000, by the late celebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary three-dollar engravings.

"THE LAST SUPPER,"

The first impressions of this engraving are held at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a sum less than $5, being richly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the magazine one year—cheap at $3—and this splendid engraving, richly worth $5; thus getting for $3 the value of $8.

We shall commence striking off the engravings immediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which the subscriptions are received. Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first impressions, should send in their subscriptions without delay. The engraving can be sent on rollers, by mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers shall order.

$20,000 IN WORKS OF ART.

In addition to the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," which will be presented to every three-dollar subscriber for 1858, the publishers have completed arrangements for the distribution, on the 25th day of Dec., 1858, of a series of splendid works of art, consisting of 100 rich and rare Oil Paintings, valued at from $100 to $1 each. Also, 2000 magnificent Steel-Plate Engravings, worth from $3 to $5 each, and 1000 choice Holiday Books, worth from $1 to $5 each; 51-inch gas and, over THREE THOUSAND GIFTS, $20 TO TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

INCLOSE $3 TO THE PUBLISHERS AND YOU WILL COMMENCE RECEIVING THE MAGAZINE BY RETURN MAIL. YOU WILL ALSO RECEIVE WITH THE FIRST COPY A NUMBERED SUBSCRIPTION RECEIPT, ENTITLING YOU TO THE ENGRAVING OF

and a chance to draw one of these "THREE THOUSAND PRIZES."

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SUBSCRIBE FOR

EMERSON'S MAGAZINE

For 1858,

First: Because its literary contents will, during the year, embrace contributions from over ONE HUNDRED different writers and thinkers, numbering among them some of the most distinguished American authors.

Second: Because its editorial departments, "Our Studio," "Our Window," and "Our Office," will each be conducted by an able editor—and it will surpass, in the variety and richness of its editorial contents, any other magazine.

Third: Because it will contain, during the year, nearly six hundred original pictorial illustrations from designs by the first American artists.

Fourth: Because for the sum of $3 you will receive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum than other magazine, and the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," worth $5.

Fifth: Because you will very likely draw one of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of Dec., 1858—perhaps one that is worth $1000.

Notwithstanding the these extraordinary inducements can hardly fail to accomplish the objects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year

THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER.

To any person who will get up a club of twenty-four subscribers, either at one or more post offices, we will present a splendid Library, consisting of over Forty Large Bound Volumes, embracing the most popular works in the market. The club may be formed on the club price, $2 a year, without the engraving, or at the full price, $3, with the engraving of the Last Supper to each subscriber. List and description of the Library, and specimen copy of the Magazine, will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents. Over 200 Libraries, or 8000 volumes, have already been distributed in accordance with this offer, and we should be glad of an opportunity to furnish a Library to every clergyman, to every school teacher, or to some one at every post office in the country.

MAKING MONEY.

The success which our agents are meeting with is almost astonishing. Among the many evidences of this fact, we present the following from one of our agents already in the field:

"I have now been at work canvassing on your Magazine one week, and am delighted with the business. It is different from canvassing for anything else I ever tried. I am sure to get a subscriber in every family where they can take together three dollars. I am never treated with indifference anywhere, for the first thing I do is to unroll my engraving before I let any body know what I am after, and then I get them interested before they know what a splendid offer I am going to make them. Sometimes they ask my price for the engraving, and I tell them $5, and when I offer them the engraving and Magazine one year for three dollars they are perfectly astonished. I did not get to going well for the first two or three days:

The 1st day I got.....2 subscribers.
The 2d day I got.....7 subscribers.
The 3d day I got.....6 subscribers.
The 4th day I got.....13 subscribers.
The 5th day I got.....9 subscribers.
The 6th day I got.....17 subscribers.
First week.....54 subscribers.

I shall do much better next week. It is the engraving that does the business. Everybody wants the engraving. You may calculate upon from one to two thousand subscribers from my ward this winter. I am going to make enough out of the business to buy me a farm in the spring."

With such inducements as we offer, anybody can obtain subscribers. We invite every gentleman out of employment, and every lady who desires a pleasant money-making occupation, to apply at once for an agency. Applicants should inclose 25 cents for a specimen copy of the Magazine, which will always be forwarded with answer to application by return mail.

SPECIMEN ENGRAVING.

As we desire to place in the hands of every person who purposes to get up a club, and also of every agent, a copy of the engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," as a specimen, each applicant inclosing us $3 will receive the engraving, post paid, by return mail, also specimens of our publications, and one of the numbered subscription receipts, entitling the holder to the Magazine one year and to a chance in the distribution. This offer is made only to those who desire to act as agents or to form clubs. Address

STEAM SAW-MILL

AND

MACHINE COMPANY,

CAPITAL $250,000.

COMBINATION
PORTABLE STEAM SAW-MILL, AND OTHER IMPROVED MACHINERY.

They have purchased the entire machinery business heretofore carried on by J. M. Emerson & Co., also the Manganese Works at Newburgh, on the Hudson, near this city, and with the experience and facilities combined in its organization are prepared to furnish machinery of all kinds at more liberal rates than has ever been offered at any other establishment.

THE COMBINATION SAW-MILL was patented Oct., 1856, and is now generally acknowledged to be the cheapest, most practical, and efficient lumber manufacturing machine in the world. A large number of them are in successful operation in different portions of this country, Canada, Cuba and South America, and wherever their qualities have been tested they are being adopted by lumber manufacturers in preference to all other mills.

The following letter expresses the general opinion of those who are using the Combination Mill:

MESSRS. EMERSON & CO.—Gentlemen; I have tried the saw-mill purchased of you, and I will say that it performs well, and more than meets my expections. I can well pleased with the operation. I set it upon a small stream that afforded constant water about as thick as my little finger, which was much more than sufficient to supply this boiler. We are able to cut 3000 feet of lumber in twenty-four 12 hours, with something less than one cord of wood. It is the very thing we so much needed in our country for a long time. With a little trouble and expense, we are able to move it from five to ten miles per day, and set it up in the heart of the timber, which saves the great burden of hauling the logs a great distance to the mill.

Yours, respectfully, JEREMIAH PARKER, Jr.
LOUISVILLE, TENNESSEE.

The Company have purchased LUND'S PATENTED ARRANGEMENT, which is illustrated and described in the Scientific American, for Oct. 24. This adds greatly to the efficiency of the mill.

THE COMBINATION MILL, with all the recent improvements, and steam power of 15 horses, is capable of sawing from 3000 to 4000 feet in twelve hours, and is sold for $1650.

THE NEW YORK CIRCULAR SAW-MILL

is manufactured only by this Company. It is of superior construction, and sold for 25 per cent less than other mills of no greater capacity. A mill with 28 to 34-inch saw can be sold for $400; and with a 20 horse engine and boiler is sold for $2200.

STEAM ENGINES and BOILERS; ENGINES of from one to 100 horse power; LOCOMOTIVE, TUBULAR, FLUE and CYLINDER BOILERS furnished at greatly reduced prices from former quotations.

Drawings, with plans and specifications for buildings and machinery, furnished gratis to our customers.

Competent mechanics are sent out to put up and set in operation our machinery, when required.

We also manufacture SHINGLE MACHINES, PLANING MACHINES, SUGAR-MILLS, and MACHINERY IN GENERAL.

Special attention paid to getting up SHAFTING and PULLEYS for manufactories, and all kinds of MILL-WORK.

This Company are selling in great numbers a PATENT CONICAL BURR-STONE MILL, for flour, corn meal, and all kinds of feed, which is pronounced by experienced millers, both in this country and in Europe, THE BEST MILL EVER CONSTRUCTED. It will grind corn in the ear, with the husks, and with the power, of any mill of the same price in the market.

We also furnish other styles of GRIST-MILLS, when required.

A STORY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

There she remained, mute and motionless as a marble statue, until the clock sang out "three," and then, like one who has dreamed a fearful dream, she arose, putting her hand to her head, as if to assure herself that the thorn-crown, which she fancied had pierced her brow, had left no wounds—no blood! She was deathly pale, but prayer had left its calm upon her face. She set the room in order;—swept up the broken glass, with look and motion that said, "If he should see it!" and then she passed softly from the room, and proceeded to her own apartment.—Noiselessly she opened the door, and the first thing that met her view as she closed it was a file of elegantly bound volumes on her dressing-table. She lifted each separately, reading her name in that familiar chirography on the fly-leaf of every one; and when she replaced the books, a faint smile broke on her lips. She stole to the bed-side. There he slept. Never had he looked more truly noble. The visible traces of his care were only such as lent dignity and thoughtfulness to the manly expression of his countenance. Edith gazed long, with mingled sadness and tenderness in her serious eyes; and while she gazed, an entire revolution of thought was apparent in the changing and ever-brightening aspect of her face.

Presently she glided away to the cribside. "Baby" stirred, as if conscious of the mother's presence, and one tiny hand went searching for something, and finding the mother's finger, fastened around it with an eager clasp. This quite overcame the mother, whose recent fit of pain had left her more weak in her tenderness than before; and so she kissed the wee hand over and over again, mingling tears and precious little whispers with the kisses all the while. In this mood she went back to Robert's side, murmuring self-consolingly, "How could I think so? He will never do so again! Dear Rob!"

She shut off the gas, and sat down in the dark, listening to the breathings of the sleepers; and never stirred till day-dawn. When the light came through the window draperies, she lifted them up and let in the full tide of sun-rise glory. Then Robert awoke.

"Edith, you are early arisen."

"Dear Rob! A Happy New Year! I must need rise early, when your beautiful gift awaits me!"

She stooped and kissed him, adding, "You are very kind, Rob;"

"Edith, my dear, how cold your hand is! Are you well?"

"Very well."

"I am glad they pleased you—the books,—Edith. I wish you a Happy New Year!"

She had risen at Bessie's call, and brought the child to her husband, saying solemnly, "Robert, we shall surely be happy, if God spares us to each other, and our darling to us both!"

And thus broke the "Happy New Year!"

III.

A middle-aged man was sitting alone in his counting-room, one day; apparently lost in thoughts of a sufficiently serious and perplexing nature to knit his forehead into a perfect snarl of scowls; and with one hand he thrummed unmeaningly on his desk. It was mid-day, and his clerks had gone to dine. So far as business was concerned their dinner-hour might have lasted till the next morning. There had been but few persons in during the morning, and most of them to borrow money.

Presently the door opened, and a tall, gentlemanly individual entered with a brisk step, and proceeded to the counting-room. A moment he stood looking at the merchant with a comic expression of countenance, and then shouted in a loud voice, full of pleasant irony,

"Driving a great business here!—eh?"

The merchant's face unknotted itself instantly, and caught a light from the contagious cheerfulness of the visitor's. The man drew his stool to the fire, motioned his friend to another, and tumbling his hair all up in his excitement, replied,

"I tell you what, Doctor! I've been in business—let me see—twenty, yes, twenty-five years; and I never knew anything like these times. Live! Why a man has more than he can do to keep himself from sinking any moment!"

"I know it! I know it!" returned the Doctor, soberly.

"It's no use to groan and fret, I know," continued the merchant; "but when a man is alone, his thoughts naturally turn on his affairs; and when everybody's prospects are about as bad as his own, (and some a deal worse,) it is a little more than a fellow can do to be 'jolly,' even if he has the true Tapley spirit in him. By the way, have you seen Kirkdale lately? If ever I pitied any man, I have pitied him! I knew he couldn't stand it. His affairs have been in a bad state for some time."

The Doctor sneered a little, but evidently not from real unkindness.

The merchant went on:

"I know how it is. His habits did a great deal toward ruining him. Fine business talents, Doctor,—fine! Though no man gets any benefit from buried gold, treasures in the sea." He paused a few seconds, then resumed his subject.

"In these trying times a man must keep head and heart right, if he even hopes to steer clear, and avoid shipwreck. A man needs all his energies and faculties at all times, to be sure; otherwise the Creator would not have given him so many; but especially in times of trial and misfortune; and if he destroys or stupefies them by intemperance, he robs himself of the only earthly treasure that has any durability. It is hard enough to get along at best; but when a man recklessly throws up all self-respect and self-command, he plunges, open-eyed, into the very jaws of misfortunes, as into a den of wild beasts. I suppose Kirkdale's failure was one of the worst we have had here?"

"Yes—yes," replied the Doctor, "I pity him too. He must now begin life anew; and little enough to begin with. I saw him a fortnight ago; and I thought him about used up. He is the last person I should have marked out for a drunkard, a few years since."

"Well, Doctor, I'll tell you how it was. He began by drinking fasionably at fashionable parties, and, I presume, once in a while he got fashionably drunk! It is strange to me that men, whose social and intellectual advantages are so far above those of the masses—men of culture and refinement, should become slaves to such depraved and ruinous passions."

"Intemperance makes fearful havoc among high and low," said the Doctor.

"Yes; and nourishes and impels every form of vice and crime: and I contend that every man, who has his own safety, and the safety and comfort of his family at heart—ought, continually, to exert his strongest influence on the side of temperance. It is no way for him to sit down and refuse to act, because he fancies this law too stringent, or that not sufficiently so—just because he did not happen to be sole framer of the law. Law or no law, every man can work for the right, if he will! And first, let him shape his own life according to his own ideas of purity and duty, and then keep his example unspotted before the world.

"There are so many who are utterly indifferent! Decent-hearted men, who take their glass now and then, but don't happen to fall into the gutter themselves, and so cannot see why their neighbors should; or don't wish to bother themselves if their neighbors do; or say they must get out as they can—it is not their fault! We find many such men in the upper classes; and, after all, I think it is among the upper classes that reform must first be carried out. If it is no disgrace for a fashionable rich man to get fashionably intoxicated, I do not think it is any disgrace for an unfashionable poor man to get unfashionably drunk! The former has almost innumerable resources of enjoyment—rational and elevating pleasures; while the latter has very little enjoyment, outside that which he thinks he finds in his bottle.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SURDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

WYANDOTTE CITY, KANSAS,
Wednesday, Dec. 23, '57.

Dear Friend:—I am still at Wyandotte, and I shall probably remain here; I like this point better than any in the territory. You would be reminded of "Aladdin" and the "Arabian Nights," if you could see this place now, and compare it with the Wyandotte you saw last spring. There has been more building done here during the past summer and autumn, than in any place, outside the city of Leavenworth, in the territory; and "the work goes bravely on." We are going to build up a town at this point that will eclipse Leavenworth, five years hence, or I'm no prophet. But I need not describe to you the site of 'Wyandotte City'—you have seen it. We have a road opened nearly through to the great Santa Fe route, the grand Southern thoroughfare of the territory. We have another good carriage road to Lawrence direct; have a daily mail both up and down the river; and are in direct communication with all parts of the territory.—We have fifteen hundred inhabitants, and are not yet ten months old. Landed property is dull just now, but sages predict unparalleled prosperity in the spring.

Day before yesterday, the vote on the "constitution with slavery," or "constitution without slavery," took place. Very few of the Free State party voted at this precinct, which was very generally the case throughout the territory, very few only of the Free State men taking any part in the affair. Some fifty mounted Missourians presented themselves at the polls about noon, and demanded the right of voting, but they were so firmly and decidedly repulsed by the honorable portion of Pro-slavery men, (and a more honorable class does not exist in the territory than we have in this vicinity,) that, after making some very bloody threats, they took their departure in disgust, determined to let Kansas do her own voting for the future.

This raid of the Missourians, however, was general throughout all the border counties of the territory, and in many cases they were successful. It is rumored that three thousand pro-slavery majority was polled in two precincts of Johnson county, and the famous Oxford precinct is yet to be heard from. This will probably swell the majority to upwards of five thousand, that is, if there is a man who can write, and they find another old directory. It is a fixed fact that the territory has gone pro-slavery by any amount of majority.

The Democracy (!) hold a convention at Leavenworth in a few days, for the purpose of memorializing Congress to pass an enabling act. The Wyandotte wing had a spicy meeting last night, and I attended the powow for a short time. There was a great division of opinion as to the advisability of sending a delegation to the convention, and the meeting came very near dissolving itself into its original elements—for a more heterogeneous mass never yet worked together in iniquity, than the so-called Democracy that seeks to control us here in Kansas. Pro-slavery men of all shades and descriptions, (and these are the most consistent portion,) Northern dough-faces of the most approved and putty-like pliability, old line Whigs, cords of Know Nothings, and a few consistent old-fashioned Democrats to season the mess, comprise the ingredients.

That such a conglomeration can long act in unison, is simply impossible. The meeting last night finally appointed a delegation of five to attend the convention at Leavenworth, with instructions to "bolt" if the enabling act or a new State Democratic ticket is proposed to the convention. Now, as it is for these purposes, and no others, that the convention is called, I think the delegation will have an opportunity of "backing out." I have since conversed with one of these same delegates, and he says he don't mean to leave, any way, but shall "go the whole hog." So much for delegations "under instructions."

It is rumored that Stanton will run for Governor on an independent ticket. He has been quite popular of late, and will receive a strong support among the "moderates." The legislature has adjourned sine die. We shall petition Congress to reject the constitution which our oppressors seek to force upon us, and if they refuse to grant our petition, the consequences be on their own heads.

A friend of mine has just returned from Leavenworth. He says that there were a good many of our friends from the other side of the river, at that place on Monday, but that as fast as one went to vote he was arrested and confined till night, and then ordered with warnings to "go and sin no more." Some sixteen prisoners were taken in this way. The Free State men to the number of three hundred, formed in a body and marched to the warehouse of A. B. Miller (one of the Ruffian captains of last year) and demanded the "arms" taken from free State men at that time. Miller refused to give them up, and the "boys" took them. They then went to the store of Wm. A. Russell and made a demand for the "rifles" taken from the Chicago party, a year ago last summer. Russell gave one look at the crowd, and then said "Boys you can take them." The party then procured an effigy of John Calhoun, and bore it to the front of the "Planters" (where Calhoun was stopping) where they burned it, with appropriate honors; Calhoun being a forced spectator of the scene: afterwards he sent to the "Fort" for troops, to protect him. Three hundred of them started for the city, but Captain Dixon (leader of the Free State men) heard of their coming, and marched his men to the limits of the corporation, where they drew up in line, to receive the troopers. When they came up, Dixon's party presented arms, and then gave three cheers for the United States soldiers, which were returned by the troops with three cheers for the "citizen soldiery of Leavenworth City," and three more for the Free State party. They then parted, one company returning to the "Fort" and the other to the "city."

No Free State votes were polled in Leavenworth. A watchman was shot on Monday night, and died yesterday morning; a man named Perkins has been arrested. The notorious Eli Moore (a contemptible pro-slavery pup) was shot through both legs the same night. This he took as a gentle hint to "vamose," which he accordingly did, very suddenly.

F. H. B.

THE KANSAS ELECTION.—The returns of the Kansas election of the 21st ult. are very scanty; but the decided indications are that the slavery sections of the new constitution have been adopted by a large majority, though by a small vote as compared with that of the October election. Some papers are seeking to relieve their annoyance at this result, by throwing the whole blame on the Free State men for staying away from the polls. But this is a shallow trick, with which the public are already familiar. What obligations were the Free State men under to endorse this Lecompton conspiracy by complying with its one sided requisitions? What confidence could they have in the fairness of the election? The result shows already, and vindicates their discretion. The suspiciously-large Pro-Slavery vote at Shawnee has been published. And now we find that Oxford, which Gov. Walker, on the 21st of October, after personal inspection, pronounced "a village of six houses, including stores, and without a tavern"—this same Oxford reports 1300 votes cast, and, of course, a rousing majority for slavery!—We shall next be told, perhaps, that the Free State men are responsible for such frauds as these.

Again, the same papers have repeatedly told us that the Democratic party of Kansas, as a general thing, were not in favor of slavery. But, very pertinently asks the Boston Journal, where are the votes of this party? Why didn't they come to the rescue of the Administration? Copies of that part of the President's Message, favoring the election of the 21st, were sent in advance to Kansas, and were said to have produced an excellent impression. Why was there no respectable response at the polls? If the national Democrats of Kansas refused to vote, how could the avowed Free State men be expected to do it? But if there are no such anti-slavery Democrats, then let it be frankly confessed that the administration has been lending its countenance and support to a party in Kansas who care for nothing but negro slavery, and stick at nothing to fasten it upon the people.

ABIJAH JENKINS IN LONDON.—The recovery of lady Elesmere's jewels was followed by a confession of the thief, Wm. Atwell, implicating one Edward Jackson and his wife, as the receivers of the stolen jewels. It appears that Jackson was a professional receiver of stolen goods, and a worthy contemporary of Abijah Jenkins of Boston.—Courier.

☞ Prof. Allen, of Michigan, writes in the Medical Independent, that it is alcohol, and not the poisonous drugs put into the liquors, which destroys the inebriate.

QUITE LIKELY.—One of the Buchanan papers says the "Democrats of New Hampshire have opened the campaign with spirit." We presume they will close it with the same article.—Lowell Courier.

☞ Over 5000 persons tried before the New York court of sessions last year, only 94 were sober, when arrested.

DROLL BLUNDERS.

Some typographical blunders are embarrassing and provoking, others only ludicrous. The reader may laugh or cry, as he thinks best, over the following fresh errors, all made in a single week.

A few days ago, in the Daily Chronicle, something was said about Com. Paulding's being in the British or American army.—We wrote navy.

About the same time, the Portland Advertiser reproved the boys for a breach of the seventh commandment, in skating on Sunday. Probably the editor wrote fourth.

The Boston Trumpet of last week has a line or two about "Noah's going to the land of Nod and choosing a wife," though the rest of the piece shows that Cain was spoken of.

But one of the best, or worst, blunders we have seen for some time, has been made by some itemizer, in abridging the Reasons given by Rev. Mr. Whiting of this city, why the prohibitory liquor law is not better executed. The item has been in the Boston Ledger, Manchester Mirror, and Boston Temperance Visitor, always alike, and always wrong. In this item one proposition reads thus:

"That the want of physical courage, intemperance, and peaceable people impedes the law."

Now, reader, try to understand it, if you can. Here are three reasons, viz.: 1, want of courage; 2, intemperance; and (droll enough) 3, peaceable people,—and to crown the whole, all these three things impedes the law.

But did Mr. Whiting write such nonsense and bad grammar? or did we print it so? Not at all. He wrote, and we printed, as follows:

"The want of physical courage in temperance and peaceable people impedes the law."

This is good sense, truth, and good grammar, but by leaving out one space, and putting in two commas, it was turned into utter nonsense in one part, and falsehood in another part.

A LESSON IN PHILOSOPHY.—We would recommend the following letter to the consideration of any reader who in health and prosperity may be led, by trifling disappointments, to murmur at his lot, and cry "hard times," and the like.

FRANCONIA, N. H., Dec. 28.

Dear Sir:—I received with my paper a bill which I know is due; and I would gladly pay, if it was in my power, but it is not. By long sickness in my family, I am utterly unable. I am an old man, and my wife has been deranged these many years, and I have to board her out with my labor, and it is sometimes all that I can do. I hope I shall be able to pay you in the Spring. I think yours is as good a paper, and as well calculated to do good, as any I ever had; the most in the smallest space, therefore it is read by many that will not read long pieces.

I have told you nothing but what is true, and but a small part of my trouble. I buried two children—they each of them died deranged—but I must forbear.

Your unfortunate friend, L. E. P.

TORONTO MARKET REPORT.—Dec. 30.

The dullness noted in my last continues in an increased degree, from the continued absence of snow, the excitement of elections, and the continuous decline of prices in the English markets. But for the temporary suspension of ferryage across the St. Lawrence, at Montreal, there would be a tolerably active demand for Flour, for the Eastern markets; especially for Extras of best grades, from sound Wheat, and which can only be obtained in this neighborhood. Some Rochester Millers are actually purchasers at certain of our brands, who, by engagement with our Millers, put the Flour up with the Genesee brand, and sell it as such in the American market.

As we anticipate Monetary matters will improve after the Holidays, prices may rally for best brands.

In Wheat there is little doing, and none moving. The low prices that will rule will originate a speculative feeling with a view to storing till Spring, as there is a great deal of Wheat to be brought out this Winter, yet.

Fine Flour, $2 50 to 3.00 per bl.; No. 2 Superfine $2 50 to 3.57; No. 1 do., 3 60 to 3.70; Fancy, 4 00 to 4.10; Extra, 4.50 to 4.60; Double Ex, 4.70 to 5.00.

Wheat.—Prime white winter 85 to 90c; fair average do. 80 to 83c; Spring 65 to 75c; per 60 lbs.

Oats 28c per 30lbs. Barley 50 a 60c per 48lb.

Rye 50c per 56lbs. Peas 50 a 55c per 60 lbs.

Hogs 5 00 a 5 50 per 100lbs.

Bank Drafts on New York par to ¼ per cent. premium; Boston par.

Freights from Toronto by rail, for full car loads only, to Montreal 60c a bl., 18c bush.; to Boston 120c a bl., 36c a bush.; to Portland 110c a bl. 33c a bush.; to Ogdensburgh 50c a bl., 15c a bush.; to New York 130c a bl., 42c a bush. Rates to Island Pond, Northumberland, Danville Junction, are the same as to Portland; to Bangor 25c per bl. more than to Portland.

EVERETT'S ADDRESS
—ON—
The Character of Washington.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT having accepted an invitation of the citizens of Portsmouth, will deliver his ADDRESS on the CHARACTER OF WASHINGTON,

At the Temple,

On MONDAY Evening, Jan. 11, 1858.

Doors to be opened at 6½ P. M., and the Address delivered at 7.

TICKETS of single admission at 50 cents; and Family Tickets, admitting three or more, at two shillings each, commencing now to be disposed of at the stores of Messrs. J. F. Shores, Jr., J. H. Foster, C. C. Harvey, W. R. Preston, and J. H. Thacher.

No Family Tickets will be disposed of after 6 P. M. on that day. Should any single tickets remain unsold, they can be procured at the door.

The subject is one to which every lover of his country delights to listen—the proceeds of the receipts will be a contribution by Mr. E. towards the purchase of Mount Vernon—the orator, the Demosthenes of his day, possesses great attractions aside from the subject and object. This threefold attraction will render the occasion one of great interest. Purchasers will therefore do well to secure their Tickets as early as possible, as the number to be sold has been limited.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immediately upon, any agency in the country offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind do the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate the largest collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and the collections of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DIARRHEA.

Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, in his Dissertation on Rock Rose, says, "Several practitioners in this city have used it much for the cure of Diarrhea, and willingly bear testimony to its efficacy. In many cases of Cholera Infantum it has been used with entire success, often after other remedies had failed." That he has used it in the fall and summer months, and has seldom been disappointed in its use. Beyond a doubt Myers' Extract Rock Rose is a specific in Diarrhea. See Circulars.

CLOAKS AND CLOAK GOODS.

If any of our readers are about purchasing a Cloak, or the materials to make one, they will of course visit NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST., before buying.—Allen & Paine having appropriated one room of their store to that business entirely, are opening to-day one of the largest stocks in this city, including Cloaks, Broadcloths, Black, Brown and Drab Plush for Trimming. To those of their customers who prefer making their own Cloaks, they will give a pattern of any Cloak in their store.

☞ The only place in this city where an Ambrotype can be obtained, is at Davis' Ambrotype Gallery, No. 8 Daniel Street, as they have the Patent, and all infringements will be prosecuted. sept9

THERE ARE OCCASIONS

When even the healthiest people need medicine; the changes of diet, of weather, and hundreds of other causes, produce a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged and needs a stimulator. If all who find themselves in this situation will try Dr Sanford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing Headache, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ills so common in a family. It acts, as a medicine, easier and better than any dose of pills we ever swallowed, and so mild that the smallest infant can take it.

LOCAL.

☞ Although we "turned over a new leaf" in our account-books with the commencement of the New Year, yet we have still some charges on the old leaves which we wish to preserve. For this purpose we have procured a nice "Fire-Proof Safe," of the celebrated manufacture of Edwards, Fernald & Co., Boston,—from the stock of our neighbor, H. H. Ham, their agent in this city. And now that we have good insurance on all our property, and our account-books locked up in a reliable safe, we are prepared to "trust in Providence," to protect us from great loss or even risk by fire. The correct idea of insurance, salamander safes, &c., is to secure from risk, not from actual loss only. So that when a man pays for these securities, year after year, without seeing any apparent benefit accruing therefrom, he should not look upon the expense as thrown away—for when the danger really does come, he won't have a chance to "hide himself."

Although our safe is not a very large one, it weighs eight hundred pounds or more, and it was something of a job to get it up stairs into our counting-room. But the sturdy rigging-gang of Messrs. Deering & Yeaton "worked like riggers," and after considerable tugging and much "yo-heave-yo," they soon had it in place under one of our desks. There it sits—a beautiful bronze ornament to the room, an assuring companion, and a testimonial to the good taste, skill and fidelity of the manufacturers.

NAVY YARD.—There are at present employed at the Navy Yard, about fine hundred and thirty-eight men. A gang of caulkers was put on, New Year's day, and are engaged in caulking the gun-deck of the Constitution. The weather, thus far, during the winter, has been very favorable for out-door work on the yard.

☞ The contractors and their bondsmen having apparently entirely "fushed out," on the building of our new Custom House, the work of completing the Drain is now going on favorably under direction of Col. Weare and Street Commissioner Jones. This building seems as difficult of erection, as the tower of Babel.

MUNICIPAL.—In the Board of Aldermen, on Thursday Evening, a petition was received from D. W. Jones and others, asking for a case in which to put a library, which is being collected for the Franklin School. Referred to the Committee on School Houses.

David Kimball, for the Portsmouth Gas Co., represented that the company have received damage to the amount of about $275, occasioned by the construction of the drain in State street, and ask the city to secure them from loss by taking from the persons constructing said drain such security as will protect them. Referred to the Committee on Gas Lights.

CLOSE OF THE YEAR.—Appropriate services were held in the Middle Street Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Lamson's, on the evening of the 31st.—Rev. Dr, Peabody, of the Unitarian Church, gave a good discourse from the text, "Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent."—The services were opened by Rev. Mr. Whiting, and closed by the pastor.

☞ The brig Eolus, lying at one of the wharves in this city, was recently broken into, and rigging to the value of about $200 stolen.

THE FAIR, gotten up by the Ladies' Charitabte Society,—of which half the proceeds go to the poor, and the other half to aid in procuring a new Uniform for our Band—opens at Jefferson Hall to-night. If these double objects, or either of them, would fail to draw a crowd—the other attractions offered will not. Of course the Band willl be in attendance; besides Singing, Tableaux, Scenes, and the usual variety of articles of refreshments, &c.

☞ Mrs. Murdock, a lady truly "apt to teach," advertises tuition in various useful and ornamental arts, with which our young women would do well to be acquainted.—Her rooms are pleasant and central, and some classes are already in operation. The gaiters are as pretty as need be,—and good handy Yankee girls can soon learn to get them up.

☞ Rev. Otis Holmes will be installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Eliot today (Monday.) Public services at 2 o'clock, P. M. Rev. Mr. Whiting of this city will preach the sermon.

$50 Reward.

THE above sum will be paid by the subscribers for evidence sufficient to convict the person or persons who on the night of the 3d of January cast adrift from their moorings at Pier Wharf, the Schooners Betsey Ames and Empire.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Jan. 2.—The royal mail steamship Niagara, Capt. Wickman, from Liverpool 19th ult., arrived here this morning.

The London Money Market was easier and bullion at the bank had largely increased.

The Liverpool Cotton Market continued dull, but at the close there was an improved demand, though at a considerable decline from prices current at the sailing of the Persia.

Breadstuffs were very quiet, but without material change in prices. Provisions dull.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.—New Haven, Jan. 1. James Benjamin, 18 years of age, son of Everard Benjamin, jeweler, was killed this afternoon, by being crushed by an engine turning a corner of George street. He was a clerk in his father's store, and a promising young man.

Theodore Starr, only son of George Starr, of Danbury, aged 18 years, while skating on a pond this morning, broke through the ice, and was drowned. He was a very worthy and highly esteemed young man.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1.—We learn, on enquiry at the jail, that there will be no examination of Tuckerman to-morrow. The case will probably be carried to a higher court, without any preliminary examination.

TORONTO, Jan. 1.—In Upper Canada the Opposition is gaining ground.

There is as yet but little snow in the country. The great bulk of the wheat is held back on account of bad roads. A partial relief of the hard times is anticipated when it moves forward.

THE MORAL INFLUENCE OF THE PRESS.—Yesterday, Mr. Timothy Ross was brought before Justice Colo, upon the charge of beating his wife. The wife testified to the fact, and likewise spoke of several previous assaults. Mr. Ross was held to bail. He gave bail with seeming cheerfulness. He then asked "one favor of the Squire." Mr. R. said it was "to keep his name out of the papers." The Justice said he would not undertake the herculean task of controling the press, and inquired of Mr. R. the reason of his great anxiety upon the subject. Mr. Ross replied:—"Well, to tell you the truth, Squire, I don't care the snap of a finger for the law and all your officers, but I am a little afaid of them editors that put a feller's name in the papers; and if it wasn't for them, I'd lick my wife every other day!" Saying this Mr. R. suddenly left Court, muttering something to himself about wringing somebody's neck.—Wherefore we conclude that the Press is more powerful than the Law, and desire to give to Mr. Ross a little of its influence.—Albany Times.

John R. Moore, an elderly white man, having sought to induce a negro man belonging to Samuel Skinner, a hard working farmer of Vernon parish, La., to murder and rob his master while returning from the place where he would go to sell his cotton, the faithful black man made the plot public, and Moore was arrested. His offer was to divide the spoil with the slave, and to escape with him to a "land of freedom."

More likely he would have sold him.

A physician once advised Sydney Smith to 'take a walk upon an empty stomach.' 'Whose stomach?' asked the wit.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions of the skin, makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, pimples, flies, tetter, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: In a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very truly,

DANIEL LATHROP & CO.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., Feb. 2, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for the disease of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDNER, Mo., Dec 23, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest invention of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind. Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of fresh, warm air, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Subscriber challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized throughout that State. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so mystified the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

ANDERSON & SON, MANAGERS,

Prizes paid in full; no per centage deducted from prizes, as in other lotteries. All communications strictly confidential. oct29 1y

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. The rules of the school are simple, and for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the school, a ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the public, which has so long been done. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Mercury, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. TANSILL & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

A STORY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

"Again, the rich man keeps just enough self-respect on hand to sustain him, generally above the level of the common drunkard;—his rank builds a kind of stronghold for his character. But the poor man has no such restraint; no pride to mortify. "Pat" knows that he is nobody but 'Pat;' —drunk or sober. Poor "Pat!" With those who are striving to rise in the social world, their endeavor does not inspire, as it ought, any loftier zeal than that of money-making. They know that they can indulge their pet vices just as well, aye, better, more luxuriously,—the higher they go; and by those very means, abusing the great advantages which God hath given them for their own and others' good—they sink themselves yet lower in the scale of morality! For such reasons, must reform be first carried triumphantly through the upper classes.

"When intemperance is viewed not only as a disgrace, but a sin, in the refined and educated; and when those, who struggle to attain position in society, see that in order to gain the desired end, they must purify their lips from the pollution of the intoxicating cup, and their lives from all forms of evil to which intemperance is always wedded—when they fully realize, in short, that they must be men and not beasts,—then their motives will be honorable and their rise honorable! Why, if to day, society could be purged of all those who are in the habit of imbibing intoxicating drinks, how many think you, would be left to fill the ranks?

"It seems to me the time must come when such a state of things will not be tolerated; and the 'good time' might be hastened, if woman would arouse herself; —would rise to the noble standard of perfect womanhood, and declare that she abhors—as every true woman must,—the indulgence of this sinful and destructive appetite among the high; even as she now regards it with a degree of pitying disgust in the low!"

In his earnestness, the merchant had risen from his stool; and during the concluding remarks, he had several times repeated the process of tumbling up his hair, in the process of his rather violent gesticulation. The Doctor had seemed very much interested in all that his friend uttered; but when he finished, he could but smile at the glow of enthusiasm that had started the merchant so suddenly from his seat.

In return, he offered some sly compliments to his friend's oratorical powers, after having fully coincided with his sound opinions, and then turned to go.

"By the way, Doctor, do you know where Kirkdale lives now?"

"No: I understood that he had taken lodgings in some obscure part of the city, but I forget where."

He turned away again.

"Don't be in haste, Doctor! Do you know Kirkdale's wife?"

"Know her? Yes! She might have been mine, if he had not stepped in!" answered the Doctor, bluntly, concealing any disappointment which might have lurked in his heart, under the careless manner he assumed; and following his reply with a softly-whistled air from Lucia. Again he turned to go.

"Doctor," persisted the good-hearted merchant, "if anybody saves Kirkdale now, it will be his wife. If she does not, none but God can! Must you go? Well; good day. Glad you came; saved me a half hour's blues!"

The obscure lodgings which the Doctor mentioned, had been the home of Robert and Edith Kirkdale for several months.—Once more it was New Year's Eve. In her lonely apartment sat Edith, sewing; drawing her thread with a hand whose motion was nervously weak, and painfully slow. She was very thin, and her face, colorless and changed with much grief and suffering, was at the same time full of patience, and even touched with a hope that had lived through all. One door, toward which she occasionally directed an anxious look, stood open; and just within, in the mother's sight, stood the crib, with its little occupant fast asleep. A lady, wearing a bonnet and shawl, sat near Edith, sewing also; and as this is my only opportunity, allow me to present her to you, friend reader, simply as "Aunt Eliza." Her face, by no means youthful, was a little sharp in its contour; and her air and movement bespoke her as one, not merely accustomed to pick her own way through the world, but zealous in helping others. She was, in truth, a maiden lady of moderate means, whose chief delight and care in the world were to look after and counsel one or two youthful couples, whom she conceived her especial charge, and who always sought her when in need of advice, comfort or assistance. Habitually thoughtful and considerate towards her friends, she did, however, break out suddenly now and then, when impelled by a strong sense of justice or duty. On the present occasion she had occupied the time, while waiting for the coach she had ordered, to speak more plainly of Robert's affairs. The carriage was at the door, but she had a few more stitches to take, and after a little pause her interest and anxiety boiled over in the following words:

"Edith! say what you will; I know you have had more trouble than Robert."

"O, Aunt Eliza," broke in the wife, "you are wrong indeed! I feel as though it was a sin in me ever to complain, or feel impatient toward him, when he has been so beset with care and misfortune!"

"Edith! you have borne all his sorrows, but you have had beside woes that he has never known. I have seen during all your marriage-days how willingly you have resigned pleasures, luxuries, aye, comforts, as a true wife always does!—for his sake—to save him, if possible, from utter ruin; and I have also seen how you have plead with words and tears more eloquent than any utterance, to win him back! He would not resign his degrading pleasures; though you were made wretched by it, though you were willing to sacrifice every thing for him! To say nothing of the sin; to say nothing of the ruinous effect his habits have had upon his business, I confess I did not believe Robert Kirkdale so incapable of sacrifice—so supremely selfish."

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1858.

THE SMALL BILL HUMBUG.

Sundry small potato politicians have been straining themselves dreadfully about the evils of small bank bills. Some old grannies thought the several States would not do away with them—and there they thought right. But then the President might recommend, and Congress might pass, said these old grannies, a stamp act, which should cut them up by the roots.

Oh, says the President, small bills are bad and paper money is bad—the States will provide the remedy—please give us $20,000,000 in Treasury Notes. So the small bill humbug doesn't hum much in in Washington this year. But, say the administration men in Congress, these Treasury Notes are not to be paid out by the Treasury as currency—but they are to be exchanged for gold, and then we'll pay out the gold.

Yes, yes, exactly so: there's a vast difference 'twixt tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee. And there's just as much difference here.

But let us see how great an evil the small bills are. The Portland Advertiser says:

From a source entitled to credit, we learn that the total amount of paper money in circulation at the present time is estimated to be about one hundred and sixty-two millions, and that this amount is divided between the various denominations of bank bills in about the following proportion:

Bills under five dollars,	$7,000,000
" of " "	30,000,000
" " ten "	25,000,000
" " twenty "	30,000,000
" " fifty "	35,000,000
" " $100 and over,	35,000,000
	$162,000,000

If this be a true exhibit of the present paper currency, it will certainly appear that the great outcry against small bills is groundless and unreasonable. If the small bills form in reality but a trifle more than four per cent. of our paper medium, they must of necessity play a very small part in producing bank panics or monetary crises. Whatever be the evils or the benefits of a paper currency, therefore, we think there can be but little doubt that a most absurd and ridiculous complaint has been lodged against that comparatively trifling portion of it which is represented by bills of a denomination under five dollars; and we are free to say that the convenience of this particular species of bank notes is felt and realized every day, to a far greater degree than those of a larger denomination.

CREDITS AT NEW YORK.—The Express says, "the extensions given to houses which, in October, regarded the crisis as a panic simply, and which expected to go through by being helped over ninety days, are now maturing and are not paid. The banks, instead of full payments, take what they can get, with any additional security their dealers can offer, and renew the rest.—Without having 'suspended paper,' they are really full of 'extended paper,' which has to be managed with great judgment.—If the banks were not ready to nurse all their dealers, and equally ready to consider every merchant solvent who does not absolutely refuse to pay, the record of failures would be as long as in October.—Where the merchants, whose paper is now under 'extended discount,' are to land, the progress of the new year will determine—The banks are secure, but their customers, at this time next year, will be quite another list of names, as they will get tired of extension."

NAVAL.—Private letters have been received in Philadelphia from the steam frigate Minnesota, dated "off Angier, Straits of Sunda, Oct. 23d," 33 days later than previous advices. The following is an extract from an officer on board:—

"We have had a splendid passage from Cape Town to Mew Bay, having run over 2700 miles in 26 days. At Mew Bay we found our coal ship and took in a supply of wood and water. Our long passage from the Cape of Good Hope has been amply retrived by the most admirable sailing which the Minnesota has accomplished since. We have made as much as 15, 16, and on one occasion 17 knots per hour. All well on board."

The U. S. steamer Saranac, Commander Kelley, remained at Barbadoes 16th ult., coaling. She is bound to the Pacific station, and will touch at Bahia and Rio Janeiro.

☞ Letters from Lawrence, Kansas, state that Gov. Denver did give up the arms, 150 muskets, to the free state men, on the first day of his administration. They were demanded by Col. Eldridge, at the head of 60 men. The polls at Lawrence were open all day, but not a vote was thrown.

☞ Joseph H. Tucker, president of the Mineral Bank of Maryland, has left Cumberland, Md., owing the bank $150,000.

☞ In the Municipal Court, Boston, on Saturday, Thomas Mead was brought in guilty of manslaughter, in shooting Jere. A. Agin.

Mr. Choate, as counsel for the prisoner, represented Agin as "a stout muscular bully, infuriated by liquor, and exasperated by the act of the prisoner's brother John, who had invoked the protection of the law against Agin, on account of an unprovoked assault committed in the saloon, some hour or so earlier in the evening than the homicide." No doubt Agin was about as bad as he could be.

The Boston Courier mentions the fact, that morally there was nothing to choose between him and his victim, Agin: and says "the Court and jury had to become unwilling listeners to the revolting vocabulary of gamblers and fighting men for the best part of two days.

It appeared that Mead borrowed the revolver he used from his brother, that he might be prepared to defend himself from an expected attack by Thomas Belcher Kay, by the discharge of whose pistol one of his associates was wounded not long since in Court street, not many yards from the saloon in which Agin met his death at the hands of Mead. It also appeared that, expecting such mortal encounters, these characters are in the habit of hovering about and entering the theatres, not only polluting those institutions of elegant and rational amusement with their presence, but meditating the perpetration of the most bloody deeds, in revenge for mutual injuries done to each other in the course of the exercise of their nefarious vocations elsewhere. It is unaccountable how this class succeeded in planting themselves in their Court street headquarters. Since the colony was commenced, about a million of dollars have been paid by the city for the support of its police, and yet these banditti have been allowed to increase their force at that point, and there lie in wait day and night for the unwary waylarer.

We have known more pains to be taken to arrest a barefooted boy for stealing a cap, or a jacket, or an old horseshoe, and more skill displayed too, than we have heard of being employed against the masters of the Court street Pass. That they can be routed is certain, if the authorities will only faithfully put in action the power vested in them by the law."

We don't think it unaccountable at all. Boston is the Sebastopol of drunkenness for all New England, the refuge of all the imps who cannot stay among fanatics elsewhere, the receptacles of the big villains who cannot keep out of sight or out of the law in the smaller saloons or groggeries of Portsmouth, or Portland, or Lowell.

AGENCY FOR SECURING PATENTS.—Our readers will notice the advertisement of R. H. Eddy, Esq., Boston, whose extensive Agency for procuring Patents has been in successful operation for upwards of twenty years. Few, perhaps, are aware of the immense advantages it affords to those having business at the Patent Office, in Washington. Mr. Eddy has every facility for securing patents in the shortest possible time, both in this country and in Europe; and his long experience, and great success in business, qualify him to give valuable advice to inventors, touching the validity and patentability of inventions. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers and drawings for patents, are executed in the best manner, and every detail of business necessary to secure the rights of inventors by legal authority, is attended to with fidelity and skill.

☞ The North American Review for January, 1858, is placed on our table by the editor. We have read The Financial Crisis, an able and interesting essay, with some views in which we do not agree, but in the most of which we heartily concur. The author alludes to one cause of commercial and financial troubles, the Crimean war, which has been strangely overlooked.

We have also read Ireland, past and present; Jerusalem; French Literature; and a good notice of Spurgeon, doing him something like justice.—And from these readings, we must set it down among the best numbers of the 178.

Crosby & Nichols, publishers. Agent in Portsmouth, J. H. Foster.

PEACE, OR THE STOLEN WILL.—This charming novel, from the pen of Miss Mary W. Janvrin, the talented authoress, of Exeter, is being dramatized by Mr. J. B. Howe, of the Boston Theatre, in whose hands we are glad to find so capital and dramatic a story being prepared for the stage. Mr. Howe is constructing a five-act drama which must prove a great success.

☞ Three murders occurred in Louisville, Ky., the day after Christmas. All the parties were "friends, but under the influence of liquor."

A RELIC OF THE STEAMSHIP ARCTIC.—Mr. Ellwood Walter, Secretary of the Board of Underwriters, has in his possession the gilt ball of the flag-staff of the steamship Arctic. It is the only relic of her, and was found by one of the parties who went from Newfoundland in search of her remains.—It has been recognized by Capt. Luce and others.

TWO MEN SHOT BY RUNAWAYS.—Three runaway negroes passed through Selma, Mo., on the 27th, on horseback, pursued by Mr. Amos Ruble, Mr. J. H. Lilly and others. They fired at their pursuers, and Mr. Ruble was shot in the arm. A bystander named Wm. Taylor was shot dead. The runaways kept on their way to Springfield, Illinois.

☞ The Bridgeton (Barbadoes) correspondent of the New York Herald says:—"The Governor has received advices from London to the effect that many thousand Sepoys will be transported to the British West Indies, ten thousand of whom are destined for Demarara, where their labor will be directed to the culture of cotton, rice and tobacco."

FROM WASHINGTON.—Washington, Jan. 2.—(Herald correspondence.)—The fillibustering spirit still continues to rage, and certain Senators and Members are busy collecting all facts relative to Walker's first foray to Central America and his movements since then, all of which will be laid before both Houses next week in flaming speeches. The Committees on Foreign Relations in the Senate and House, will, on Monday, offer resolutions calling upon the President for all the information in the possession of Government, touching Walker's movements in Central America, including the correspondence and instructions to Com. Paulding. Accompanying this correspondence, which will be immediately sent, the President will communicate a short message to Congress, in which the views of the Administration will be set forth. While the President will reiterate, in strong terms, his objections to the fillibustering movements, referring Congress to his recent message upon that subject, he will, at the same time, disavow and condemn the act of Com. Paulding. In reference to recalling Paulding, the Administration will not attempt that at present.

(Special despatch to the New York Evening Post.) The Cabinet has at last taken ground that Walker was interrupting the transit route. The fire-eaters are terribly enraged. Toombs in the Senate, and Quitman in the House, will offer motions on Monday, against the Cabinet policy, and defend Walker. A scheme is on foot which will demand the presence of all republicans on Monday.

Walker formally demanded indemnity from the U. S. Government for the outrage inflicted on the Territorial Government of Nicaragua in the extradition of her Dictator by Commodore Paulding. Gen. Scott has arrived here.

"WALKER'S ARMY."—Norfolk, Jan. 3. Some of Gen. Walker's officer's are ashore, on parole.

Private Thos. Donohue, of Brooklyn, died last night, and private Peter Oakes died on the voyage.

Adjutant Biles has been arrested for grand larceny, committed in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Buttrick and three children are among the prisoners.

The officers and crew of the Saratoga are in good health.

A GOOD IDEA.—The Metropolitan Police have added one valuable feature to their duties. Whenever it comes to the knowledge of the superintendent, as it is pretty sure to do, through some of his secret aids, that a new counterfeit is to be sprung upon the public, word is at once sent to every member of the department—and he at once warns every shopkeeper within his beat—giving him the name of the Bank, and thus putting him on his guard. In this way several extensive arrangements for putting counterfeits in circulation have been "nipped in the bud."—New York Times.

DANGER OF PLAYING WITH A HORSE.—Horse play is not always so funny as it looks to be. Wm. H. Williams, of Prince George, Va., had been riding out on Saturday afternoon on a favorite horse, which he had so trained as to be perfectly gentle. He had dismounted, and was fondling the animal in a playful manner, when the latter grew frisky, and danced about the yard in the best humor imaginable. Presently he approached his master and attempted to give him an evidence of his affection by bestowing upon him a kiss, but in his enthusiasm he seized his nose, and bit off the end, with a large portion of the cartilage or ligament which divides the nostrils.—The result was a very serious disfigurement of the face, to say nothing of the pain.

The bills for Indian wars in Oregon and Washington Territories—wars so strongly disapproved by Gen. Wool, who was in command on the Pacific coast at the time, amount to six millions dollars. We suppose those will be paid; but the French claims, a just debt, if there is one against the nation, will hardly get a hearing.—Newburyport Herald.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—Mobile, Jan. 3. A great Nicaragua indignation meeting was held here to-night, at which resolutions were passed, censuring the Administration, and demanding Walker's restoration, and the repeal of the neutrality laws. Many prominent Democrats were present, and made speeches.

A BOY'S IDEA.—That was not a bad exhibition of too much of our modern piety, by the boy who asked his mother to buy him a penny whistle; "and let it be a religious one," added the little fellow, "so that I can play it on Sunday."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DIARRHEA.

Dr. D. A. Tyler of New Haven, in his Dissertation on Rock Rose, says, "Several practitioners in this city have used it much for the cure of Diarrhea, and willingly bear testimony to its efficacy. In many cases of Cholera Infantum it has been used with entire success, often after other remedies had failed." That he has used it in the fall and summer months, and has seldom been disappointed in its use. Beyond a doubt Myers' Extract Rock Rose is a specific in Diarrhea. See Circulars.

CLOAKS AND CLOAK GOODS.

If any of our readers are about purchasing a Cloak, or the materials to make one, they will of course visit NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST., before buying.—Allen & Paine having appropriated one room of their store to that business entirely, are opening to-day one of the largest stocks in this city, including Cloaks, Broadcloths, Black, Brown and Drab Plush for Trimming. To those of their customers who prefer making their own Cloaks, they will give a pattern of any Cloak in their store.

☞ The only place in this city where an Ambrotype can be obtained, is at Davis' Ambrotype Gallery, No. 8 Daniel Street, as they have the Patent, and all infringements will be prosecuted. sept9

THERE ARE OCCASIONS

When even the healthiest people need medicine; the changes of diet, of weather, and hundreds of other causes, produce a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged and needs a stimulator. If all who find themselves in this situation will try Dr Sanford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing Headache, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ills so common in a family. It acts, as a medicine, easier and better than any dose of pills we ever swallowed, and so mild that the smallest infant can take it.

LOCAL.

☞ The alarm of fire Monday evening was caused by the burning of the fine dwelling-house near Sagamore Creek, owned by Mr. William Tarlton,—formerly the residence of Hon. Abner Greenleaf. Nothing was saved but the parlor furniture.—The house had been unoccupied for some time, and the fire was probably the work of an incendiary. Insured for $2800.

Our engines were promptly on the spot; and "Granite State" proved herself "One of them." The barn was saved through much exertion.

☞ On Saturday night, two schooners which were moored at Pier wharf, foot of Daniel street, were set adrift by some evil-disposed persons. One of the vessels, the Betsey Ames, drifted out of the dock, and was carried down by the tide, and run ashore on a rocky island below the Navy Yard. She was got off, Sunday forenoon, without being much damaged, and warped up to the Navy Yard. The other schooner, the Empire, fortunately got so caught in the dock, by touching the wharves on both sides, that she did not get out into the tide.

It will be recollected that a young man was sentenced, some months since, for breaking into one of these same schooners; and it is more than probable that this act was committed in revenge by some of his friends and companions. As heavy chains were to be lifted over the posts to which they were made fast, there must have been more than one scoundrel concerned in this singular and serious outrage on property. If we had, as we ought to have, a detective police, adequately paid for their whole time,—the $50 reward offered by Messrs. Barker, Adams & Co., for the discovery of the guilty parties, would not stand long unclaimed.

☞ A sad vision by gas-light, just as the lights began to glitter, was seen on Saturday evening, when a woman came round the North Church into Congress street, leading her drunken, reeling, staggering husband, toward home, from our peculiar institution, the groggery, where he had reduced himself to a sorry plight.

☞ It is reported that a married man, upwards of fifty years old, living (apart from his wife) in the outskirts of this city, on Saturday last eloped with a young girl only 17 years of age, from Greenland.—They went in a sleigh, and have been traced to Newmarket, &c. A sheriff is said to be on their track—dispatched by the man's wife.

☞ The ordinance of Baptism was administered to twenty converts, at Noble's Island, Sunday noon, by Rev. Messrs. Lamson, Hall and Holmes.

The committee to investigate the affair of the Middlesex Mills, discovered that 87,000 had been paid in 1857 to secure the passage of a tariff act. Of that amount they could trace $8,000 paid to a newspaper in New York, but cannot find where the rest has gone. It is very natural that a Company which devided 22 per cent. per annum, from 1830 to 1848, and but 3 per cent afterwards, should be interested in such a matter, but if it appears that they used their money to corrupt the press or purchase members of Congress, they will find but little sympathy in their misfortunes, when their indebtedness proves to be $227,000.—Newburyport Her.

DEATH OF A WIDOW AT PRAYERS.—A lady named Catharine Gray, who resided in Adams street, fell dead in her house at an early hour yesterday morning, while at prayer. Her death is attributed to grief and depression of spirits by the death of her husband, who was lost by the wreck of the Central America, on which he was a passenger. Both the death of herself and husband have been occasioned by the delay in the reception of a letter by her husband, who was in California. He sent a letter containing a check for $250, and stated that when she acknowledged its receipt he would forward an other. By some means the letter was delayed, and a number of steamers having arrived since he wrote without bringing him answer from his wife, he feared that something was wrong, and took passage home in the ill-fated Central America, and met a watery grave. Three Children, the oldest but two years old, are now left orphans. —Newark Mercury, Dec. 30.

THE PROUD LOVER.

BY R. H. STODDARD.

I never yet could understand
How men could love in vain;
I hold it weak and wrong to love,
And not be loved again.
For me, I must have heart for heart,
Deny me that, and we must part.

There be who love, or think they love,
Without return, for years:
They waste their days in fruitless sighs,
Their nights in hopeless tears.
Not such am I: my heart is free,
I love not her who loves not me!

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE THAN the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color, imparts luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will produce it any imaginable size whenever, for it by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that today we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced like or four new customers, and the universal demand and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $3 size, yours very truly,

DANIEL DRAKE & CO.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and now shows that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, with a good conscience, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HOUSHOLDER,
SARAH A. HOUSHOLDER.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of your Hair Restorative, and feel I can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color, and I can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 212 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES, SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, warm and agreeable, and is none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores they are to us the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 12 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed, without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the price is so reasonably expect this to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which we particularly call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for them is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so pleased the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with a schedule of each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, and orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the amount received in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money for them is with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary in amount from $50 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which E. Another fact which the managers call attention to is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tetrary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing credited to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears from all sides, that right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the credit of the learned. BEIT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. CHRESMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for their troubles, incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to take the place of misery. Especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—Unlike other advertised PILLS, these are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, rendering them perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of Dr. CHRESMAN will accomplish the desired object, when MEDICAL AID has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always remembering that self Preservation is in one case must be considered DUTY and VIRTUE; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when in a situation to produce a DISTRESSING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

A STORY FOR THE NEW YEAR.

CONCLUDED.

Edith's work fell from her hands, and as a lady raising her eyes saw those of the young wife turned with a look of deathly terror toward the entrance door; whither her eyes also followed, Robert was there. He had entered noiselessly; and stood leaning against the wall. His eyes were lifted with a fixed expression of despair; his hair, long and dishevelled, was whitened by scours of wretchedness; his dress careless and disordered, and the ghastly paleness of his altered face told of the terrible inroads which the practice of intemperate habits had made in his manhood.

For a moment, neither spoke or moved; then suddenly, and with a fearful moan, Robert dashed into the room in a storm of sorrow rather than wrath. Retreating to the corner, he buried his face in his hands. It is an awful thing to see a man's manhood overcome; to see his strength even as a child's weakness! Aunt Eliza slipped from the room, thinking that her words of accusation, so terrifying in their first results, might eventually be of some efficacy in restoring the poor inebriate. Meantime Edith approached her husband, calmly and softly. He sank down upon a little lounge, uttering a succession of heart-rending moans. Stealing close to his side, the wife twined her white arms about his neck, and rested her poor head, that ached more for his sorrow than her own, on his.

At first he moved as if he would have thrust her back, but her tenderness overcame him; and he sat quietly as a little child. For a few minutes she held him without stirring. Then she began to smooth his hair with such a patient hand! And at last she whispered lovingly and soothingly, "I did not call you selfish, dearest Rob!"

He made no answer—only sat bowed over in an attitude of bitterest anguish. She repeated the whisper, like a grieved child who comforts a playmate, weeping for an undeserved punishment; and kept on stroking Robert's hair. In a little while he raised his head and said brokenly,

"O! Edith, if you pity me, leave me!"

She untwined her loving clasp; she arose and went meekly away. Seeking a seat in the opposite side of the room, she knelt down and remained for an hour, listening to her husband's moaning. When they ceased, she thought, "I'll go to him now!" but, instead, he came to her. He knelt beside her, as he knelt in early boyhood, when his mother taught him "Our Father;" and speaking in the same low, broken voice, he said, "Is your faith in your wretched husband utterly wasted, Edith?"

How could the poor wife answer, for her tears? She fell on his neck and wept aloud. When, at length, her calmness returned in a slight degree, she made answer,

"It that had failed me, I should not have been here to witness the blessed return of my husband!"

"Edith, my wife! whom I am unworthy thus to name! God has made you my ministering angel! To-night, when I came home, I thought of that New Year's Eve, when you said to me for the first time, 'Do not take any wine, dear Rob!' I vowed before I entered this miserable home, that I would never, never touch the poison-cup again! When I came in I heard the true, true word she spoke of me; but, above all, I heard your forbearing answer, and beheld your patient face! O! Edith, I wonder that it does not strike me blind to see you—my angel!—in this miserable place!"

"Do not say so," sobbed Edith, "No place is miserable where God and Love abide. This home is heaven to-night, dear Rob,—a heaven where indeed God shall wipe away the tears of past sorrows!"

"Edith! do not think of me as a drunkard ever again. Had I been more with you, and less in the company of those with whom I always drank freely, I never should have been. It was months before the habit fastened on me; and then it coiled like a serpent of fire about my soul, and I drank to ease the burning, that only increased with every draught. Now, with the help of Heaven, I will fling the serpent from me; I will go, with you to lead me, to the Divine Waters! Do not remember me as a reformed drunkard; but as your faithful husband restored after painful absence. For indeed I was lost, and am found!"

Verily there is an ecstacy too great for speech! And Edith felt its thrill as she clasped him who was her husband in sorrow and in joy! Even as he would have lifted her in the days of her bride-hood, had he found her lying with an arrow from his own quiver in her heart, so he had lifted her already; feeling that he had indeed wounded her, and pouring out the balm of his repentant sorrow for the healing of that wound. And she was healed; and drew the mantle of affection closely that he should not see the scar.

Verily, there is an ecstacy too great for slumber—too fervent for repose! What marvel that the morning broke, and found them still locked in one another's arms: still weeping for very joy?

It was the New Year's morning.

Neither costly jewels, nor rare-bound volumes were found on Edith's table, but in the silence of night, God's Angel had entered, and left such a blessing as there was scarcely room enough in the hearts of husband and wife to receive!

This was Edith's New Year Gift. For "Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. In every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, King Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1858.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4, 1858.

Dear Chronicle:—The celebration of the birth-day of the Year is an institution as peculiar to New York as is the observance of the birth-day of Liberty to the Gentile portion of America's millions. New Year's day in the metropolis is the one great holiday of the three hundred and sixty-five.—The 4th of July has degenerated into a Broadway military parade, and a series of riotous, patriotic demonstrations of the foreign population. Thanksgiving, Christmas and Fast have each their appropriate notice—but the first of January is the great gala-day when everybody shakes hands with everybody's friends, and the world of Manhattan, rich and poor, joins in one round of joy and festivity. It is a perpetual visiting day—the gentlemen being the active and the ladies the passive participants; for the latter are only found at home, graciously receiving any of their acquaintances of the other sex who may choose to call.

The day is preceded by the usual prelude of a 4th of July celebration; all night long the air resounds with the din of pistols, fire-crackers, tin horns — and barbarous yells, hootings, and shouts, to which the mechanical noises first named are preferable. The deep shade of the midnight hour is rendered visibly palpable by the addition of the throng of woolly heads returning from the watch meetings of the negro churches, where they have been piously praying the old year out and the new year in.

The morning dawns serene and beautiful—the counterpart of a summer's day. The stores are all closed, business is suspended, and the vessels at the wharves and in the harbor display their flags. The side-walk of Broadway is rendered navigable in a straight line, without the semi-circular and angular dodges which the unfortunate traveller is compelled to perpetrate on other occasions, in order to make his way among the interminable mountains of silks and satins. And for once in the year we have an opportunity of judging what a desolate aspect the streets of our city would wear in the total absence of the ladies with their smiling faces and gay colors.

A stranger, ignorant of our customs, and arriving in the city on New Year's morning, could easily be persuaded that the New Yorkers were a race of men alone; but should he enter the parlors of any residence, he would soon be undeceived by a vision of arrayed beauty and fashion. It is considered a breach of etiquette for a gentleman to be seen in his own home, or a lady out of it, on this day.

We will commence our calls at the City Hall, where, in the "Governors' room," the new Mayor is receiving and returning the usual New Year's congratulations, with the citizens of all classes, who pass in a continuous stream for over three hours, each one shaking hands in turn—a beautiful illustration of the simplicity of a republican government. Mr. Tiemann is a good-natured, intelligent-looking man, showing a friendly expression to each of the many hundreds who greet him. The ragged news-boy, the rough-handed hod-carrier, and even the poor mendicant received the same welcoming smile and hearty grasp as those of higher station, who were proud of the honor of greeting thus our chief magistrate.

Perhaps the happiest feature of this soiree was the presence of the father of the Mayor, Mr. Anthony Tiemann, an old patriarch of more than four-score years, who sat just behind his son, viewing the happy scene with a countenance radiant with pleasant pride. The appearance of the venerable gentleman excited the deepest respect from the visitors.

Our next call is on a fair lady of the upper ten. We find her almost invisible in a profusion of flounces and lace; and approaching as near to her as the expanse of crinoline will allow, (fortunately within hailing distance) with a profound bow, we wish the lady a very happy New Year. We discover the presence of two other visitors, one of whom is conversing in very bad French, and the other in still worse English. After a few moments conversation, we are conducted to a table, loaded with its richest viands, and invited to partake,—and also in common parlance (I forget the genteel phrase) to "take a drink"—which latter solicitation your humble correspondent declines; a second profound bow, and we take our leave—the whole operation occupying from three to five minutes.

I have known a single lady to receive upwards of three hundred calls in one day, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 12 P. M. Her visitors varying in a gradual scale of intoxication, as the day progresses—until toward midnight, young gentlemen are frequently seen taking their departure over the steps, after the manner of a barrel of flour. (By the way, would it not be better for the rest of mankind, if all such people were barrels of flour, instead of casks of Alcohol?) The incidents of the street on this Holiday are worthy of a glance.

Here we see an express wagon, drawn by a dozen horses, splendidly caparisoned and decorated, bearing the employees of some Express company, mutually visiting each other's wives in a body. There are vehicles of all kinds driving from door to door, varying from a hackney coach to a millionaire's carriage, with its luxurious trappings and liveried attendants, or a still more conspicuous equipage, consisting of an open buggy with negro attendants.

Now, we meet a party of gentlemen dressed in fantastic costumes, in imitation of one of the customs of the Carnivals of European cities.

A celebration of this nature would be a novelty in this country, and should it be carried out as the prominent feature of some one of our holidays (as I hope at some future day it will) it would make that feature one of the happiest of the year.—The ever-changing fashion of New York pants for "something new." Why not appease this appetite by a novelty of untold pleasure—on New Year's day or 4th of July—or still better, some new holiday, of which our business world stands much in need. The carnival season in the Italian and Spanish has been for centuries the happiest of the year.

That greedy plagiarist, American fashion, could borrow without offence a day of most suitable festivities, and use it for a number of years; and then in the natural course of affairs, return it to the rightful owners, as good as new and perhaps with some improvements: for if the Yankees get hold of any thing, it can never leave their hands without "Improvement."

We will glance at the closing scene of the New Year's anniversary. The juvenile din ceased in the morning. The evening uproar is sent up by the more senseless and involuntary victims of Bacchanalian excesses. One staggering biped passes my window, vociferating an 'appy New Year to every accomodating Lamp-post that invites his embrace. I should pronounce it a most extravagant case of drunken delusion, if his imagination transformed the tall illuminater of our streets into images of the ladies of the present day. Another noisy voyager passes along, enlightening the public by recounting the names of the "dear creatures who treated him best," and confounding in ridiculous confusion Arabella, Angelina, Araminta, Maria, and the like, with milk punch and champagne. Another gent has assumed the position of a quadruped at rest, (I might say a sleeping sheep, from his posture on a wheelbarrow, propelled by a friend, had he not made himself like an animal with longer ears by descending to such a necessity.)

Midnight closes our picture, and the Metropolis has for once in the year at least, gone to bed with an immense in its hat.

Wishing a happy New Year to all of your kind readers,

ISLINGTON.

☞ Voluminous dispatches from Mexico have been received at the State Department. A proposition from an European diplomatic agent in Mexico has been made to the Government to establish a monarchy, with European support, and an alliance for the safety of Cuba. The case of Zerman, who went from San Francisco some eighteen months ago, in ship Archibald Gracie, with a small expedition to La Paz, in Lower California, but who arrived after the revolutionist had succeeded in driving out Santa Anna, has been decided, and the accused acquitted of the charge of fillibusting. This favorable result has been mainly owning to the firm and energetic course of Mr. Forsyth,, our Minister.

Col. Rice of Pennlylvania has been appointed, by the Postmaster General, Printer for the Post Office Department. This is very lucrative position, worth $40,000 a year.

☞ We are indebted to our friend Charles W. Gale, of Exeter—the cheap bookseller, whose advertisement will be found in the columns of the Daily Chronicle—for a most excellent Pocket Diary for 1858. May all his sales be prosperous.

☞ One ship, three barques, and four schooners, are being built on the Merrimac, at Newburyport.

MAINE.

It is well known that the Maine Law, so called, was repealed about two years ago, and a license law enacted, which has been enforced no more, to say the least, than its predecessor,—and about 247 groggeries are now open in Portland, as the inquirer says.

But, says the Morning Star, it is not to be understood that the friends of temperance have been doing nothing in Maine for the last two years. Much has been done by "moral suasion"—by bringing young men and little children to the pledge—by the faithful warning of ministers of the gospel—by public lectures—and, particularly, by the Hon. Sidney Perham, the State Lecturer.

The Star also says, "the plan of operations, as we understand it, is as follows:—A committee of five men, able representatives of the cause of temperance, was appointed several months since by the State Temperance Committee to prepare a Bill, embracing the essential principles of prohibition, for the consideration of the Legislature. This bill is to pass under the eye of the Judges of the Supreme Court, on points touching its constitutionality; and this bill, thus scrutinized, is to appear at the Convention of the people at Augusta. The people assembled in convention will, if they approve it, send it to the Legislature. The Legislature will send it to a special Committee. The Committee will report it back to the Legislature with such alterations as they may recommend. The Legislature will then give it a thorough discussion, seeking to perfect it in its every part, and then send it out as a bill for a vote yea or nay by the people. If a majority of the people vote yea, the Legislature will take up the bill and pass it into a law. If the people vote nay, the whole thing dies there, and far off will be the day when Maine shall have a prohibitive law for the suppression of the sale of intoxicating liquors."

One thing is gained by this course.—Thousands have asked for a separation of temperance and politics, and now, on a day, when no other question is at issue, the people are to decide in solemn convocations met, whether the grog-shops shall be open or shut. The voters of Maine are to be brought to this test.

☞ Rev. Sebastian Streeter preached his regular New Year's Sermon in the First Universalist Church, in Boston, on Sunday last. Father Streeter has preached in Boston thirty-four years, during which time he has married four thousand three hundred and twenty-seven couples. The past year he has married one huundred and eighty-two couples; has attended thirty-three funerals, and baptized four persons. He is now very feeble, and unable to preach often.

Rev. R. W. CLARK, —A New York correspondent of the Newburyport Herald says, the success of the Rev. Rufus W. Clark, at South Brooklyn, is a subject of congratulation among his friends there;—his church and congregation are rapidly increasing. Sunday before last there were forty scholars and teachers added to his Sunday school. Since last spring, the pew rents have increased from $700 to $4200; and when all the pews are rented the yearly income from this source will be $6000.

☞ It is stated as an instance of liberality on the part of the Rev. Dr. Storrs of Brooklyn, that by invitation from him, Professor Huntington of Cambridge, Ms., preached in the Church of the Pilgrims, Sunday morning. Mr. Huntington is delivering a course of lectures in Brooklyn once a fortnight on Sunday evenings.

TREASURY NOTES.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce states that "the amount of deposits in the Sub-Treasuries, of gold coin in exchange for certificates of Treasury notes, at three per cent. interest, is so far inconsiderable. The notes are not likely to go off briskly at three per cent., but the President and Secretary will agree to no higher rate. Congress will, no doubt, correct their mistake, and amend the Treasury note act so as to provide for the issue of fifty dollar notes, drawing only two months' interest."

EVERETT'S ADDRESS

—OF—

The Character of Washington.

HON. EDWARD EVERETT having accepted an invitation of the citizens of Portsmouth, will deliver his ADDRESS on the CHARACTER OF WASHINGTON,

At the Temple,

On MONDAY Evening, Jan. 11, 1858.

Doors to be opened at 6½ P. M., and the Address delivered at 7.

TICKETS of single admission at 50 cents; and Family Tickets, admitting three or more, at two shillings each person, may now be procured at the stores of Messrs. J. F. Shores, Jr., J. L. Foster, C. C. Harvey, W. E. Preston, and J. H. Thacher.

No Family Tickets will be disposed of after 6 P. M. on that day. Should any single tickets remain unsold, they can be procured at the door.

The subject is one to which every lover of his country delights to listen—the proceeds of the receipts will be a contribution by Mr. E. towards the purchase of Mount Vernon—the orator, the Demosthenes of his day, possesses great attractions aside from the subject and object. This threefold attraction will render the occasion one of great interest. Purchasers will therefore do well to secure their Tickets as early as possible, as the number to be sold has been limited.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

"CHARITY."—Mrs. Townsend, a lady of unexceptionable character and deportment so far as we know, and an orator of no mean attainments, (though she attributes her eloquence to the "inspiration" of the spirits,) has been lecturing in this city for several weeks, as advertised in the Chronicle. Wishing to aid "the poor," (who are "always with" us,) and not being possessed of much worldly goods herself, she planned to deliver a lecture for that object. It was her intention to distribute the proceeds herself, according to the recommendation of benevolent ladies of her acquaintance; but at our suggestion, it was decided to place the funds at the disposal of the Ladies' Charitable Society.—This was done—and through the liberality of the proprietors of the Temple, who charged nothing for the hall—the entire receipts, $12.24, were paid over to the Treasurer of that useful charitable association.

So far so good, perhaps; but some scribbler in the Boston Traveller, who writes better than he reasons, says on the morning of Mrs. Townsend's lecture, that "She has advertised to lecture again this evening, the proceeds to be given to the poor through the medium (not spiritual) of the Ladies' General Charitable Society. The announcement has caused quite a fluttering in this very conservative organization. The Jesuitical doctrine—that the end justifies the means—seems likely to prevail, although the ladies declare they shall take the gift under protest."

Now this writer seems to speak by authority; but is a little too fast, as we learn that the money was accepted without any such protest—as of course it should be. The idea is a new one, that any benevolent society is responsible for the manner in which all the money contributed to it is obtained; or that receiving the proceeds of an entertainment for a specified object, is equivalent to endorsing the doctrine of any sect.

☞ On Tuesday, near noon, we had another cry of fire—which fire occurred at the corner of School and Vaughan Streets, in a two story dwelling house belonging to heirs of the late Mr. John Hill, and occupied by Messrs. Merrill and Ham. The fire was around the northern chimney, and probably caught from some defect in it. The inside of the house was considerably injured, but the fire was speedily extinguished.

☞ To accommodate many persons living on the line of the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad, who wish to hear Mr. Everett's Address on Washington, in this city on the 11th inst.,—arrangements have been made for an extra train, to leave the Eastern Depot for South Berwick Junction, at half-past 10 o'clock on that evening, after the close of the exercises.

As numerous applications for tickets are being made by people of the neighboring towns, it would be the safest way for our citizens to secure their tickets in season, as the number is limited. Of course there will be no unoccupied seats.

☞ The Fair at Jefferson Hall continues this (Wednesday) evening. The attractions are varied, and all the arrangements are carried out in the best manner. Go, for the object, and for your own entertainment.

☞ Edward N. Fuller, Esq., of the N. H. Gazette, having sold his interest therein to Amos S. Alexander, Esq., has written a brief valedictory, in which he expresses the hope that the democratic party in Rockingham County will sustain his successor better than they have sustained him,—and the wish that the venerable Gazette may survive the indifference of its friends and the hatred of enemies.

☞ A detachment of eighty sailors left the U. S. receiving ship North Carolina at New York, on Saturday, for Norfolk, Va. They are detailed as a part of the ship's company of the U. S. sloop-of-war Marion, lying at that place.

Capt. Isaac T. Doughty, late in command of the Marine Barracks, Pensacola, Fla., has reported, per order, to the Marine Barracks, Brooklyn, N. Y., for duty. He assumes the executive department of that post.

☞ Contradictory reports come over the wires from St. Louis, about a fight at Sugar Mound, Kansas, between the U. S. Dragoons and the Free State men under Jim Lane. One story is that somebody ordered Lane to surrender, but he declined; the dragoons charged, and were repulsed with loss of three men. Another dispatch contradicts it all—and it sounds like a rehash of an old story. Gen. Calhoun is said to have left the Territory.

☞ The booksellers in Boston are to close their stores at 6 o'clock in the evening.

CONGRESS REASSEMBLED

On Monday. In the Senate, notice was given of a French spoliation bill.

A resolution was passed, calling on the President for information as to the instructions given to the naval forces at Central America, in relation to the arrest of Walker.

Mr. Pugh introduced a bill for the admission of Kansas, and explained its provisions. It provides for the admission of Kansas into the Union, under Lecompton Constitution, with some provisions for voting on the slavery item next April, and for calling a convention to make changes.

Mr. Brown commenced a speech in advocacy of the admission of Kansas, under the Lecompton Constitution. He had not proceeded far, when he was seized with vertigo, and yielded the floor, expressing the hope that he would be able to proceed with his remarks to-morrow.

In the House of Representatives, the Speaker read a letter from Mr. Banks, stating that he had forwarded his resignation to the Governor of Massachusetts.

Mr. Clingman, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a resolution calling on the President for information relative to the seizure of Walker, together with such instructions as have been given to naval and other officers on the subject.

Mr. Jones wished the gentleman to modify his resolution so as to call for information respecting the fitting out of the expedition by Walker in this country.

Mr. Clingman would modify his resolution if he had the power, but being a report of a committee he could not do so.

The resolution was received under a suspension of the rule by 117 against 47.

On motion of Mr. Cobb, a resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Territories to report an opinion whether or not the organic act of Utah, ought to be repealed, and that territory attached to adjoining territory.

Mr. Quitman asked leave to introduce a bill to repeal certain sections of the neutrality law.

Mr. Grow objected.

Mr. Morrill introduced a bill to punish the practice of polygamy in the territories of United States, and for other purposes, which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

☞ Fillibustering is brisk in Washington;—and the administration there are somewhat perplexed with the question what to do with the Walker and Paulding case. The New York Times correspondent says:—

There is no probability that any practical measures for warding the views of the filibusters can be carried through either House, but the friends of Walker may be able to embarrass his opponents by legislative devices, so as eventually to force the majority to some measures of compromise.

The correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says:—

It is stated that Judge Doeglas will take open and strong ground in the Senate in favor of General Walker and the filibusters. This, it is thought, will set him all right with the South.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; it effectually (by the bold head) removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; it is unrivalled by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced thirty or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours truly, respectfully,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to try your valuable preparation, and with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon came out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do heartily recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HOUSEKEEPER,
SARAH A. HOUSEKEEPER.

GARDNER, Mo., June 22, 1856.

Prof. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,

SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartment quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

Any amount of Heat required,

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, and have given an amount of Heat, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving the grate in ashes without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH

THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. It no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication is received by mail. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so mystified the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah Morning News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Georgia are legalized by special act of the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same is received. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, held in Faneuil Hall, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The scale is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music, without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two different instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. The connection with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1600 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will produce our own materials, and furnish an equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Dealers in Pianos, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at our warerooms.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,

George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

TRACES OF THE SUPERNATURAL.

In the year 1698, Rev. Mr. Smythies, curate of St. Giles, Cripplegate, published an account of the robbery and murder of his parishioner, Mr. Stockden, by three men, on the night of December 23, 1695, and of the discovery of the culprits by several dreams of Mrs. Greenwood, Mr. Stockden's neighbor. The main points were these:—In the first dream Mr. Stockden showed to Mrs. Greenwood a house in Thames street, telling her that one of the men was there. Thither she went the next morning, accompanied by a female neighbor, and learned that Maynard lodged there but was then out.

In the second dream, Mr. S. represented Maynard's face to her, with a mole on the side of the nose, (he being unknown to Mrs. G.,) and also tells her that a wire-drawer must take him into custody. Such a person, an intimate of M.'s is found, and ultimately, M. is apprehended. In the third dream, Mr. S. appeared with a countenance apparently displeased, and carried her to a house in Old Street, where she had never been, and told her that one of the men lodged there. There, as before, she repaired with her friend, and found that Marsh often came there. He had absconded, and was ultimately taken in another place.

In the fourth dream, Mr. S. carried her over the bridge, up the Borough and into a yard, where she saw Bevel, the third man and his wife, (whom she had never seen before.) Upon her relating this dream, it was thought that it was one of the prison yards; and she accordingly went to the Marshalsea, accompanied by Mr. Stockden's housekeeper, who had been gagged on the night of the murder. Mrs. Greenwood there recognized the man and woman whom she had seen in her dream. The man, not recognized, at first, by the housekeeper, being without periwig, was identified by her when he had it on. The three men were executed, and Mr. Stockden once more appeared in a dream to Mrs. Greenwood, and said to her, "Elizabeth, I thank thee; the God of heaven reward thee for what thou hast done." After this, we are informed that she was "freed from these frights, which had caused much alteration in her countenance."

This narration I have condensed from John Beaumont's work on Spirits, which was published only six or seven years after Rev. Mr. Smythies' account of the transaction. It is added that the relation was attested by the Bishop of Gloucester, the Dean of York, the Master of the Charter House, and Dr. Aix. Dr. Ferriar and Hibbert, and Sir Walter Scott have each produced their volume in aid of the dangerous task of explaining away the spiritual into the natural, and have each cited Beumont's work. Nevertheless, of this remarkable account, coming with such an air of authority, they have not taken the smallest notice.—Notes and Queries.

ANECDOTES OF THE BAR.—Judge Parsons. Theophilus Parsons, Chief Justice from 1806 to 1813, was a man of universal acquirements. It is related of him that once, when riding the circuit, he stopped at a blacksmith's shop to have a shoe set, and while waiting had a little chat with the smith about his business. It happened, too, that his saddle-girth needed mending, and he stepped across the way to a cobbler and had that repaired, and while it was being done, entered into conversation with him about his business. After he was gone the two met and had quite a dispute about the stranger, the first contending that he was a blacksmith, while the latter denied it and stoutly insisted that he was a shoemaker.

James Sullivan, the late Governor, Judge, &c., commenced practice on Arrowsic Island, a part of Georgetown, near the mouth of Kennebec river. On being rallied once in after life, for settling in so unpromising a place, he gave as a reason "that finding that he had got to break into the world somewhere, he had chosen that as the weakest spot."

Benjamin Rand.—A very zealous friend of the strict observance of the Sabbath, being once somewhat troubled in his mind with the scripture account of the disciples desecrating, as it appeared to him, the Lord's day, going through the corn and plucking and eating; and happening to fall into company with Mr. Rand, then celebrated as a biblical scholar, as well as a dry, common law lawyer, inquired of him what he thought of it. "Clear case of trespass," said Mr. Rand, very emphatically, and looking quite decided, as if he could cite authorities to that point, if it was questioned.

LABOR.—Men who live by manual labor are looked down upon and pitied, and it is not until they become independent of it—until their brown and horny hands grow somewhat white and soft—drop the tool and wear the ring, that they are considered respectable and happy. It comes not within our plan to trace the origin of this monstrous idea, which has risen to such a reigning power over the civilized world.—We aver, however, that it springs neither from true philosophy nor the Bible.—Physical labor is a divine institution. In the days of human innocence, man was put into the garden "to dress and keep it." As a divine institution, instead of being an obstruction to true progress, it is one of its most effective and necessary means to promote vigor of body, mind, and character. Why does the Almighty require man to labor, think you? Why does he require him to ply his physical energies in order to extract from the earth the necessary elements of life? Why has he left us to build our own houses, to weave our own garments, and to dig out of the soil our own food? Could not he, who adorns the lily and feeds the fowls of heaven, have prepared all to our hand? Manifestly yes. But he has not done so, because we have souls, and physical labor is adapted to develop their moral powers. —Thomas's Progress of Being.

MURDER IN DRACUT.—Frank Heath, and his sister Miram York Heath, living in the farther part of Dracut, known as Black North, about seven miles from Lowell, were arrested, for the murder of Joshua Heath, their father, last Saturday night.

Heath, the old gentleman, was a blacksmith, between sixty and seventy years of age, and was of intemperate habits. He and his children, who lived together, were often quarreling; they complained, especially the daughter, of his striking or beating them; according to the daughter's confession she had endeavored to poison him, by giving him tea made of Apple Peru, which he drank, as she thinks, in sufficient quantities, to cause death if he had been lot alone. But the son, on Saturday night, shot him through the head, whilst he was sitting in his chamber, and towards morning buried him in the shop.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of uncenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1858.

CHANGE OF PRINCIPLES.

At the session of 1837—8, Mr. Calhoun introduced in the Senate a series of resolutions, for the ostensible purpose of putting an end to all further agitation of the slavery question. They had a threatening aspect towards the North, and were therefore amended. The second resolution was as follows:

Resolved, That any attempt of Congress to abolish slavery in any territory of the United States in which it exists, would create serious alarm and just apprehension in the States sustaining that domestic institution, and would be a violation of good faith towards the inhabitants of any such territory, who have been permitted to settle with and hold slaves therein; because the people of any such territory have not asked for the abolition of slavery therein; and because, when any such territory shall be admitted into the Union as a State, the people thereof shall be entitled to decide that question exclusively for themselves.

This resolution was adopted. The Senators voting for it were Allen, Bayard, Benton, Black, Brown, Buchanan, Calhoun, Clay of Alabama, Clay of Kentucky, Crittenden, Cuthbert, Fulton, Grundy, Hubbard, King, Lumpkin, Lyon, Mcricke, Nicholas, Niles, Nowell, Franklin Pierce, Preston, Rives, Roane, Robinson, Sevier, Smith of Connecticut, Strange, Tipton, Walker, White, Williams, Wright, and Young. Yeas 35.

Nays—Clayton, Davis, Knight, McKean, Prentiss, Robbins, Smith of Indiana, Swift and Webster—9.

The minority assigned various reasons for opposing the resolution.

Mr. Buchanan made a speech in their support, in which he said that he "was ready to avow in the main they contain nothing but correct politcal principles to which he was devoted."

When the Senate, in its session through the night, passed the Kansas-Nebraska bill, Senntor Cass appeared in the morning, and congratulated the Senate upon the triumph of "squatter sovereignty," meaning popular sovereignty.

When the present Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Cobb, prior to the last Presidential election, delivered addresses to the people of New Hampshire, he very emphatically declared that if the people of Kansas should adopt a constitution prohibiting slavery, he (then being a member of the House) should support it—and, on the other hand, should the people adopt a constitution tolerating slavery, he would support it.

The last Congress strongly supported the doctrine of popular sovereignty. It remains to be seen whether the Northern Democratic members of Congress, in one short year, will repudiate the great principle. Senator Douglas is resolved to preserve his consistency, and therefore Southern statesmen are pouring out vials of wrath upon his devoted head. The freemen of Kansas, composing about nine-tenths of the population, have thus far refused to vote under the organic act of Congress, not because they objected to that act, but because all the proceedings under it have been adopted by armed ruffians from other States. Now to vote for or against the State Constitution, in forming which they had no hand, would be an acknowledgment that the border ruffians had legal authority for their invasion and subsequent outrageous proceedings.

It seems to be the general opinion that it will not be in the power of Congress to force the pro-slavery, bogus constitution upon the people of Kansas. Indeed it is doubted whether there is a majority in Congress that will make so hazardous an attempt.

MR. SUMNER NOT INTENDING TO RESIGN. A Boston correspondent of the New York Post says that he has received the information from Mr. Sumner's own lips that he has no intention of resigning his seat in the Senate. The writer says:—

"There is not a man in Massachusetts with heart and head enough to fill Mr. Sumner's place, who does not wish that he should retain it, though he should not speak another word in it. They would as soon level Bunker Hill because that is silent. His history talks. He has received letters from South Carolina warning him that the "honor" of that chivalric State would require her sons to shed more of his blood if he took his seat at this session.

NAVAL.—The sloop-of-war Falmouth, Capt. Farrand, was at Rio Janeiro, Nov. 20th, having arrived 19th from Boston. The frigate St. Lawrence, Capt. Hall, was also in port.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(Times' correspondence.—Senator Pugh's Kansas project meets with disfavor among southerners, as inviting intervention. It will not be accepted by Douglas and his friends.

SUB-TREASURY BANK.—Mr. E. Case, former editor of the Portland Argus, has recently written a long letter to that paper, which is published therein. He says:

Now I suggest that the Sub-Treasury Law of the United States be so amended as to allow all sums of $20 and upwards, to be paid to the public creditors in certificates of deposits, or coin, at their option. Paper being lighter and vastly more convenient than coin, it is easy to see that it would be preferred, except when coin was wanted for tender or shipment, which would be rarely, if ever, the case with public creditors.

Another amendment might also be made of great public convenience, viz: providing that any person, who desired to do so, might deposit coin or bullion, and receive certificates of deposit. * * * *

Now let the States and cities adopt the same course in all respects, except confining their certificates to $20 and upwards, and the cities $5 and upwards.

It is indeed true that these sub-treasuries would be banks, and together constitute the most magnificent, and, at the same time the most useful banking institutions the world ever saw. * * * *

What has ever rendered banks of credit tolerable, is their convenience as places of deposits, and the facilities they have offered to commerce in the way of bills of exchange, and the lightness and convenience of their notes as a circulating medium.

Here, in a nutshell, are the advantages of banks set forth, viz. first convenience, secondly convenience, thirdly convenience. And Mr. Case, a hard money, bullion Benton democrat, seriously proposes a prodigious banking system, not a very bad one.

SAMUEL COOPER, Esq., Boston, the successful Patent Agent, has removed his office to Webster Bank Buildings, No. 13 Exchange Street, where ample conveniences will enable him to accommodate the increasing demand for his services. He secures patents in the United States, and Europe; prepares Specification and Drawings; and procures Reconsiderations, Extensions, and Re-issues; thereby saving inventors the trouble, expense, and delay of a visit to Washington. Mr. Cooper, was, himself, for many years, one of the Principal Examiners at the Patent Offices, and to his experience in that capacity may be attributed his great success. Inventors will find Mr. Cooper an energetic, intelligent, courteous man, possessing every possible qualification for his business. The testimonials of his skill and efficacy are from the most reliable sources, some of which may be found in his advertisement in to-day's paper. We heartily commend him to those procuring patents, or desiring any information touching the patentability of inventions.

SPIRITUALISM.—A correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says the citizens of Concord have been favored with some interesting discourses and lectures from a young preacher, named F. L. H. Willis, of whom the public have read something, growing out of the new doctrine of spiritualism, as about him there was quite a stir among the faculty of Cambridge College not long ago.

At the funeral of Mrs. White, mother of Nathaniel White, Esq., of Concord, Mr. Willis, by request, preceded the exercises conducted by Rev. Mr. Parker, by reading a poem, hastily written, yet feelingly sympathetic, and so tender as to draw tears from many an eye present, as all knew the lines well delineated the goodness of that mother, then sleeping in death.

He Giveth His Beloved Sleep, was the heading of the poem; and the first verse of the twelve or fifteen, was—

"Close the door softly,
Hush e'en thy breath,
She—the loved mother,
Is talking with death,

The closing verse ran thus:

"Bear her out softly,—
This treasure of ours,
Her grave shall be strewn
With affections sweet flowers."

The whole ceremonies were impressive and solemn.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—On Monday, about noon, as Mr. James Spelman of Fisherville was going home on foot from Concord, when near the West village, a man sprang from the side of the road and struck him two severe blows with a club, knocking him down, and then robbing him of $100 in gold. The city authorities of Concord have offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of the perpetrator of this bold outrage.

☞ The Boston Transcript notices the introduction of a skate with double-runners, for ladies, on which any one may skate. The reporter says he saw a lady make her first trial with these, and she skated over the ice with the grace of an expert.

A lawyer, to avenge himself upon an opponent, wrote the word "rascal" in his hat. The owner of the hat took it up, looked ruefully into it, and turning to the Judge, exclaimed, "I claim the protection of the honorable Court. The opposing counsel has written his name in my hat, and I have a strong suspicion that he intends to make way with it."

☞ His Honor Mayor Cushing, who has just been re-elected, in Newburyport, says in his address:—

A word upon one other subject and I shall close. I mean the subject of Temperance. During the past year, as you are already aware from the late report of the City Marshal, much has been done to promote the cause of Temperance in the city; and what was done in this cause, was done by gentlemen who have, within not a long time, been denounced in our public halls, from our pulpits, and through the public press, as criminals of the darkest dye, and fit companions for the inmates of our State Prisons and houses of correction. Much still remains to be done; and I sincerely hope, that assisted by our present energetic City Marshal, we may make as good progress the present year as we have during the past.

Now if the reader will please to remember that Mr. Cushing is no fanatic, but was chosen in opposition to any thing professedly reformatory, this will be seen to be most excellent testimony to the goodness of the law, and to the efficiency of Marshal Westcott, who closed twenty-one groggeries last year. His Honor also distinctly considers the execution of the law, to be the "promotion of the cause of Temperance in the city,"—and expresses his hope that as much may be done this year as last.

Well, the strong temperance vote did much good. Laus Deo.

LUCKNOW.—An English lady rescued from Lucknow, and who got away before the place was again invested, writes from Calcutta a vivid account of the scene just before the successful entrance of Havelock's force. She says the officers and engineers had announced that no human skill could avert their fate for twenty-four hours longer, and they must all prepare to die together. The women were engaged in the light duties assigned them of carrying orders to the batteries, and supplying the men with food and coffee. Suddenly a young Scotch woman, wife of a corporal, who had been helpless from fear and excitement, and lay down on the ground exhausted, jumped up with a wild, unearthly scream, and a look of intese delight, exclaiming—"Dinna ye hear it? dinna ye hear it? Ay, I'm no dreamin,' it's the slogan o' the Highlanders! We're saved, we're saved!" Then, flinging herself on her knees, she thanked God with passionate fervor.

All other ears in the garrison failed to hear anything but the roar of cannon and the rattle of musketry for some time, and gradually after listening for awhile, gave way to a murmer of bitter disappointment among the men and wailing among the women. Presently the young woman sprang to her feet and cried, in a voice so clear and piercing that it was heard along the whole line—"Will ye no beleive it noo! D'ye hear, d'ye hear?" At that moment we seemed indeed to hear the voice of God in the distance, when the pibroch of the Highlanders brought us tidings of deliverance, for now there was no longer any doubt of the fact. That shrill, penetrating, ceaseless sound, which rose above all others, could come neither from the advance of the enemy, nor the work of the Sappers. No, it was indeed the blast of the Scottish bagpipes, now shrill and harsh, as threatening vengeance on the foe, then in softer tones seeming to promise succor to their friends in need. Never surely was there such a scene as that which followed. Not a heart in the residency of Lucknow but bowed itself before God.—All, by one simultaneous impulse, fell upon their knees, and nothing was heard but bursting sobs and the murmured voice of prayer. Then all arose, and there rang out from a thousand lips a great sound of joy, which resounded far and wide, and lent new vigor to that blessed pibroch. To our cheer of "God save the Queen," they replied by the well-known strain that nerves every Scot to tears, "Should auld acquaintance be forgot," &c. After that nothing else made any impression on me.

BRISTOL COUNTY.—The Court of Common Pleas now in session at New Bedford, Mass., has commenced the work of trying liquor cases. Horatio Lincoln of Taunton was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, with 45 days imprisonment in the House of Correction. If the fine and costs are not paid, he will have 30 days additional imprisonment in each case. There were two cases.

Michael Burns of Taunton, for being a common seller of liquors, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, with three months imprisonment in the House of Correction. For a single sale of liquors, he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, with imprisonment of 20 days.

William and Mary Sheenan of Taunton were sentenced each, as common sellers, to pay a fine of $50 and costs, with three months imprisonment in the House of Correction.

Daniel Croty of Fall River, a common seller of intoxicating liquors, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50, with three months in the House of Correction.

Michael Galligan of Taunton was sentenced for a single sale, $10 and costs, with 30 days imprisonment: if the fine and costs are not paid, then 30 days additional imprisonment.

John McCann of Attleborough, for three sales, was fined $30 and costs, with seventy days imprisonment. If the fine is not paid, then 90 days additional.—Boston Jour.

EVERETT'S ADDRESS
—ON—
The Character of Washington.

HON. EDWARD EVERTT having accepted an invitation of the citizens of Portsmouth, will deliver his ADDRESS on the CHARACTER OF WASHINGTON,
At the Temple,
On MONDAY Evening, Jan. 11, 1858.
Doors to be opened at 6½ P. M., and the Address delivered at 7.
TICKETS of single admission at 50 cents; and Family Tickets, admitting three or more, at two shillings each person, may now be procured at the stores of Messrs. J. F. Shores, Jr., J. L. Foster, C. C. Harvey, W. E. Preston, and J. H. Thacher.
No Family Tickets will be disposed of after 6 P. M. on that day. Should any single tickets remain unsold, they can be procured at the door.
The subject is one to which every lover of his country delights to listen—the proceeds of the receipts will be a contribution by Mr. E. towards the purchase of Mount Vernon—the orator, the Demosthenes of his day, possesses great attractions aside from the subject and object. This threefold attraction will render the occasion one of great interest. Purchasers will therefore do well to secure their Tickets as early as possible, as the number to be sold has been limited.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

☞ The lecture of Rev. T. W. Higginson, on Spiritualism, at the Temple on Monday evening, was a pleasant discursive talk of an hour or more—chiefly going to prove the scientific reasonability and rationality of the Spiritual theory or idea.—Of course the address was interesting—for Mr. H. never talks otherwise; but as he did not attempt any proof of the "science" of spiritual manifestations, but contented himself with a mere general statement of its truth, the lecture was of more interest to the believers in the new doctrine than to others.

Mr. Higginson was a Unitarian clergyman of high standing—and is a man of fine literary attainments. That he is entirely honest in espousing the Spiritual cause, we do not doubt—for he can gain neither riches nor honor thereby. He claimed not to speak by authority, but only to express his own views and convictions. His key-note was the examination of Spiritualism made by the Cambridge Professors— whom he handled severely, though in the most courteous manner.—His audience was not large—we should judge about 300—and was very much disturbed and scattered by the cries of fire without and in the entry. He stated that his lectures were frequently disturbed thus—but generally more by the audience coming back than going out.

Somehow, we could but look upon Mr. Higginson, as he stood up to speak for an unpopular cause, as occupying a ground very much like Mr. Garrison twenty years ago. Both men of great talent and undoubted integrity—though both pronounced "ultra." Time will show whether the public will approach Mr. Higginson's platform as nearly as they have Mr. Garrison's. Meantime, it might be more fair if not more safe, for the opponents and denouncers of Spiritualism, to learn something of the doctrine. "Strike, but hear." F.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile Lyceum, on Tuesday evening, was by Rev. Mr. Bodwell, of Framingham, on the Genius and Works of Charles Dickens. It was an able and searching, and indeed rather caustic, review of Dickens's writings; in which the lecturer gave Boz ample credit for genius, ability and humor; but condemned him for his lack of fairness and truthfulness toward the clerical and religious character of old England, and for his general failure to apprehend religious principle anywhere. But the lecturer mentioned one grand exception to the latter remark, viz, Dickens's Juvenile History of England, in which, for his own children, Boz has finely brought out the religious ideas of accountability in man and of justice in God.

The lecture was one of the best, and does the lecturer great credit.

THE FAIR at Jefferson Hall, is to be continued this (Thursday) evening—which is the last opportunity of witnessing the Tableaux, &c. By special request, the beautiful Fairy Scene is to be presented once more—and to accommodate the children, the exhibition of this enchanting view will be made about 9 o'clock.

A tempting display of fancy articles, refreshments, &c., is made—and every cent expended here will tell for the good of the community, and to the direct relief of some.

A VETERAN.—Forty years ago to-day (Jan. 7th) Oliver Philbrick, then a boy, began his career at our Navy Yard. For the last thirty-six years he has been Porter of the Yard, and has crossed the river on an average ten times a day, sometimes making double that number of trips, and has never had an accident happen to the boat in his charge during the whole time.

As the distance across the river is 4343 feet in a bee-line from slip to slip, his travel must be a mile each trip on account of deviation for tide, making the total distance traveled for the 40 years, 146,000 miles, or nearly six times round the globe.

An honest, social, and good-natured gentleman, we hope that his bronzed face may not soon disappear from those which we are accustomed to meet in our daily walk.

☞ Did Uncle Toby mean, in his "sad vision by gas-light," to point out any particular groggery?

By no means: he spoke in general terms, as all groggeries are very much alike to him; and all the evidence that the husband had been at the institution, was, simply that he was so very drunk on his way home, that he must have fallen but for his wife. Not against any one place, or any one man, was the appeal of this dreadful sight,—but against a bad practice of visiting ruinous places and indulging in a destructive vice.

☞ An old lady who recently died in this city, left as a relic of the better work of olden time, a pair of shoes in a state of good preservation, which she had worn for the last forty years.

☞ The Democratic Councillor Convention, for the County of Rockingham, was holden at Exeter on Wednesday, the 6th inst. Thomas J. Parsons, of Rye, the candidate for last year, was re-nominated.

The News Letter says that this parish was never in a better condition.—Though small in numbers, since the dismissal, last summer, of their former pastor, Rev. Asa Mann, a new Bell, costing $700, has been purchased; and now $1200 have been raised by voluntary contribution for the first year's salary of the minister of their choice.

T D. McGee, who figured in Massachusetts as an editor and lecturer, a short time since, has been elected to the Canadian Parliament from Montreal. Mr. McGee is a man of talent and good speech. He was active as a "Patriot" in Ireland, before coming to this country, and talked much of the "Felon's flag," as he denounced the flag of England. In this country he was not much better pleased with the "stars and stripes," and after abandoning his early radicalism, he fought violently against Know Nothingism for a time, and then settled in Canada, as an editor.—Newburyport Herald.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—This compound possesses much real merit. The cures it is effecting on every side are without precedent. Dyspeptics who have suffered for years have been entirly releived by a few bottles.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENT GRAYY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and curly; and preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache See circular and the following:

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Dr. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; per express, reply,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to purchase of you your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend of our family strongly advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a luxuriant and healthy crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any of our children. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HUGHNEMAN,
SARAH A. HUGHNEMAN,
GARDNER, Me., June 23, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I received two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was afraid I should lose my hair entirely, and now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind. Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, DWELLINGS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, have no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire and transfers the product of the Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire goes to waste for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so frequently complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have purchased them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small a amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving the coal so much ashes, that it will take but a very small quantity of fresh coal to kindle it without the loss of one piece of coal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders to such parties in Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are sent, however, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so mystified the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Herald, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

ANDERSON & SON, MANAGERS,

Prizes paid in full; no per centage deducted from prizes, as in other lotteries. All communications strictly confidential. oct29 1y

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same is received, and according to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets are sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Ga.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANEY & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instruments, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, which can be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by one of the coupler, the two may be used as one, as may be desired at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of a great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to call and examine our stock, and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following who have seen our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. M. Spaulding & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to and be faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, not surpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUE INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a lancet dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Peter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.

MYERS'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate it purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1858.

CONGRESS.—On Wednesday, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of Mr. Crittenden's resolution in favor of increasing the duties of imports, and substituting home for foreign valuation.

Mr. Crittenden spoke as to the necessity for the adoption of such a measure. He did not beleive that the present law would produce an adequate amount for the support of the government. An increase of five per cent. on woolen and cotton would be sufficient, and afford all necessary protection.

Mr. Fitch moved an amendment, taxing all bank notes, with a discrimination against those of a small denomination, so as to keep the latter out of circulation.

A petition was presented from citizens of Portsmouth, Ohio, praying for a charter for a National Bank for 30 years, with a capital of $60,000, and an increase of the tariff.

In the HOUSE, a debate was had on Fillibuster Walker,—in which Mr. Sickles, in defending Com. Paulding, inquired if gentlemen had forgotten that Mr. Crampton was dismissed because he committed acts violative of the neutrality law? Or that Gen. Jackson passed into Spanish territory and arrested certain persons, and hung them on the nearest tree; and he was not recalled in disgrace?

The debate covering a defence of Com. Paulding, strengthens the belief that that officer will not be recalled.

Mr. Bliss of Ohio, denounced the Dred Scott decision.

WHY THE RAILROADS DO NOT PAY BETTER.—We have recently heard of an operation in Railroad management, which shows the reason why roads doing a good business do not always make money for the stockholders. A party above Concord ordered several hundred tons of coal to be shipped for Portsmouth, to be transported over the Concord & Portsmouth Road, into the upper part of this State. The fact coming to the knowledge of a certain Democratic road manager who has several corporations under his control, he went to the shipper and persuaded him to countermand the order for shipment of the coal here, with the assurance that the freight should be the same from Boston to the place of delivery, some thirty miles north of Concord, as if it were sent from Portsmouth, which, of course, was much less than the established rates of freight by the Railroad tariffs. When the freight bill came to be settled between the different roads, it was discovered that each of the lower roads had made a handsome loss by the operation, and the manager of the lower roads sought to make himself whole by exacting a large sum from the road which carried the freight above Concord, while this road had no interest whatever in the question as to which road hauled the coal below Concord. We learn that the extortion was not submitted to. This case illustrates the recklessness of this mode of doing business, for the sake of carrying, for nothing, freight belonging to other roads. How long will stockholders in Railroads submit to have their property managed for the benefit of those who send freight at special rates and less than cost prices?

BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD.—The 23d annual report of the Boston and Maine Railroad, to the Legislature, states the funded debt of the road to be $50,000, and there is no floating debt. The funded debt of last year was $150,000, but $100,000 of it has been paid the past year from the earnings of the road.

The total expense of working the road was $492,083. The total income was $849,560; leaving the net earnings $357,477. The dividends of the year, two of 3 per cent. each, amounted to $249,342.

Nine persons have been killed on the road during the year, two of whom were brakesmen, one a freight conducter, and the six others, persons walking on the road.

MISERLY.—Two elderly maiden ladies by the name of Beard, who have lived as if in a state of great, if not abject, poverty, recently died in South Gardner, Mass., within a few days of each other, and since their decease it has been ascertained that they were in possession of over five thousand dollars worth of property! What folly thus to live! What dishonor thus to die!

☞ All the trains on the Marietta and Cincinnati road have stopped. The employees are on a strike for wages due them.

☞ The city debt of Newburyport is about one hundred thousand dollars.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamer Atlantic arrived at New York on Wednesday, from Liverpool 23rd ult.

At Hamburg a further recovery of confidence was reported, and the rate of discount for the best paper receded to between 5 and 6 per cent.

On Monday, the 21st, there was increased buoyancy on the London Stock Exchange, under the large arrival of specie from New York, and the news of the rapid recovery going on at Hamburg. Consols, railroad shares and other securities shared in the upward movement. On the Stock Exchange loans were obtained with ease at 4 to 5 per cent. At the Bank the demand continued light, and in the discount market the rate for the best bills receded to 6 per cent.

A deputation from the governments of Sweeden and Norway had arrived in London, with a view of obtaining financial aid to the extent, it was supposed, of £500,000, with which to prevent the permanent break up of some of the extensive establishments which have lately failed in those countries.

GREAT BRITAIN.—President Buchanan's Message attracted great attention in England. The London Times, in its review of the Message, confines itself to two topics—the financial crisis and the Central American question. It construes Mr. Buchanan's remarks on the former subject into a tribute to the monetary system of England, and recommends them to the attention of its readers, that they may see how the system of currency, which has been so pertinaciously attacked at home, is viewed by the most enlightened men of another country.

On the Central American question, the Times says:

"We have much pleasure in receiving the assurance of Mr. Buchanan, that the interests of the two countries are identical, being confined to securing a safe transit over all the routes across the Isthmus.—Let the American government give proof of this, and we are sure that matters will be speedily settled. Common sense must tell the Americans that in these questions we are strictly on the defensive, and the most inveterate declaimer against England cannot deny the conciliatory spirit in which she has treated them; but we can hardly be asked to give up the the treaty of 1850, without a guarantee that all its important provisions should be re-enacted, and the whole series of irritating disputes brought forever to an end."

The London Post lauds the message generally, and says:

"This great state paper, both from the friendly spirit which it breathes to foreign nations, from the determination which it expresses to put down the arch-heresy of Mormonism, and to repress the iniquities of fillibusterism, is highly creditable to the moderation, judgment and public spirit of Mr. Buchanan."

Further attempts to launch the Leviathan were postponed until the spring tides at the commencement of January. The hydraulic power was to be more than doubled. The steamer remained even and fair on the ways, and at high tide had nearly six feet of water under her.

The London Times continues its agitation in favor of importing free laborers in the West Indies.

FRANCE.—Commercial affairs in Paris had greatly improved. Spirits had risen in price since the imposition of a duty on foreign brandies. Wheat and flour had slightly declined.

A reduction of the rates of the Bank of France to 5 pet cent. was anticipated.

SPAIN.—The Espana of Madrid denounced with some vehemence the supposed project of the United States against Cuba, and accuses President Buchanan of personally encouraging them. With regard to the proposition for purchasing the Island, which the new Minister of the United States who is about to arrive, is expected to make, the Espana declares that Spain cannot entertain it without dishonor. That the United States will seize the first opportunity either by piratical expeditions or exciting insurrections or any other mode whatever, of possessing themselves of the Island, the Espana does not doubt; and it complains that under such circumstances the Government displays a great want of caution and an inexplicable security.

NAPLES.—An earthquake took place on the night of the 17th, throughout the whole Kingdom of Naples. The walls of the houses were rent from top to bottom. Numerous villages were half destroyed. The dead, says the dispatch, are reckoned at several thousand. This is considered an exaggeration. The authorities had erected huts for the houseless families. The city of Naples experienced three violent shocks, and the population had encamped in the open country. The Northern ports were exempt.

RUSSIA.—An Imperial decree had been issued, providing for the entranchisement of the Serfs. The decree institutes very important changes in the relations between the peasantry and landed proprietors of the country.

☞ A lady subscriber in Exeter, who was on the original Phenix list, writes us as follows:

Enclosed you will find $1 for your paper another year. I wish it was ten to help the good cause. There is need enough of it, if Exeter is a specimen town. With seven churches and as many ministers, (leaving out the Advent and Catholic,) there is need of a Home Missionary and preacher of temperance. Times are hard, and a dollar seems more than ever before, but never until I need bread, will I give up the privilege of helping forward the circulation of truth on the subject of temperance. Wishing you a large increase of subscribers, I remain yours, in the cause of humanity,

S. E. D.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention of the Republicans met at the Phenix Hall in Concord, on Thursday, at 11 o'clock, when a large delegation assembled. Charles H. Campbell of Amherst was chosen Chairman, and the usual committees appointed.

The convention was regularly organized by the choice of ex-Gov. Anthony Colby for President, ten vice-presidents, one for each county, and three secretaries, viz,, Messrs. Dewey, Beard and McFarland.

After a brief and pertinent address by the president, Gov. Wm. Haile was nominated for re-election by a unanimous vote, which was taken by rising.

A series of resolutions were reported and adopted, in which the general principles of liberty were reasserted and applied to the present condition of the State and nation.

The remainder of the day was spent in listening to speeches by Gen, Nye of New York, and other gentlemen, exppressive of their hopes for the nation, and their confidence of success in New Hampshire, as the result of organized labor from this time to next March.

☞ The resolutions, which were adopted by the Free State Convention at Lawrence, Kansas, on the 24th ult., as published in the Boston Journal, embody the express determination of the Free State men of Kansas to vote upon the Lecompton Convention on the 4th inst., as provided for by the Legislature at its late extra session,—but not to vote for State officers under that Constitution. This latter was the great question for them to decide, and elicited the most exciting discussion in the Lawrence Convention.

☞ At an adjourned meeting of the N. H. State Agricultural Society, in Concord, 5th. inst., Ezra J. Glidden, of Unity, was re-elected President, and Frederick Smyth of Manchester, Treasurer. J. C. A. Wingate, of Concord, was chosen Secretary, in place of J. O. Adams of Manchester.

Executive Committee—Brooks Shattuck of Manchester, David Buffum of Walpole, W. F. Estes of Dover, W. S. Curtice of Danbury, and Dana Woodman of ——

The following gentlemen were chosen delegates to the annual meeting of the United States Society, which is to be held at Washington next week: Hon. Henry F. French of Exeter, Hon. Frederick Smyth of Manchester, Henry Hubbard of Charlestown, John S. Walker of Claremont.

LOWELL POLICE.—Number of persons brought before the Police Court, last year, 1334. Drunkenness in its various forms 494, violation of the liquor law 176, liquor nuisance 19, assaults 238, larcenies 170, violation of city ordinances 98, vagrancy 19. It will be seen by this that rum was the direct cause of one-half of this business, to say nothing of its indirect agency in the cases of assaults and larceny.

☞ The Maveric Church, at East Boston, have extended an invitation to Rev. S. J. Spalding of the Whitefield Church, Newburyport, to become their pastor.—This is the seventh opening to which he might have gone with a better salary since he has been settled there.

☞ Mrs. Cleora Johnson, daughter of Mr. Daniel H. Porter, who had been insane a few weeks, threw herself into a well on the fourth of January in Middleberry, Vt.; she was a widow, and left a daughter about 8 years old.

THE MAINE LEGISLATURE was organized on Wednesday. Hon. Seth Scammon of Saco was elected President of the Senate; Mr. Hall of Arostook, Secretary.

In the House, J. H. Drummond of Waterville was elected Speaker; G. W. Wilcox of Dixmount, Clerk.

☞ Advices from Turks Island are to the 25th ult. The quantity of salt on hand is very large, but there are no vessels to take it. It is selling at 8 1-2 and 9 cts. per bushel. There were no American vessels in port.

☞ There is quite a Temperance furor reigning in Augusta at the present time, the alarming increase of rum-drinking in the community haing aroused a state of feeling never before witnessed there.

☞ Frank Heath, who murdered his father in Dracut on Saturday last, was three years ago confined in Newburyport jail, on a charge of horse-stealing; and while there was dangerously sick with small-pox.

☞ The U. S. sloop-of-war Saratoga arrived in Hampton Roads Jan. 1st, 18 1-2 days from Greytown. The Saratoga had 155 of Walker's army on board, in a most destitute condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Mr. Fuller, delegate from Dakotah, arrived here to-day, and will shortly present his credentials as delegate from said Territory.

Secretary Cobb refused an offer to-day for one million treasury notes at 3 1-4 per cent. interest. He says he will raise the interest of the six millions, but will day all claims with them at par.

The President is determined to have Hon. Nathan Clifford confirmed as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. For a time there were serious dangers that the nomination would be rejected by the vote of the administration Senators, but now that Chief Justice Taney has given a certificate of character in Clifford's behalf, the nominee will probably be confirmed. There is a rumor afloat to the effect that before the judge issued this certificate, the President promised not to remove Phil Barton Key, U. S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, who is a favorite nephew of the Chief Justice.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—At a town-meeting in Meredith, N. H., in 1855, the floor of the town-house gave way, precipitating the crowd to the floor below. One of those injured brought a suit to recover damages of the town, in order to test the question of the liability of the town for an accident arising from neglect to furnish a safe place to enable the citizens to transact their public business. Judge Perley of the Supreme Judicial Court delivered the opinion that the town is not liable. Quite a number of claims for damages were depending on the result of this case.—Lowell News.

MARRIED.—At Canandaigua, last month, Mr. W. B. Blaisdell, agent for the Peake Family of Vocalists and Bell-Ringers, to Miss Julia Peake.

"Gaze not upon a maiden, lest her beauty be a stumbling-block to thee," is a text worthy of consideration now-a-days, when hoops so obstruct our side-walks.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for February is on hand, from the publisher. Prompt, and welcome, as usual.

HIGGINSON ON SPIRITUALISM.

Deviating from our general rule, which is to give no countenance by attendance, to the performances of impostors, we attended Rev. T. W. Higginson's lecture on Spiritualism, at the Temple, expecting some new revelations, as he is a gentleman of high scientific acquirements. But we were disappointed. No new disclosures upon the subject of modern spiritualism were made. He claimed "no inspiration," and confessed his ignorance how the phenomena, or miracles, took place. Yet when they did occur, he contended that there must be "some intellect somewhere." No doubt, for inert matter cannot be put in motion without intellect or some external action or force. We think he did not hazard the bold assertion that the spirits of the dead returned from the eternal world to exhibit the wonderful performances, but it seemed to be the gist of his argument—for without such return, surely, Spiritualism is all deception—a mere humbug.

There are, he said, fifty thousand mediums in these States, but he admitted that a large portion of them are impostors. If it be a humbug, why, he asked, has not some one, in order to gain a large sum, disclosed the deception? If one should do it, it is very clear that mediums, claiming inspiration, would denounce him as an impostor and a liar. But it is pretended that the mediums do not know how they perform the miracles. Therefore they have nothing to reveal;—and that they do not know how they became mediums! Wonderful indeed! Yet they travel about the country to pocket a little money. They know that, and that their journeys are of their own will. The lecturer said that generally, they are not persons of much science or learning. In this respect, he would perhaps compare them to the inspired apostles. But the characters of the travelling mediums are not generally held in high estimation. There is yet a little mystery in respect to the way and manner in which they perform their deception. And so there is in respect to jugglers,—Signor Blitz especially, although he and some of the other most skilful performers admit that many of their tricks are deception.

Mr. H. made two assertions in respect to what he witnessed. He saw a musical instrument laid upon the floor, and apparently it played tunes of itself. There must have been, according to his own admission, some intellect behind the curtain, or underneath the floor, with a similar instrument. But all these things are done after the lights are put out. It seems that the spirits will not come, except in darkness! Many other spirits prefer darkness, for a very sufficient reason. He said also that he was alone with a medium, and held communications through the medium, by rappings, with two spirits—that the one gave answers all true in respect to himself, and the answers of the other were all false. He intimated that there may be lying spirits elsewhere, as well as in this world; thus leaving us to infer that the devil commissioned the spirits of the damned to hold communications with the living. That the devil exercises great influence here on earth we do not question, nor that the fifty thousand mediums imbibe a portion of his spirit. But that the laws of nature and of nature's God can be changed or subverted by human agency, we cannot believe. Our Bible teaches that upon the dissolution of the body, the spirit or soul of man returns to God, who created it.—We cannot, therefore, believe that the Almighty would cause the spirits of the just to return to earth for no useful purpose, or to move tables, play on musical instruments, or to produce insanity among the living. Much less can we believe that He delegates His authority to, or inspires mediums, who often perform for lucre.

We read in the parable of the rich man in torment, that he prayed that Lazarus, in the realms of happiness, might be sent back to his five brethren, "that he may testify unto them, lest they also may come into this place of torment." Abraham's answer was, "if they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." Thus for the apparently useful purpose of converting sinners, the spirits of the dead are not permitted to return to the earth.

Mr. H. expressed no respect for men of science, particularly the faculty of Harvard College, for denying the truth of spiritualism. The sciences, and all human reasoning, he said, could not stand against a solitary fact. But if men of science espoused the new, marvellous doctrine, they would be eulogized and the fact trumpeted abroad in its support. The learned will not support it, because it is absurd, and contrary to the laws of nature, and the pure doctrines of Christianity. It is lamentable that some two or three men of science have become so superstitious, and perhaps in some degree insane, that they attempt to uphold so gross an imposition, practiced upon the ignorant and credulous. They pretend to rely on facts, as set forth in their publications, spread over the country, vouched by names not generally known, although many of their facts never took place, and other facts belong to the arts of jugglers, &c., being akin to those which have deceived the multitude, especially in dark corners of the earth, for several thousand years.

Our inability to explain some of the so-called "phenomena" of spiritualism is no sound argument in favor of its truthfulness; if it were, it would be equally applicable to the arts of the necromancer, the magicians of old, jugglers, and other imposters of the kind. No other than a friendly motive to those under the delusion, induces us to offer these comments.

SENEX.

☞ The old black horse who has circulated Parry & Plummer's Bread among our citizens for fifteen years or more, without "losing a feed," died on Wednesday. He was twenty-odd years old. "Colonel" has no doubt been of more service to the world than many others who have borne the same title.

REVERIES OF AN EX-BACHELOR.

BABIES.

Martin Farquhar Tupper, in his "Proverbial Philosophy" (an imposing citation by-the-by), says that "A babe in a house is a well-spring of pleasure;" a very harmonious line, I acknowledge, but nevertheless untrue. Had he said his babe, it might have been true; but a babe includes the babe as a race; and I deny most positively and unqualifiedly, that my babe "is a well-spring of pleasure." To be sure, he's got enough "spring" in him: but then, again, he's never well, at least so my wife says; and indeed she accounts for all his little eccentricities, by the pathetic appeal of "baby's so sick,"—and so am I. If ever I were sick of anything in this world, it's of that confounded baby of mine. There he sits, staring at me now with vacant eyes, a perfect well-spring of slobber and inarticulate sounds. Put him in his crib, and he's perpetually slobbering and crying, and if he falls out of it, he only slobbers and cries the more. He never contented, either with his lot or his cot.

My only consolation is in his future growth,—notwithstanding he's all groan now, and they say, that when he's grown up he'll be more pacific in his tendencies, that he won't have so many colics, and I won't have so many sleepless nights. But in the interim, yes, the interim, while the baby's growing, what am I to do? Am I to be sacrificed to his necessity of growth? Is there no hot house bed where he may be forced into length, in place of cribs, where he can't be forced into supineness? If he were a girl, I'd make him "a Daughter of a Regiment," but being a boy, that, of course, is impossible.

Every morning that baby wakes me up at four o'clock by sticking his finger in my eye. If I spank him for it, he cries; but if I don't, he sits on my breast, grinning like a young hyena, shouts "papa," and then makes a dive for my nose. After sufficiently recreating himself in this pastime he generally winds up by pulling my hair out by the roots, and—I spank him, for there's limit to human endurance!

His mother, so far from being my ally, smothers him with kisses, and tells me I'm "so cruel." When I was a bachelor, I used to smash the flies that bothered me in the morning, and this human fly I only spank: yet am I condemned by its mother, who hugs the squalling brat, and delivers herself of an idiotic address to our infant, the burthen of which is: 'Naughty papa. "Did e naughty papa hip e itle baby? Naughty papa! Sall mamma hip e naughty papa?" with similar interesting interrogatories, in a similar dialect. A pretty example that to set before a child! Bah, I'm sick of "e itle baby!"

One day he falls down stairs, another day he swallows a pin; sometimes he's got the measles, sometimes the scarlet fever, and sometimes the mumps. At present he's in daily expectation of the whooping cough. What a hullaballoo we'll have then! Not content with whooping all through his hitherto short career, he intends to introduce a cough—probably a hollow, reverberating cough.

An interrogatory suggests itself. Could I ever have been a baby? Could I ever have gone through "a course of sprouts?" Alas! if so, my position is doubly afflicting, for I'm going through another course now. Happy, indeed, is the lot of the bachelor whose second childhood is postponed to a late period of his existence; whereas the married man endures a second childhood in his prime: and may all bachelors take warning by this recital of my sufferings, and take care, in shunning the Charybdis of single life, not to run upon the Scylla (silly) alternative of marriage.—Porter's Spirit.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SALT RHEUM OR TETTER.

This is to certify, that after having used Myers' Compound Extract of Rook Rose, for the Salt Rheum, with complete success, I would sincerely recommend it as the best article in use, to all who are troubled with the like complaint. IRA WALKER.

Boston, March 27, 1852.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color. It thoroughly cleanses the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will prove invaluable to any invalid. It is perfectly safe, by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

Dover, N. H., Feb 3, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size, by express, &c.

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative. We did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and in a short time a good crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. BRINKMAN,
SARAH A. BRINKMAN.

GARDINER, Me., June 23, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy, My hair is now attained the original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Raiting Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES, SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give and unlike all other Anth-acite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire. Ventilation produces a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for ventilation, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to three days without replenishing.

Any amount of Heat required,

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small a amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving the embers so kindled, to be used as the tendency to coal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE ASCENDS CONVENIENTLY THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected, as if they were there present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lottery is legalized by special act in that State. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are sent, however, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and Tenary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawings under the laws of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D.C., also at the Ohio State Fair, Columbus, Ohio, are to be awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which for merly characterized the instruments, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of producing a great volume of power, the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee satisfaction in every instance.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to call at our warerooms, at any time, and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to our responsibility, we refer to the Boston Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

who have examined our Instruments and will give their opinion when called upon:

This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

A PROCLAMATION
TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, are fast fading away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous men of earth are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether men, women, or children, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization, such as those attending all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married women, they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity;—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and duty unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it known, that the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been expressed under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS WILL NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CHEESEMAN, Cheeseman, Box No. 4,681, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Give under my hand and seal.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit; SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRICE COST, $1, 50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
BYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 9, 1858.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DEMOCRACY.

The Democratic State Committee held a meeting at Concord, on the 4th of January, when they adopted, and have published, a series of resolutions on Kansas, Popular Sovereignty, and Mr. Buchanan's administration. There are three resolutions. The first reaffirms their platform of 1856, on "State Rights and Popular Sovereignty." The second and third resolutions read as follows:

Resolved, That in accordance with the letter and spirit of the organic act, as we have understood and advocated it, the people of Kansas have the right to decide for themselves, under the constitution, upon the character of all of their domestic institutions, and therefore we declare it as the opinion of the Democracy of New Hampshire that no constitution ought to be imposed upon them or the people of any other territory until it has received their express approval.

Resolved, That the Democracy of New Hampshire have abiding confidence in the integrity, patriotism and statesmanship of President Buchanan and of his constitutional advisers, and in their fidelity to the great principles upon which they came into power, and we pledge to them our cordial and unwavering support in all their efforts to carry out these principles in the administration of the government.

Seventeen of the committee have their names signed to the document, as printed in the Patriot. But there was a dissension in the committee; and the Independent Democrat informs us that Messrs. Marcy of Portsmouth, Colby of Candia, and Burns of Lancaster, would see the party utterly annihilated in New Hampshire, sooner than put their names to resolutions committing the party against the administration. On the other hand, Mr. Hill, Chairman of the Committee, threatened to resign and blow the party sky high unless they were adopted.

The three dissenters do not like to go against the President, as they really must in these resolutions, nor to ride on two horses, as the words of the resolutions seem to do. The other seventeen see that the great body of the people in New Hampshire cannot and will not be gulled by the Lecompton swindle. And so they endorse Douglas and R. J. Walker's course fully, while they endorse Mr. Buchanan after a fashion, and rather a droll fashion, too,—for they endorse him in his efforts to carry out exactly what he is trying to crush out.

While the above-named dissent is quite significant, the tone of the N. H. Patriot, editorially, is much more so. In a long article on Jan. 6, the Patriot takes precisely the ground of Douglas and Walker, and says:

We will not be cajoled by hair-drawn logic nor legal form of speech, into disregarding the substance of this great idea of popular sovereignty, to grasp its shadow.—The substance of the Kansas bill is submission to the will of the people of Kansas, fairly expressed. The shadow is the legal and binding effect of the action of the Lecompton Convention, which subverts the substance and denies to the people the privilege of rejecting the organic law framed for them, if they do not like it. To impose upon the people in any form, whether by forms of law, or by superior force in despite of law, a government not sanctioned by their will, is the worst form of oppression, and totally antagonistic to the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and to the doctrine of popular sovereignty;—and as Democrats we protest against any such action by our party as will give the slightest excuse for casting upon it such an imputation. Democratic principles do not countenance wrong or injustice in any form, and before the party is led to assume a position inconsistent with manifest right and clearest justice, we advise a "halt."—* * * In view of these things, and to vindicate the doctrine of popular sovereignty, we ask of the Democratic party in Congress to reject this Constitution, which comes to them unsanctioned by the people of Kansas, or to take such other action, either by referring this Constitution back to the people, &c., &c.

☞ Banks' District in Massachusetts, has elected the Republican nominee, Gooch, to Congress, by about 1900 plurality over Mr. Osbone, the national democratic candidate. The Boston Journal says: "The vote was light, but Mr. Gooch has a clear majority over the other candidates of more than two to one. The result is a triumphant endorsement of the principles which Mr. Banks has so ably sustained in Congress, and proves conclusively that the new lead which has been put upon the administration party—the endorsement of the Kansas policy of Buchanan—is more than it can possibly stagger under."

☞ There is to be a convention of the friends of prohibition, at Augusta, Me., on Wednesday next. Neal Dow heads the call.

CONGRESSIONAL.—President Buchanan has sent a message to the Senate giving his views of the course taken by Commodore Paulding in arresting Gen. Walker. He thinks the Commodore committed a great error, but was actuated by patriotic motives.

The Senate on Thursday, debated Fillibuster Walker's case, or rather Com. Paulding's.

In the House, Mr. Thayer spoke of Central America, in favor of emigration, but against fillibustering, whether by grand or petty larceny.

Mr. Washburn of Maine made a speech to show that Messrs. Douglas and Cass, and other prominent statesmen, who were instrumental in the passage of the Nebraska-Kansas bill, claimed that the doctrine of popular sovereignty gave the people of the Territories the right to legislate on all their domestic institutions, while the President maintained that the slavery question only was to be submitted for their judgment. Mr. Washburn argued that Congress had the right to legislate on slavery in the Territories, and that the Administration never intended the people of Kansas should decide that question for themselves. In the course of his remarks he reviewed and earnestly condemned the Lecompton movement, which, he said, was founded on fraud and injustice.

The Committee then rose, and the House adjourned till Monday.

"EXTRAVAGANCE IN DRESS."—This is an expression with which we have all become familiar; much has been written on this subject, much more may be written. It has been discussed in the pulpit, by the fireside. We have had line upon line, precept upon precept. Does it avail anything? has it had any salutary effect upon the devotees of fashion? Does it lessen in its votaries the desire to please?

Truly, looking at a fine dress gratifies the sense of sight without improving the moral or intellectual faculties; but 'Dress,'—we speak emphatically,—while men worship it, bow to it, as the heathen to the shrine of their God, there is little to be hoped for in reforming the dressy extravagance of the present generation. While what is termed the weaker sex can so easily exercise their power over the stronger, they will continue to do so; they understand the weak point in man's nature; they understand fully how to take advantage of it; sensible men, men of talent, are often more attracted by an extravagantly-dressed female, however inferior in intellect, than to one in modest apparel, though far superior in mind.

In our tours for observation we have often been overtaken by a sudden shower of astonishment while noticing the great deference paid to the covering of the material form. How man, the noblest part of Creation, can be duped by the tinsel and baubles that adorn the descendants of her who was first in the transgression, is a mystery, a problem difficult of solution.

M.

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES.—The old fashion of red petticoats has come round again. According to the Washington STAR—"The lady promenaders on the avenue, this morning, were somewhat horrified at the appearance of a distinguished foreigner, who held up her dress so as to display an undoubted scarlet flannel under skirt. These peasant petticoats are now all the rage across the water. Queen Victoria brought them to London from her Balmoral palace in the highlands of Scotland, about two years ago, and this year they have been adopted by the Empress Eugenie. Of course they are a la mode, those of alternate narrow stripes of red and black flannel being more distingue than the plain scarlet. Silks and satins are no longer trailed in the mud, and the ladies who wish to be a la mode should not only provide themselves at once, but practice gathering up their dresses in graceful folds, so as to display about a foot of the bright colored under skirt."

SLAVE HIRING IN VIRGINIA.—The Fredericksburg Recorder notes a remarkable falling off in the prices of slave hire, ranging from fifty to seventy-five per cent. less than those obtained last year. At a public hiring, it says, a few days since, slave men brought only from three to eight dollars a month. At Alexandria there has been a reduction of about eight per cent. Young men and boys ranged from $70 to 100; some choice servant men at $125; women at $40 to $75; good cooks $60 to $75; girls and boys $25 to $40.

"KICKED ITS OWNER OVER."—Joseph M. Rowell of Manchester, went out to shoot a crow; and his gun, which had been loaded a long time, kicked and broke his collar bone.

THE SALEM ELECTION was very smartly contested, a larger vote having been cast than ever before in a municipal election, and nearly three hundred larger than in the recent State election. Even the defeated candidate, Mr. Osgood, received a vote of which he may well be proud, 121 more than Mr. Banks had in November. As soon as the result was known, the successful party turned out and paraded the streets with the Bay State and Gilmore's Bands. They called out some of the elect, and serenaded others; when in front of the Register office they played a dirge and gave three groans for the Register. That paper, in commenting upon the matter says:

Our only regret, after witnessing and hearing of the scenes of Monday and Monday evening, was that this especial honor was wholly undeserved; and that, instead of remaining passive and impartially allowing all sides a fair hearing, we had not been more thoroughly posted as to the character and designs of this usurping substratum of the so-called 'citizens' movement,' and been enabled more fully to discharge our duty to the public by taking an active and decided part in the canvass. But who could have foreseen that rumsellers would have stationed themselves at the polls and unblushingly offered their ballots to voters as "the true blue rum ticket"—that liquor dealers would have been so profuse in the expenditure of money for delinquent taxes and manufacturing voters for the occasion—that the grog-shop keepers would have resurrectionized their stupefied victims, and hurried them to the polls in a condition to require three assistants to help them up the stairs—that, later in the evening, young men who pride themselves in their respectability, too much inspired by the spirit of the occasion, or too reckless to care for their exposure, could be found hob-nobbing with the frequenters of low dram saloons, and that even boys in their teens would require to be assisted home. That instances of the nature we have indicated, did occur, are matters of public notoriety.

IMPORTANT FROM KANSAS.—The Kansas correspondent of the Boston Journal, concurrently with the telegraph, sends the welcome news that the troubles at Fort Scott have been allayed by the prompt action of Gen. Lane. His "pronunciamento" that bona fide peaceful settlers would be protected, but that all Missourians found with arms in their hands would be hanged, (with the general conviction that he would do as he said,) seems to have settled the business. The "rebellion" prisoners were set free, and Lane and his men returned home, leaving the U. S. troops to continue arriving at the scene of difficulties three days after peace was restored! This was doing up things in a handsome style—and Jim Lane hereafter will deserve the name of "Grand Pacificator," instead of agitator. We heartily rejoice in this termination of what threatened to be the beginning of civil war.

TOILETTE IN THE STREET.—There is nothing like taking advantage of circumstances. A well-dressed and respectable-looking woman, passing a furniture store on Main street, Cincinnati, and seeing a dressing bureau, walked right up to it, removed her bonnet, adjusted her hair, then drew a powder bag from her pocket and proceeded to give her face an artistic and elaborate whitening. She was engaged five minutes in her labor, and although a crowd stopped and stared, she continued her toilette with imperturbable sang froid, and at its completion put her bag away, and passed on as if nothing had happened.

'WHAT HAVE YOU DONE THE PAST YEAR,' said one of our preachers, with marked emphasis, in his New Year's discourse on Sunday. Well, we sat down to think, and it did not take us long to figure up the sum total for the great mass of folks. Nine-tenths of our fellow mortals could exhibit a schedule of deeds performed in 1857 as follows:

Swallowed one barrel of flour, two hogsheads of water, eaten meat equal to a small flock of sheep, a barrel and a half of potatoes, pies and puddings enough to cover the kitchen floor, a peck of green peas, two pecks of beans, and indefinite quantities of squash, turnips, pickles, and other vegetables—and in some cases we might add half a barrel of liquor, six pails full of beer, and a "peck of dirt," more or less.—Exchange.

☞ The people of Kansas have determined not to vote for officers under the Lecompton constitution; the pro-slavery party will therefore have their own way, and probably, in the shortest time possible, will elect and send senators to congress.

☞ Wm. H. Cowes, lately under Gen. Walker, in Nicaragua, and afterwards connected with the Memphis Bulletin, committed suicide by taking laudanum, at Richmond, Va., on Wednesday night, the 6th inst.

☞ People frequently reject great truths, not so much for want of evidence, as for want of an inclination in search of it.

A FIRE-EATING "GENTLEMAN."—The following description of Senator Sumner is taken from the Richmond South, the organ of the Virginia fire-eaters:

"But one figure head in the [Senate] Chamber arrests attention in the picture we have here of the plain-looking, substantial, better order of American politicians. It is that of a large, tall Senator who sits near the main entrance. His posture is one of the most inimitable conceit, with his head raised, his eyes elevated and resting on a pleasant vacancy, his body turned surpereiliously away from the neighboring Senators, and without the least sign of attention to betray his consideration for anything that is passing around him.

This huge coxcomb, with his hair so tenderly parted, and his big white hand so constantly engaged in stroking himself, still smiling and talking to the lickspittles that surround him, is that pampered, kenmarked hound, Charles Sumner. An application to the hide would take out the lofty airs of martyrdom he affects; it would purge the conceit immediately. It is a fair bet for any one to take, that at the first stroke of the lash the hound would take refuge under his desk, and lie there yelping for mercy."

STRINGFELLOW.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, in his yesterday's dispatch, says:—

"The Washington Union of to-morrow will contain letters from Dr. Stringfellow, the Kansas border ruffian, against the Lecompton constitution. Stringfellow declares that its acceptance was in issue at the time of the election of Parrott, the Free State delegate to Congress, and that the people of Kansas rejected it by five thousand majority. Kansas, he declares, must be a free State."

THE FISHING BOUNTIES.—A dispatch from Washington announces that the Senate Committee on Commerce have agreed upon a bill abolishing the fishing bounties after the year 1860. This blow has been for some time expected. The fisheries are a New England interest, and must be struck down, even though its encouragement is of benefit to the whole country.

It seems to be the general opinion among the people that something must be done to stop the unlicensed and unlimited traffic in ardent spirits. Public opinion is settling down in favor of the submission of a prohibitory law to the people, aside from all party questions. The legislature will probably prepare such a law and submit it to the people.—Portland Transcript.

A farmer told a barber that he ought to reduce his prices, now that corn was so cheap. "No, sir-ee," replied the shaver, "for when corn is low, farmers make such long faces that I have twice the ground to go over."

FROM KANSAS.—Washington, Jan. 7.—(Special dispatch to the Evening Post)—A dispatch received here from Fort Scott, dated Dec. 27, states that 300 Missourians who had encamped near that place, had been compelled by Gen. Lane to liberate 30 free State prisoners, and return to Missouri. 100 dragoons, with civil officers then undertook to arrest the free State men, but Lane with a powerful force, resisted and prevented it; whereupon the dragoons avoided a collision by returning to Leavenworth. Lane broke up his camp, and peace was restored. There was general rejoicing among the settlers.—The recent acts of the recent Legislature are sustained by the people. A letter from Lawrence, says the present returns show 6000 votes for the Lecompton Constitution, and they boast they will have 10,000. The same letter states that free State men would probably take part in the election of the 4th, by voting a bolter's ticket.

The Washington Union has refused to publish Stringfellow's letters denouncing the Lecompton Constitution. Mr. Rice, Senator elect from Minnesota, presented the Constitution of that State to the President to-day.

THE MORMON WAR—KANSAS AFFAIRS.—Washington, Jan. 7.—(Herald correspondence.—Gen. Scott is busily engaged with the Secretary of War campaigning against the Mormons. The War Department has determined on sending immediately large reinforcements to the army now serving in Utah.

(Times correspondence.)—The administration is greatly elated by dispatches today from Governor Denver, whose opinion is decided that the Free State men will take part in the State election and finally accept the Lecompton Constitution, relying on their power to change it immediately afterwards.

EXECUTION—TROUBLE APPREHENDED.—New York, Jan. 8.—Donnelly, the murderer of Moses, is to be executed at Freehold, N. Y., to-day, and there is such apprehension of an attempt at rescue that the jail has been guarded by militia since Tuesday. Donnelly still asserts his innocence.

TWO MEN SHOT.—New York, Jan. 8.—At one o'clock this morning Michael Wegan, a private watchman and deputy sheriff, being followed by a couple of suspected characters, drew a revolver and shot them. One fell dead on the spot; the other was conveyed to the hospital in a lifeless condition. Their names are unknown.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The Chamber of Commerce last night adopted a memorial to Legislature, asking for a repeal of the usury laws.

Doors to be opened at 6½ P. M., and the Address delivered at 7.

TICKETS of single admission at 50 cents; and Family Tickets, admitting three or more, at two shillings each person, may now be procured at the stores of Messrs. J. F. Shores, Jr., J. H. Foster, C. C. Harvey, W. R. Preston, and J. H. Thacher.

No Family Tickets will be disposed of after 6 P. M. on that day. Should any single tickets remain unsold, they can be procured at the door.

The subject is one to which every lover of his country delights to listen—the proceeds of the receipts will be a contribution by Mr. E. towards the purchase of Mount Vernon—the orator, the Demosthenes of his day, possesses great attractions aside from the subject and object. This threefold attraction will render the occasion one of great interest. Purchasers will therefore do well to secure their Tickets as early as possible, as the number to be sold has been limited.

LOCAL.

☞ The Fair given in aid of the Ladies' Caritable Society and the Cornet Band, closed up in good shape on Thursday evening. The attendance was not large, but everybody appeared to enjoy themselves.—The arrangements were on a smaller scale than on some previous occasions, but the affair was creditable to the committee of benevolent and public-spirited ladies who projected and carried it through.

It is certainly a treat to listen to the music of our Band, and they have furnished almost the only 'public amusement' our citizens have had, this season. Their own exertions to establish a Band worthy of permanent support, have been generously seconded; and we are glad the public interest in them does not diminish. We hope the Fair netted a handsome sum for both its objects.

By the way, the advertisement that half the proceeds were to go to the Charitable Society, led us into erroneously announcing in the posters and elsewhere, that the arrangements were made under the direction of that Society—which was not the case, the whole being done by an independent committee chosen for the purpose by those interested.

☞ In our advertising columns, we announce a Firemen's Fair, to be given week after next, at Jefferson Hall—in accordance with a plan which we mentioned some time since. The idea is to commence the formation of a Firemen's Fund, of $500 or more, the income thereof to be applied to the relief of Firemen who may be injured while on duty.

The Fire Department of Portsmouth comprises three hundred men—well supplied with tubs and other apparatus, generally of the best description—and is probably as efficient as any other of its size.—So large and respectable a body of men, and so important an organization, are certainly worthy of every security which can be afforded them; and with their friends, can get up a Fair, which will net a good nucleus for their fund. Success to them.

FIRE-WATER vs. FIREMEN.—A correspondent wishes to censure somebody, for furnishing liquor to the firemen, at a recent fire in the suburbs of our city. He says it was reported that the Chief Engineer set this bad example; but we learn that (as we supposed at first) he had nothing to do with it, and that the "treat" was from the proprietor of the property burnt—as is both usual and commendable, if in proper shape.

Firemen work hard, and in this case were successful in saving considerable property; and we should hope somebody would furnish them a lunch on all such occasions, but no real friend to firemen could recommend that whilethe tubs be filled with a liquid to put out fire, the boys fill themselves with that whose fire knows no quenching, this side the grave at least. No, my hearties, stick to your water.

Readers will bear in mind that we have not stated that anybody furnished or drank liquor on the occasion referred to—but only that a correspondent wished us to censure a person who in this case, we are reliably informed, is not to blame—if anybody is.

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The record of mortality in this city, for the month of December, as furnished us by the Superintendent of the city hearse, includes only eleven deaths.

Males six—aged 5 years, 24, 28, 42, 49, 52.

Females five—aged 2 years, 33, 42, 69, 92.

The number of deaths during the past year is reported at 140—62 males, 78 females.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as it by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resply,
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully.
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind
Yours Respectfully.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all diseases of the scalp; heals and all eruptions; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age: removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgic and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received a large number of orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resp'ly,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD.—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his suffering, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any of his friends. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, respectfully, yours,

GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I received two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 313 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES, SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article to compete with this. Warm air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours without replenishing, and then having fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH

THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another in Macon, at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order and the prizes are paid in full, one-tenth of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so many tified the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to parties interested.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to ANDERSON & SON, Macon or Savannah, Ga.

Prizes paid in full; no per centage deducted from prizes, as in other lotteries. All communications strictly confidential. oct22 1y

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten draws a prize, varying from $20 to $20,000. No quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $20,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, New York World, Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and are so simple a combination. Prizes vary in amounts from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, held at National Hall, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is simple and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by one of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connection with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, except that it has two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our establishment being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promote our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallet & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. F. Emerson,

George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,

MELODEONS RENTED.

"Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MANN,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a pill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Cold Winter is Coming on.

AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

HARD TIMES.

If thou beest a man, show thyself in thy likeness; if thou beest a devil, take't as thou list.—Shakespeare.

There never has been a period more favorable to the practice of those virtues which constitute true manliness of character, than the present. Indeed it may be doubted if, within the annals of history, any era can be found so exactly suited to the exercise of high, ennobling principles, as that which has cast a gloom over the American nation for the last three months, and is likely to for three to come. However much we may delight in the austere rectitude of the illustrious men of other times, and admire the mutual affection that inspired the breasts of the classic Pyramus and Thisbe, we cannot but recognize the peculiar adaptation of this epoch in our history to the cultivation of those qualities which have been held dear in the memory of mankind. Now is the time, as the poet observes, to show ourselves in our likeness, to perform such acts as shall determine forever whether we be men or mere moving effigies of the "work divine."

And while we rejoice in the privilege of showing by generous actions that we do indeed belong to the highest order of created intelligence, let us not suppose ourselves freed from obligation so long as the duties incumbent upon us as men are unperformed. Exceeding caution is requisite, lest we take the enjoyment of privileges for the exercise of the functions which they convey. It is incumbent on those who are placed in situations favorable to the exercise of manly virtues—magnanimity, generosity, justice; not only to exhibit to others the superiority of these qualities by charitable acts, but to so conduct themselves towards the indigent and the suffering as to convince them that genuine nobility of mind is indeed an active, living, vital principle.

The field of humanity is large enough for any one to exert himself to the utmost, and in its various ramifications demands the exercise of the most diversified aspirations, if they be pure and manly. In all the various walks of life, amid the poor and poverty-stricken inhabitants of our cities, in those circles where disease has removed the chief support of the family, and especially where intemperance has deprived the suffering mother and her tender offspring of the comforts of civilized society,—there are ample opportunities for investing a treasure which will return a goodly per centage, when everything that is light and gay, or sober and melancholy, lies mouldering in a common ruin. While the avaricious speculator of Wall street defrauds his neighbors and belies his God in the acquisition of a few dollars, he who gives but a single loaf of bread to an hungry orphan or a penniless father, performs an act of charity that will tell upon his happiness in future years, more than all the frivolous enjoyments derived from the possession of opulence and plenty. To obtain riches, argues shrewdness—to alleviate pain, a kind and noble disposition.

But if we examine the natural bias of mankind in general, we shall find that a vastly larger number of apparently high-minded men wear the likeness of the devil, than would be readily inferred from their pious professions and seemingly firm determinations to act upon the true principles of manhood. There are comparatively few individuals living within the pale of cultivated and refined society, who do not wish to be thought beneficent and tenderly regardful of the happiness of others. Indeed so much more glorious is the praise of a great and generous heart than that which is derived from wealth, distinction or privilege, that men of all kinds are extremely desirous of it. And here it may be observed is the root of much deception. The most unrelenting parsimony will cover its hideousness with the mantle of charity and benevolence in order to disarm the public voice of its severe criminations of meanness. The poor, penniless mendicant gets kicked from the doors of the opulent,—but is fed before the concourse of people at the market-place, and warmed at the tavern through the ready self-sacrifice of some hungry aspirant for popularity. And yet, after all the duplicity and cunning practised by those who thirst for notability and high standing, it is evident that the devil alone has enthroned himself in their little souls and persistently guards against the approaches of charitable and generous aspirations.

We are well aware that this is a gloomy view of the human family.—Is it a true one? Does not the course pursued by a majority of creditors and extensive trading establishments warrant it? If so, then we have no solicitude in regard to the inferences that may be drawn from it. Within three months, there have been more failures in the United States, than were ever before witnessed in the same period of time. Many of them were the unavoidable consequence of the deficiencies in our banking system, but a large majority might have been avoided had it not been for the rapacity of monied men. Instead of lending a helping hand in the time of need, they calmly withhold their supports, and with the malignity of Nero himself, rejoice in the destruction of the property of their fellow-men. But we to the future happiness of such soulless, small-minded and penurious men. It has pleased Providence to grant them the privilege of showing themselves in their likeness. In accordance with his previous habits, every man has acted his part. Those who have shown themselves men will receive the reward due to men; but those that have done otherwise, will be stigmatized with that most severe of all denominations—a mean and degraded soul.

T. K. A.

☞ The Concord Democratic Standard, Mr. Burke's organ, publishes what it calls "the somewhat novel and remarkable resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Central Committee, at their late session;" and promises further remarks next week, "with regard to the extraordinary and unnatural position in which the State Committee have attempted to place the Democratic party of this State in reference to a Democratic administration."

For this week, Mr. Burke contents himself with the following observations:

In taking the position which they have, in their resolutions, the State Committee have, in our judgment, assumed a momentous responsibility. If we understand them, they place the Democratic party of this State, if their action can so dispose of the Democratic party, in a position of actual hostility to the administration of Mr. Buchanan upon the Kansas question, which is the only question the Committee recognize as a test in the pending contest.

☞ Gov. Banks of Massachusetts recommends the abolition or disuse of small bills; and one of the Boston papers says, many "leading financial men" of all parties agree with him. Very likely that leading financial men, i. e. bankers, brokers, and treasurers of great corporations, do agree to it—as it would save their labor in counting, and agrees with their great ideas.—But do the butchers, bakers, retailers and peddlers of all sorts call for a suppression of small bills? By no means. For the smaller common people, one and all, they are most convenient. And if Massachusetts decides not to issue small bills, Uncle Toby hopes Maine and Vermont, New Hampshire and Rhode Island will continue to do so. The Suffolk Bank, if it chooses, can do more towards throwing out small bills than any legislature—but it is rather doubtful whether that will be done very soon.

☞ Life Illustrated, a journal of entertainment, improvement and progress, by the well known und popular publishers, Fowler & Wells, of New York city, is an excellent paper, full of healthy reading, and "illustrates life" by some finished and artistic specimens of engravings.

The same publishers also issue two popular monthlies, viz., The American Phrenological Journal. Devoted to Phrenology, Human Nature, Education, Self-Improvement, Biography, (with Portraits) Mechanism and the Natural Sciences. Monthly, at $1 a year in advance.

The Water-Cure Journal and Herald of Reforms. Devoted to Physiology, Hydropathy, and the Laws of Life and Health: with Anatomical and other Engravings, illustrating the Human System; with Familiar Instructions to Learners. It is emphatically a Guide to Health and Longevity. Monthly at One Dollar a year, in advance.

☞ At a political meeting in Brunswick, Ga., an encounter with pistols took place between Col. Styles, the "Conservative" candidate for Mayor, and Mr. Moore, a representative in the legislature. They fired at each other, quite in disregard of the fact that many people were between them, and others joined. Mr. Houston, whom the Brunswick Herald calls "our worthy Mayor," fired at the candidate for the succession. Mr. Moore was killed, and Col. Styles gave himself up to the sheriff, to undergo the farce of an examination. This is a civilized country.

☞ Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly, for January, 1858, comes to us from Oakesmith & Co., publishers, New York. It contains 114 pages of fine letter press, numerous illustrations, and a variety of literary fare. 25 cents per number; $3 per annum.

Shipwreck and Loss of Life.—The Newburyport Herald says, that at daylight on Friday morning last, a vessel was discovered upon the North Breaker, off Newburyport harbor, the sea making a complete breach over her. Capts. Mayo Gorrish, J. A. Somerby, Michael Stevens, and Wm. J. Lunt, branch pilots, together with Messrs. John Hoyt, Charles W. Thurlow and John J. Thurlow, started in a row-boat to render her assistance. On boarding the wreck, which proved to be the schooner Sunbeam, from York, Me., they found two men,—Mr. Josiah Johnson, formerly of Newburyport, and Geo. Hutchings of York. They were nearly dead from exposure, being completely encased in ice, from the breaking of the sea. They were taken to the Blue Fish House, and provided for by Mr. Eaton. The master of the vessel, Capt. James Toggerson, was so completely exhausted that he was finally washed overboard and drowned. The body was cast ashore, and brought to Newburyport by the pilots, when an inquest was held. Capt. Toggerson was about 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss. The men stated that she went ashore about 2 o'clock on Friday morning. Her deck load is washed off, and the schooner will prove a total loss. She was valued at $700, and was not insured. Capt. Toggerson was a good long-shore pilot, having commanded the sch. Dandy, which he run to Newburyport for ten years, and on one occasion last summer, left for York, with no other person on board.

Bloody Riot at Dubuque.—The Dubuque Express and Herald of the 3d brings us the particulars of a bloody riot which took place in West Dubuque on New Year's night. There was a German ball at the Western Brewery Hall, and eight persons, somewhat intoxicated, entered the room late at night. One of these made considerable noise; a great deal of loud talking ensued, which finally resulted in a combined effort to put the disturbers out. In this effort, glasses, bottles and chairs were freely used. After the party got out, one of the inmates got upon the top of the portico, and shot Thomas Gainer, who was then in the street. Gainer died immediately. Philip Gainer, his brother, while crying over the corpse, was also shot down, and is fatally wounded. John Gainer, a third brother, was terribly cut, and is supposed to be mortally injured. A man named Melady had his nose severed from his face in the affray. Some twenty other persons were seriously but not fatally wounded. A coroner's inquest was engaged in an examination of the matter, and a large number of persons were under arrest.

☞ The Northampton Courier vouches for the truth of a statement that a dog, sold in Canada by a resident of Vermont, a year or two since, waited until the St. Lawrence had frozen over, travelled back to his old home, a distance of more than a hundred miles, and then, being ordered back by his former master, returned to his quarters in the Queen's dominions, where he has since remained, a faithful subject.

Two Men Shot.—Two men named Edward Kennedy and Michael Casey, got into an altercation with Special Deputy Sheriff Michael Wogan, Jr., in New York, on Thursday night, in a dance house in James street, when young Wogan shot both of them; Kennedy died soon after being shot, and Casey died while being taken to the Hospital. Wogan was arrested and conveyed to the Fourth Ward Station house to await the Coroner's inquest.

☞ The Chicago Journal, of the 31st ult., says that the firm of C. Mears & Co. received a letter from their senior member, yesterday, stating that the entire crew of a fishing boat, eleven in number, was lost on Christmas day, between Little Sable and Point Water. The boat drifted on the bar on Sunday, with two of the men dead and lying under the thwarts.

☞ In Massachusetts, says the Newburyport Herald, the recommendation of Gov. Banks to consolidate the Probate and Insolvent Courts would answer a number of public and party purposes, that will commend it to the Republicans. First, it would be a great reduction of expenditures; second, it would remove Judge Loring, and there would be no further dispute about him; and third—it would give to the party in power the immediate disposal of a large amount of patronage.

☞ A landlady in Worcester a few days since went on a visit to Lowell, leaving two female "boarders" to take care of the house—which they did by selling all the furniture, and leaving the city with the proceeds.

Immigration Statistics.—The New York Herald publishes the statistics of the emigration at New York for the past year and for the past eleven years. It appears that the total number of persons who arrived during the year (estimating for December) was 185,847. The total for 11 years, beginning with 1847, was 2,411,008. The amount of money in the possession of emigrants arriving during the past year is estimated at 12 or 13,000,000 dollars, an item that does not usually enter into the estimates of those who speculate on the movements of specie. Of the number of arrivals, (185,847,) 78,000 were Germans, 62,008 Irish, 29,502 English, others 16,247.

The probability is that the immigration of the next year will be much larger than for the last twelve months. The financial crisis that has passed over Europe has reduced many persons to small means and beggary, who were before well to do or wealthy, and thrown many more out of employment; many of these will have their attention turned to new fields of labor, and new places for retrieving their fortunes. Especially from Germany and northern Europe we expect to see a large emigration in the spring, though from the better condition of Ireland we may not see so many from that country. They will look to our western States, and to California, while not a few will turn their faces to Australia.

☞ Frank Leslie's New Family Magazine includes the Gazette of Fashion. The united magazine is a quarto monthly of 96 pages, profusely illustrated with wood cuts, and with an elegant colored fashion plate. Frank Leslie publisher, New York.

☞ The next lecture before the Mercantile Lyceum, is to be on the Tories of the Revolution—and not the "Stories of the Revolution," as erroneously advertised.—We take it we shall have some stories, however,—worth hearing, too.

☞ The Lowell News says "the position taken in the Resolutions of the New Hampshire Democratic State Committee is much like that of Ensign Stebbins on the Maine Liquor law—in favor of the law, but opposed to its enforcement. It is too much like attempting to serve God and not offend the devil."

New York, Jan. 8.—The government again failed to-day to pay the men at the Navy Yard, who have not had any pay since Dec. 8. There is said to be much distress among them.

Uncle Sam's Independent Treasury is "hard up."

☞ The following extract from a private letter, dated Osawattamie, K. T., Dec. 28, confirms the statement that quiet has been restored in south-eastern Kansas:

The war has ended in this part of the territory—Gen. Lane has gone home—all is quiet—nobody alarmed.

The weather is delightful—warm and dry as summer.

This town is in a very flourishing condition, having recovered from the injuries inflicted upon it during the border ruffian invasion. The dwelling houses have nearly doubled since September last.

☞ Our correspondent T. K. A. is always welcome to our columns—even though we may sometimes dissent from his views, as is the case to-day. We have not evidence sufficient to convince us that in the present or passing crisis, the 'monied men' have directly caused the troubles, or held control of events more than their (so-called) poorer fellows.

Washington, Jan. 8.—It appears from the Treasurer's weekly statement for the week ending yesterday, that the amount in the Treasury subject to draft is upwards of $5,000,000; on deposit over $7,000,000; of drafts drawn but not paid $2,000,000; and of receipts for the week $326,000.

The War Department discredits the alleged attack upon Col. Cook's command.

No action has been taken by the Navy Department towards court martialing Capt. Chatard.

Capt. Engle will leave for the Home Squadron on the 20th with dispatches.

The only celebration here of the battle of New Orleans was the fireing of a salute and a supper by the Jackson Democratic Association.

LOCAL.

A Good Move.—At a meeting of the Dealers in Dry Goods, Books, Fancy Goods, Jewelry and Crockery Ware, held on Friday evening, Jan. 8th;—it was unanimously Voted, That on and after Monday, January 11th, until the 1st day of April, we will close our stores at seven o'clock, on every evening except Saturday.

Portsmouth, Jan. 11.

We should think all the traders would come into this movement—which cannot but conduce to their profit, convenience and comfort; while it can hardly really incommode anybody. "Work while the day lasts" only—printers of daily papers being necessarily excepted from this rule.

☞ Everett's Address on Washington is to be delivered at the Temple this evening. Those who have long desired to hear it, and those who improve opportunities for intellectual enjoyment, can now be gratified.

☞ The second Promenade Concert of the new series, by the Cornet Band, takes place at Jefferson Hall this evening.

FIREMEN'S FAIR.

Messrs. Editors—I notice in our papers that a Fair, for the benefit of the Firemen of our city, is to be held at Jefferson Hall, on the 20th inst., to continue three days. Permit me to express my feelings on this matter, having an interest in common with my fellow citizens. I am a member of several associations, which are considered useful to the community; but no one of them is more important than an efficient Fire Department.

There are now in our city six good fire engines, which are supplied with more than 3000 feet of leading hose, and all other necessary machinery and working apparatus; there is one Hook & Ladder Company, well provided; and there are about 300 men connected with the department, who are always on hand and work with a will at fires, and by prompt and efficient action, prevent any serious conflagration. The Firemen have always been prompt and ready to turn out at fires, and trust our citizens will be equally ready now to turn out at their Fair.

The object of the Fair has been stated. No men do so much work for so little pay as firemen, and no body of men is more useful to our community, or more deserving the good wishes and encouragement of all our citizens. An Old Citizens.

Mrs. Partington at Home.—B. P. Shillaber, Esq., (Mrs. Partington) delivered his poem on the manners of the present age, before a large and enthusiastic audience in Chelsea, Thursday evening.—The poem contained many caustic allusions to the follies of the day, which provoked the audience to frequent laughter. Although applying directly to man, the poet expressed his intention of embracing all the women. The poem gave universal satisfaction.—Boston Journal.

The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette,—of which our old friend Shillaber is one of the editors,—says:

Our Little Junior had become so accustomed to night riding on the cars, that on his return from the West, he for several nights, as he heard the whistle on the Eastern Railroad, rushed for his carpet-bag, and was with difficulty restrained from making for the cars.

Mr. Shillaber has been reading his Poem out West, with great success, and we wish he would take the Eastern Railroad, or the Eastern Railroad take him, down this way, with his "carpet-bag"—for we want to hear that poem.

JUVENIS TO SENEX.

Reading an article of an old gentleman in the Chronicle of the 8th inst., signed Senex, we thought to do justice, not to spiritualism, for no justice need be done to that, as we hope that most of our readers are already convinced of its truth; but we will do justice to Mr. Higginson and to our worthy readers. Now let us say that we think Senex too old to hear, and according to his statements in the Chronicle we think that he, by accident, left his auricle at home, and consequently misunderstood Mr. H. We beg leave to say that all his (Senex's) writing was far from being true writing. We among the numerous attendants at Mr. Higginson's lecture, took for our own special benefit a few notes, but we will content ourselves with placing portions of Senex' report in antithesis, that the contradictions may be seen. For instance "there are, he writes, fifty thousand mediums, a large portion of whom are impostors." Again, "if it be a humbug, why, he asked, has not some one, in order to gain a large sum disclosed the deception." Here are two statements opposed to each other in point of fact. Did Mr. H. commit himself to such a miserable confutation of his own statement? No! he said the progress which Spiritualism has hitherto made, was insufficient to enable alike all mediums to develope as media, the truths of a higher world.

Senex states that Mr. Higginson "expresses no respect for men of science."—We do not like to contradict, but surely no man could have spoken of the Harvard Professors in higher terms of respect, or with more gentlemanly language, than did Mr. Higginson.

Senex says "it seems that the spirits will not come except in darkness." Mr. Higginson said distinctly that the science has already approached to such perfection that the spiritual manifestations can be made at present under the clearest light.

The truths of spiritualism are based upon that doctrine of Swedenborg in which he maintains an intermediate state of spiritual existence. According to Swedenborg, the spirits of light and darkness hover round; and Mr. Higginson allows that the science has not yet attained that perfect symmetry of form wherein we may be able to distinguish between good and evil.

New York, Jan. 8.—[Washington correspondence of the Evening Post.]—The Senate Committee on Commerce have agreed to bring in a bill repealing the fishing bounties.

New England is ignored on the Committee of Ways and Means, and Crawford of Georgia is appointed in place of Banks, leaving but one Republican on it. Great indignation is expressed.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions have agreed to report a bill granting pensions to all officers and soldiers in the last war.

National Telegraph Line.—The wires of the National Line, running from this city to New Orleans, a distance of about 2000 miles, were connected through, last night, and a large number of messages were transmitted to and from each city direct, and without the aid of "repeaters." No similar feat, it is believed, was ever performed in this country or Europe, and the result would seem to demonstrate beyond all doubt the entire practibility of transmitting dispatches across the Atlantic.

Execution.—Trenton, N. J., Jan. 8.—James P. Donnelly was hung to-day at two o'clock, at Freehold, for the Murder of Albert S. Moses. He made a speech of two hours and ten minutes in length, in which he reviewed the testimony in his case. He repeatedly declared his innocence.

A large number of persons were present at the execution, and very affecting scenes occurred. Everything passed off quietly.

Utah Expedition.—St. Louis, Jan. 8. The Republican has just received a letter from Fort Kearney of 23d ult., stating that Col. Johnston was at Fort Bridger Nov. 26. Col. Cook with his whole command had also arrived. The grass had all been burnt, and the animals were dying at the rate of a hundred a day.

The Mormons were fortifying all the passes leading to Salt Lake City. Jesse Jones, agent of Majors & Russell, had been released and sent to Col. Johnston's Camp. In passing through the different cannons, he was blindfolded by the Mormons, to prevent him from obtaining a knowledge of their movements. The letter dated at a camp of Col. Cook's command, while en route, makes no mention of being molested by the Mormons. The report that 200 of the troops had been massacred is therefore entirely false.

Maryland Legislature.—Baltimore, Jan. 8.—When the Message of Gov. Ligon was announced in the House to-day, a motion was made that it be not received, and the motion was carried by a vote of 43 against 27. This action was on account of the expressions continued in it regarding the American party, and the Governor's expressing the opinion that the city members were elected by fraud and violence. The Message having been published in advance of its being sent to the Legislature, the members thus obtained knowledge of its contents, and the majority decided against its reception.

Political.—Indianapolis, Jan. 8.—The Democratic Convention for the nomination of State Officers, assembled in the Hall of Representatives, this morning, and after considerable confusion organized by electing Gov. Willard, President.

The Convention nominated mostly the old officers. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Administration.

The friends of Senator Douglas were much dissatisfied, and will probably hold another Convention.

☞ There were sixty murders committed in New York city in 1857, and but one execution,—and that a negro.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomach, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,

FOUND AT LAST.

FOAM IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following:

DOVER, N. H., Feb 3, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 1 dozen you forwarded us being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and language it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very respectly,

DANIEL LATHEOT & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the affliated, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, pitying his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few bottles removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has a healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restoratives, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDENER, ILL., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and beautifying the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES, SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and a tone of the air which comes in contact, with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished, (the parts exposed to view,) in a very tasteful and appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them,

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed, without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the property of ventilation, and the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000, every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH

THE ENTIRE SEASON,

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

ANDERSON & SON' Savannah, Ga.

Prizes paid in full; no per centage deducted from prizes, as in other lotteries. All communications strictly confidential. oct29 1y

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets in Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten drawn a prize. Tickets are $10 whole, $5 half, $2 quarter, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000, every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are authorized by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tenary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 70. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. SMITH,

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association of the Northern States, held in Boston, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring he tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, or the two played into two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at the lowest prices.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we take leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering and Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T Gilbert & Co,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent money at part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SURGEOS INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1858.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.

The Cunard steamer Africa (from Liverpool December 26, 2 o'clock, P. M.) arrived at New York on Sunday morning, with three days' later news from England, and a fortnight's later intelligence from India. Through the bravery of Sir Colin Campbell and the men under him, Lucknow, after a series of struggles with the enemy, was relieved on the 19th of November, and on the 20th the sick and wounded, and the women and children, were removed to Cawnpore. Sir Colin's forces on the occasion are variously reported at 12,000 and 23,000 men, and it is stated that he received a slight wound. The other Indian victories reported are encouraging; but the overthrow of the insurgents at Lucknow is the event which will command the most attention.

From England we learn that the Mayor of Liverpool gave a banquet in honor of the Siamese Ambassadors, and that Beverley Tucker, the new American consul, was present and made a speech; that the steamer Earl of Garrick was wrecked on the Isle of Man, and all but two of the crew lost; that the ship Wallace of Quebec had been lost at sea, and that three of her men perished; that a mutiny occurred on board the ship J. J. Boyd, of New York, on the 24th ult., while the vessel, outward bound, was lying in the river Mersey; that the Board of Trade returns for November show a falling off of nearly £2,000,000 in the exports, as compared with the corresponding period of 1855; that on the 23d the various Joint Stock Banks lowered their rate of discount for best paper to 8 per cent.; that consols for account closed at 93 1-8 and 93 1-4, and cotton and sugar had advanced in price.

Nothing important from France, and from Naples we learn that the effects of the earthquake were exaggerated. The financial crisis was still felt at Stockholm, and upwards of thirty firms had failed.

LOCOMOTIVE RUNNING THROUGH A STONE WALL.—At Rochester, N. Y., on Tuesday last, a train on the Genesee Valley Railroad, upon nearing the depot, was, by the misplacement of a switch, turned off from the main track upon a turn-table, and thence on a track leading to a stone engine house, through which it passed in spite of the engineer. The rear wall of the engine house was two feet thick, but the locomotive passed through this obstacle, scarcely causing a jar to the train, and plunged outside, its whole length, doubling up some old iron rails lying on the north side as if they were withes, and striking her nose downward into the soft earth. Her lamps, smoke-stack, dome and out-works were ruined, and right down upon the cab, where the engineer and fireman stand, the upper section of the stone wall fell, filling up the space between the boiler and tender to the depth of several feet. The engineer and fireman jumped off in season to escape injury. Two cars nearly full of passengers were in the train, but not a person moved from his place, and most of them were probably unaware that any accident had occurred.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER ON NICARAGUA.—The leader of the Washington Union discusses the acquisition of Central America. It repudiates the means adopted by Walker, but evidently favors the project by another process. It says: "To acquire the privilege of constructing railways, canals, and roads across the Isthmus, to settle regions of country traversed by these routes with peaceful tradesmen, farmers, mechanics, etc., would seem the only sure and infallible mode of planting our institutions permanently in those regions. If, however, we must plant our institutions in regions south of us, by the strong arm, let it be by open and honorable hostility, conducted under the auspices and authority of the government. Nothing can be easier than to find a cause of national quarrel with Central American States, and the Spanish government, if we set about seeking it. If, contrary to our national policy, we must needs extend our institutions southward by force, let it be done by honorable warfare, and not by political forcy."

☞ In an item in the Chronicle, a few days since, as to "why the Railroads do not pay better," the compositor mistook "smart railroad manager" for Democratic railroad manager,"—and so set the types. The error was double, as the person referred to happened to be a Republican, though doubtless politics had not much to do with the matter.

☞ The Russian government has fixed the following way and manner in which the emancipation of peasants is to be effected. It will take place, not all at once, but successively, at three periods. In the first, the relations between the peasants connected with the soil and the state will be fixed—that is to say, they will be admitted to possess a political existence, and their obligations to their lords will be rigorously traced out. In the second period, serfdom will be suppressed; and in the third, the payments in kind will be converted into a fixed rent, and the mode of redeeming such rent and the acquisition of free property by the peasants will be regulated.

BRUTAL.—A man named Robert Wilson was before the Court, in Cambridge, Ms., charged with committing an assault upon his wife and daughter, a young woman of eighteen. Wilson, who has but one leg, and moves about on crutches, has been soliciting funds of the citizens of Cambridge, for some time past, to purchase a wooden leg. Being a man of intemperate habits, he has spent for liquor, most of the money thus contributed. On Thursday evening, while in a state of phrensy, he assaulted his wife with one of his crutches, striking her on the forehead, inflicting a gash two inches in length. His daughter, who came to the assistance of her mother, was pushed violently against the stove, burning her neck and hands in a serious manner.

AN EXPENSIVE THEATRICAL COMPLIMENT. The Paris correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune relates the following anecdote:

"They have an opera in Athens, where a prima donna (fame has not blown her name as far as here) is very popular. One night she so bewitched the audience that the men took the splended pair of English-blooded horses from her carriage, and dragged her home. She was delighted until the next morning, when she ordered the coachman to drive her out. The coachman said that some of the gentlemen of the previous evening had been carried away so far by their enthusiasm as not yet to have had time to return with the horses. The day passed away, and nothing was heard of the horses. The second day she had the wall of Athens covered with bills, offering $500 reward for the recovery of her horses, but as they are worth at least $2000 they have not yet, and probably never will be heard of."

THE SWINDLE.—It is daily becoming more apparent, that the fraud, attempted to be perpetrated in Kansas under the name of a constitution, had its origin in Washington. The N. Y. Herald having stated that Gov. Geary endorsed Mr. Buchanan's Kansas policy, that gentleman makes an explicit denial, he having vetoed the act authorizing a convention, because there was no provision in it requiring its submission to the people. It was passed over his veto. Dr. Gibon, private secretary to the Governor, says the bill was prepared with much cunning and care at Washington by certain prominent U. S. Senators, and sent to Lecompton for its adoption without alteration or amendment.

ERIE RAILROAD.—Charles Moran, President of the Erie Railroad, has gone to Europe, for the purpose of inducing the King of Prussia, and other foreign holders of the bonds of the Erie Company, to subscribe four millions of dollars toward a fund to relieve the road from its embarrassment.

A HAPPY REVERSE OF FORTUNE.—A correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says that an Englishman of wealth, without any relations in this country, died at New Orleans, a short time since, bequeathing all his property, estimated from $40,000 to $50,000, to the wife of a pennyless and unemployed mechanic of Manchester.

FOREIGN IMMIGRATION at the port of Boston last year amounted to 13,901. One hundred and thirty-two destitute and infirm persons were helped back to their native land, at a cost to the State of $2068. Three hundred and ninety-six paupers and destitute persons, residents of the different States, Canada and Nova Scotia, were sent to their legal residences, at a cost of $1104. They would otherwise have become a public burden. The health and general condition of immigrants was much improved as compared with former years.

☞ Mr. Thomas L. Pratt, a well-known citizen of Weston, Aroostook county, Me., has raised the past season thirty-eight bushels of wheat on one acre of new land. The wheat is of the white bald variety, and of superior quality. Amount of seed, one bushel and a half—time of sowing, May 29th.

☞ Ex-Gov. Geary has announced his opposition to the action of the Lecompton Convention.

NORFOLK COUNTY, MASS.—Edward Glynnan, George Jeffrey, and Mary Wall of Dorchester, for selling liquor contrary to law, plead guilty; and sentence was postponed to a future term.

John Hogan, John Anderson, and George Bradley of Boston, for burglary in Roxbury, were each sentenced to six years imprisonment, one day of it solitary confinement, in the State Prison.

Rodney Allen of Bellingham, for arson, was sentenced to ten years in the State Prison, one day of it to solitary imprisonment,

Thomas Dooley, appellant, of Roxbury, was tried for having a quantity of liquor in Weymouth, with the intent to sell the same contrary to law. The liquor was found in his wagon, and was seized upon the complaint of two citizens of said Weymouth. Verdict guilty of having 38 quarts of rum, and 15 quarts of gin, in 15 stone jugs, with the intent to sell the same.

Michael Kenney, appellant, of Roxbury, for keeping his premises open on the Lord's day, for the purpose of and doing business on that day. Liquor and cigars were proved to have been sold. Verdict of guilty. A second complaint against Kenny for a violation of the liquor law. Verdict of guilty.

MORMON WAR.—Washington, Jan. 9.—From advices received to-day, it appears that the Mormons will not retreat from Utah, as was expected by the Government, but will fight it out where they are. This insures us a bloody war in the spring.

Orders are issued for a reinforcement of the U. S. Army there:—and among other things the troops now in Kansas are going thither.

☞ The Dover Gazette, speaking of "the opposition," says: "they lay hold of a seeming difference between the President and Mr. Douglas, hoping to create a division in the Democracy."—And again: "this seeming difference need not and will not divide the Democracy."

☞ Mr. James Graham, of Haverhill, Mass., committed suicide by hanging himself in his shop chamber, on Saturday morning last. He was about fifty years of age, of good habits, and possessed of some property.

MURDER IN NEW YORK.—Last Thursday midnight, a drunken quarrel commenced in a dance house on James street, New York, in the course of which a man named Michael Casey, was shot dead and another named Edward Kennedy was desperately wounded. The coroner's inquest in the case is not yet concluded.

SEDGWICK CONFIRMED.—The nomination of Theodore Sedgwick as District Attorney of New York, vice McKeon removed, is confirmed by the U. S. Senate,—The vote was close—28 to 25.

A GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER IN THE SCHOOL ROOM.—Miss Virginia Hubbard, daughter of Ex-Gov. Hubbard of Maine, has been elected a teacher in the High School at Manchester, N. H.

☞ Miss McValty, of Carroll county, Ky., was disappointed in love, and frustrated in an attempt to drown herself, she succeeded in committing suicide by hanging.

☞ B. Frank Dalton, whose suit for divorce engaged the eloquence of Choate, the power of Dana, and the adroitness of Durant, all to no purpose, is now doing business in Lawrence, Kansas, wife and all.

☞ The population of the new State of Minnesota is estimated at two hundred and forty thousand. If this estimate be correct, she is now entitled to three Representatives.

MR. BADGER of North Carolina, who voted for the Nebraska bill, openly denounces the Lecompton Constitution as a flagrant swindle.

Three rich farmers of Western Massachusetts have been victimized by a man peddling a compost manure. They gave their signatures in favor of the manure and the rascal wrote money orders over them.

Ten quires of paper, or two hundred and forty sheets, are termed by printers, a "token." An exchange wants to know how many sheets there are in a 'token of love.'

☞ The Congregational church in Salisbury, N. H., have invited Rev. S. Clark, of Wolfboro', to become their pastor.

☞ The Bath, Me., Organ says:—

The New Hampshire democracy are about entering upon a spirited contest, and we rejoice that they have placed themselves—as seventeen-twentieths of the State Committee have done—on the plain doctrine of popular sovereignty, the only ground on which success is possible.—Maine will follow suit, or she will remain in subjection to the present dominant party. It is time for the voice of the people to be heard, and that the voice of demagogues should no longer be recognized as the popular voice.

A married woman by the name of Pearce was drown in the factory trench at Waterford, R. I., on Thursday. It is not known whether her death was accidental or otherwise.

Miss Annie Kemp is engaged to sing in M. Thalberg's concerts, at a salary of $8,000 a year.

H. A. Weaver, Republican, has been re-elected Mayor of Chicago, by 1266 majority.

Dobbs is a strong believer in "guardian angels!" "If it were not for them," he asks, "what would keep people from rolling out out of bed when they are asleep?"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Dispatches were received here this evening, from Kansas, to the effect that the Free State men had elected their ticket. At least such was the aspect of the vote as far as heard from. Everything was quiet in the Territory.

The Senate Territorial Committee have agreed and will report in favor of a territorial government for Arizona. They also have a potition before them from a large number of citizens of Western Utah, asking for a territorial government East of the Sierra Nevada.

LOCAL.

☞ The Journal, speaking of the difficulty of communicating between Portsmouth and Dover, says a small engine and car to be at the Newmarket Junction every time the Boston & Maine cars pass and repass, to convey passengers to and from Portsmouth, would open perfect intercourse with Exeter, Newmarket, Dover and other places.

The attention of business men of the city is also invited to the fact that the South Berwick & Great Falls Railroad passed last week into the possession of the trustees for the bondholders, and that no difficulties are now in the way of reopening that road to the public. It is understood that the Conway Railroad Co. are willing to run their cars over this road, thus reopening an intercourse with South Berwick and Great Falls, Rochester, and Conway; and it is believed that nothing more is wanted to effect this but the concentration of opinion and advice of the business men of Portsmouth.

MUNICIPAL.—Thursday Evening, Jan. 7.—In the Board of Aldermen, the Cornet Band presented an agreement securing their instruments for the use of the city, agreeably to a vote passed Aug. 13, 1857, and it was voted that they be accordingly paid the sum of $200.

Voted, That a sum not exceeding $3270 be appropriated for payment of the expenses of the High Schools for the present year.

Ald. Raynes presented a bill requiring the School Committees to furnish annually to the Finance committee an estimate, with the various items, of the amount necessary to carry on the schools in their several districts.

Voted, That the use of the Ward Room on Elm street be granted to Engine Co. No. 4, whenever it will not interfere with its use for ward purposes; provided they take good care of it.

☞ In the last N. H. Gazette, Amos S. Alexander, Esq., announces that he has 'Purchased the Gazette, and assumed the responsibility of its position and contents. We claim little experience as a writer and none at all as the manager of a newspaper, but we confidently hope that by diligent application to the duties of our new situation, and assiduous effort, to insure success, we may not altogether disappoint the expectations of our friends, nor prejudice the standing and influence of this journal.'

We wish our new neighbor success, in all but his political course, as he states it.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Messrs. Editors—It is pleasing to notice the change which has recently taken place in the minds of a great many of our citizens in relation to our Fire Department. It is indeed an important association, composed of men who are associated together for the purpose of protecting our property and our lives in some instances, from that devouring element which we all so much dread when it gets the mastery.

It is an institution that we cannot do without, and we all know that the compensation given to the firemen by the city is very small. I hope therefore that our citizens will feel that they all have an interest in this matter, and will come forward and contribute liberally to attain the object which is designed, and thus lay a foundation for a fund which will not only be of lasting benefit to this important association and our citizens generally, but will constantly remind the Firemen that the public take an interest in them and appreciate their services. H.

☞ The Broadway Minstrels sing, play, and dance, at the Temple this evening—and, as is well known, they do up all performances in their line as well as the best. Several of the best performers in Perham's popular troupe are among them. The Mirror says that in Manchester the Broadways "were greeted with a large, fashionable and highly pleased audience." And that "the whole entertainment is unexceptionably pleasing, and well calculated to 'drive dull care away.' Some members of the troupe sing very finely, and the impersonations of 'Bob Ridley,' and 'Jealous Jake,' are well up to the unsurpassed Matt Peel. Beyond all question, Cluskey is the best jig dancer ever in this part of the country."

☞ We are informed that all the Clothing and Boot and Shoe Dealers in this city, have also joined with the other traders announced on Monday, in closing their stores at 7 o'clock, every evening, except Saturday. The Grocers are about all who are left now.

Tuesday was the regular pay day in the Navy Yard, but Uncle Sam had no money for the mechanics. This is the second pay day that he has failed to square his accounts.—Charlestown Adv.

Ditto down this way. "He's good for it," though.

☞ It is said an agent from Washington is now in this city, appointed to enquire into the business of our Custom House, to see if some part of the force cannot be dispensed with.

Last week at New Castle, a number of citizens of the martial spirit, formed a new Company, provided for by the new Militia Law. This company is called the New Castle Light Guard, and commanded by Capt. Murray. On Monday, they drew, by order of the Adjutant General, 42 new percussion lock Muskets of the most approved kind, from the Arsenal in this city. In some other towns, similar companies are forming under the new Militia Law. D.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.
Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.
Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his suffering, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.
Yours Respectfully.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT
That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.
Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,

FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scurfy diseases; leaves no sticky secretion; makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as it by magic, Moles, Tetter, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received some twelve orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (half a dozen and Thirty-odd all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resp'ly,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence. When a friend of our's, in sympathy, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. BLOOMINGDALE,
SARAH A. BLOOMINGDALE.

GARDINER, ME., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Enclosed find two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy, my hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING

PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,

SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and so much of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated, as the fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have received universal admiration to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Close Warm air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving a fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent in fuel, expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 20th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. Drawings are kept upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which has so mystified others, to puzzle the public. Prizes are paid in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your orders plainly, and direct to

S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

No. 511 Washington St., Boston,

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., and at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Instruments.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing from the reeds and buzzing sound, which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by one person. This instrument, being furnished with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of full parlor music. Also, a large Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to call at our Rooms at any time, and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. Hall & Son,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who intend to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of the rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The terms moderate below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of decisions and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a pin dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRIME COST, $1,50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.
A few boxes of this popular and extraordinary medicine for sale by J. H. THACHER, jy18 Cor. of Pleasant and State Sts.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying it against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

INFANT SALVATION.

NO. III.

The Congregational Journal takes ground in favor of universal Infant Salvation, in an article from which we have room for only the following extracts.

We take the position that, notwithstanding that infants are born into the world with a corrupt nature, (sinful if you please,) and are under the curse entailed on the race by Adam, the probability is, that all who die in infancy, or before they commit actual transgression, are saved. Our reasons for this opinion are—

1. The Bible, as we understand it, reveals no future punishment for any but impenitent sinners—i. e. for adults or intelligent transgressors of divine commands. * * Threatenings of future punishment found in the New Testament, imply that the subjects of that punishment will endure it not on account of their original sin, but of their actual sin to which their original sin inclined them. * * *

2. As infants are not the proper subjects of address with respect to the terms of salvation, it is not reasonable to believe that they are lost for a non-compliance with those terms. These terms are faith and repentance, but infants have no sins to repent of, and they have no capacity to apprehend the Savior as the great atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world.

3. We find a reason for believing in the universal salvation of infants, in the doctrine of divine purposes. "J." and all Calvinists believe that a part of those who die in infancy are elected to eternal life. And if a part were elected to salvation, through the atonement of Christ, is there anything in the word of God, or in reason, which forbids us to believe that all were elected? Among those of the human race that were chosen in Christ, it is highly probable that infants dying in infancy were included. We are told there is nothing in the Scriptures that warrants the idea that all such infants were saved.—True; but neither is there anything in the Scriptures that warrants the idea that any of them are lost. The fact is, as before said, the Scriptures are silent on the subject. The future state of infants can only be inferred from the general principles of Scripture doctrine and of the divine government.

4. * * * As all infants possess a corrupt moral constitution in consequence of the fall of Adam, they need regeneration and sanctification before they can be fit for heaven. And as they have no personal sins to repent of, and no truths to believe in, there is nothing in the idea of their regeneration and sanctification by the Holy Spirit, through the blood of Christ, inconsistent with the principles involved in the plan of salvation. * * *

The above are some of the reasons for our faith in the universal salvation of infants.—Our faith in this doctrine is strengthened by the fact that such a doctrine as infant damnation has never been embodied in the creed of any Christian church since the Reformation. * * *

This doctrine has often been charged upon Calvin and his followers, because they believed that all the race are totally depraved and under a just condemnation to eternal death: but such an inference, with respect to all who die in adult age, would be as legitimate.—That infants who die in infancy are lost, no system of theology with which we are acquainted, teaches, and no divine we ever knew or heard of preached. If, then, infant damnation is not a doctrine of any branch of the Christian church, is not the contrary doctrine more justly inferred from the teachings of theologians?

There can be no doubt now, we suppose, that 99-100ths of the calvinistic or orthodox church members and ministers in New England, believe in the Universal Salvation of Infants who die in infancy.

But on the other hand, we remember distinctly to have heard some old school calvinists dispute forty years ago, who did not believe it, and who earnestly contended, that in order to be saved, it was needful for the penitent to be willing to be damned. But these were not numerous, even then.

It should also be said, that the doctrine of baptismal regeneration, which has made so much stir in the English Church, is based upon the idea that infants are not safe, without baptism! The same idea exists in the Roman Church, and it lingers still in Protestant Churches, among the doctrines of original sin, total depravity, and endless misery. It is not believed, as we have seen, by all, or most, of those who believe in the three last-named doctrines; but it is believed by a few men like "J," and it torments a few parents, especially some mothers, of the finest mould and tenderest heart. The discussion of it at the present time, will doubtless tend to good, by showing that no protestant sect fully believes it—but that almost everybody believes the contrary.

Boys must not chew gum in school.—Jacob Eastman, a schoolmaster in Eddington, Me., very properly prohibited chewing gum during school hours. Two scholars, named Thomas F. Rowe and Charles A. Floyd, resisted the rule and assaulted their teacher. They were taken before the police court in Bangor on Wednesday, and fined $10 each and costs.—Portland Advertiser.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate on Monday, the 11th, on the Kansas question, Mr. Brown, who was entitled to the floor, wished to postpone his remarks, till he could hear more news from Kansas itself.

Mr. Hale wished, but was not ready, to express his views. On his motion, the question was made the special order for Monday next.

The Senate, after debate, passed a joint resolution, to the effect that in any case where the Courts of Inquiry, appointed under the act of January 8, 1857, may render it advisable, in the opinion of the President, to restore to the active or reserved list of the Navy, he shall have power, by consent of the Senate, to do so.

By unanimous consent, the President's Central American Message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and the debate thereon postponed until said Committee shall make a report.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on the Post Office to inquire into establishing mail lines between the United States and the Empire of Brazil, and the republics of South America.

The House considered a resolution providing for the printing of 5000 extra copies of the Coast Survey Report. The resolution was rejected.

Mr. Faulkner asked but failed to obtain leave to report a bill to increase the military establishment by five additional regiments.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the President's annual Message.

Mr. Grosbeck made an administration and anti-fillibuster speech.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Treasury Department to-day received from the engravers, and will issue, to-morrow, 150,000 Treasury notes, of the denomination of $100.

The President sent to-day to the Senate for confirmation all the Rhode Island appointments.

The consideration of Mr. Clifford's appointment to the vacancy in the Supreme Court will come up to-morrow.

☞ DeBow's Review, published at New Orleans, and formerly a commercial publication, in speaking of the "Wealth of the North and the South," gives the following picture of New England prosperity:

The filthy, crowded, licentious factories, the mercenary shop-keeping, and the slavish commerce of the North.

Of course there is a difference between Southern and Northern literature. The Southerner is by nature more courteous—hence the above. Hear the same writer again:

Mr. Buchanan will be the "last of the Presidents," unless abolition is arrested in its course, and some measure, some line of policy, adopted, which shall plainly and obviously make the extension of slavery the interest of the North.

And again:

An exasperated South will blow the Union to shivers, if hordes of Northern immigrants continue to seise upon and monopolize the whole of that territory which she (the South) chiefly acquired despite of much Northern opposition.

In the emphatic language of Capt. Cuttle, it will be well to "stand by," for the Union is not to "slide" but to "shiver;" and that, too, simply because Northern immigration takes possession of the territory of the United States.

DEATH OF CHARLES L. CATER.—Charles L. Cater, the condemned murderer of Solon H. Tenney, late Warden of the Massachusetts State Prison, died about 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, in his cell in the jail in Boston. Cater had been ill of pleurisy for some weeks, and for some days past it had been apparent to his physician that he could not long survive. He had become quite emaciated and enfeebled, and by Monday night was so ill, that by direction of the Sheriff another prisoner was put into the same cell with him, to attend to his wants. About half-past 4 o'clock, Tuesday morning, he was attacked with profuse hemorrhage from the lungs, and continued to bleed until he expired.

WASHINGTON 12th.—Orders will issue in a few days for the discharge of the crew of the Cyane, at Norfolk, and that vessel will be put out of commission.

Several members of Congress who had been summoned before the Grand Jury in connexion with the charge of fraud against the late Clerk of the House, pleaded their exemption, and were excused, without testifying.

The Constitution of Minnesota was presented in the Senate to-day, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Senator Pugh does not succumb to the will of the Democracy of Ohio, as expressed at the late caucus.

Colonel Pickens has been confirmed as Minister to Russia.

☞ George G. Sweetland was found in New Boston, N. H., last Friday, in the woods, dead. He was a bachelor, 54 years old, and lived alone, and in a miserly way, though possessing some property. He probably died in a fit.

"HIGGINSON ON SPIRITUAISM."

REPLY TO SENEX.

Messrs. Editors:—Why is it, if Spiritualism is such a contemptible delusion, such a shallow pretense, as most of those who denounce it would have us believe,—that its opposers cannot afford to admit the truth with regard to it? Why must they invariably misrepresent its facts, its theories and its supporters? This course they have pursued, until it is no longer a mere child that may be strangled by the first pressure of opposition, but a mighty giant, filling the land, upon whom even the thunders of the Cambridge professors could not make the slightest impression. It is not theories and opinions merely they now have to reason down,; but stern, hard, living facts, to explain and account for—facts testified to by millions of living witnesses, whose numbers are constantly increasing, and for which science has no explanation, and which show in inanimate nature an intuitive and reasoning power greater than man can claim.

When "Senex" or any others can step forward and show how these things are done, where this intellectual power comes from, and how the inmost thoughts of the soul are read like a written scroll, and secrets given of which neither the medium nor any other person present has the slightest knowledge—then they may do something towards checking the onward march of Spiritualism. But until they can do this, they ought not to wonder if people prefer to believe the evidence of their own senses, that these manifestations do occur, instead of their assertions that they do not—assumed because they have not seen them. They ought not to be surprised if their assertions produce no more effect than a thousand others of like purport, made before them.

Mr. Higginson never made so palpably absurd a statement, as that he saw a musical instrument laying on the floor and playing tunes in a dark room; but that he saw this in the broad light of day; quite a difference! Senex further says that "it seems the spirits will not come except in darkness." Mr. Higginson distinctly stated that all or nearly all of those manifestations which at first seemed to require a dark room, were now performed equally well in the light; and then proceeded to show that if they could not, it was no argument against their genuineness, as asserted by the Harvard faculty.

If Senex will make these misrepresentations here on earth, and is the same person hereafter, as the spiritualists believe, would he not be likely, if he returns after death, and had the fear of the devil no stronger before his eyes, to do the same thing, if he thought it would serve his purpose better than the plain truth?

But we presume he will say Mr. Higginson did not make any such statement as asserted above, but that we and the rest of the audience were crazy when we thought we heard it, and he only heard aright.

Senex says that "our Bible teaches that upon the dissolution of the body, the Spirit or soul of man returns to God;" and thinks He would not permit it to again come to earth, for the useless purpose of playing musical instruments, &c. This looks plausible, but let us learn from 'Our Bible' what God is. Does it not by word or inference teach that he is omniscient and omnipresent—that "he is all in all"—that in him we live and move and have our being"—that he is the life of our life and soul of our soul—that we have not power without him to change the color of a hair of our heads—that these are numbered, and that even the little "sparrow falleth not to the ground without his notice"—that he clothes the lilies of the field"—and that the kingdom of God is within us? Does he not complain that the children of man have put him far away from them?—and we cannot think in this respect, our modern popular theology is much in advance of the ancient.

How absurd, then, to assert that when the Life of man puts off its material garments, it has to wander off through unknown realms, in search of its Creator! Should we not rather infer that God is a Spirit, instead of a material being, and Heaven a condition rather than a location; and as by him all things are made, and all are his, that when the glorified Spirit feels itself drawn by its sympathy, law and duty, then it is free to go throughout God's Eternal mansions? All these worlds and myriads of worlds are his; and were created for a purpose; and we are his: and it is not fair to presume that all of us are called to one employment, when we see such a variety of labor around us to be performed. And as the Spiritual is but an outgrowth of the material, we find that there are ministering spirits sent forth to the children of men,—and to say that it is wrong, or impossible for us to learn of them, is simply assuming what we have no authority or reason for doing. ALEXIS.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

TWO WEEKS LATER.

The steamship Empire City arrived at New Orleans, on Tuesday. The steamer Star of the West has about $1,500,000 in specie. Col. Andreson had surrendered to the frigate Susquehannah.

KANSAS AND NEBRASKA.—St. Louis, Jan. 11.—The Kansas correspondent of the Democrat says, that the Free State Legislature and State ticket received an average majority of 185 votes at Wyandotte, and a majority against the Lecompton Constitution.

The Leavenworth Times says, that the average majority of the Free State ticket, in that city, was upwards of 1100, and the majority against the Constitution 1370.

Gentlemen from the Territory say that there is little doubt of the election of the Free State ticket by a large majority.

No disturbances reported thus far.

Resolutions have been introduced into the Nebraska Legislature, deprecating the action of the Lecompton Covention, in failing to submit the Constitution to a vote of the people, and expressing fear that the establishment of such a precedent may have an important bearing upon the character of their own domestic institutions.—Resolutions endorsing Ferguson to a seat in Congress, in preference to Chapman, have passed both Houses by a decided vote.

ROMULUS, Seneca Co., N. Y., Jan. 9.—A most distressing occurrence took place in this town last night. The dwelling of Aaron Warner, situated one mile south of Romulusville, took fire and burned to the ground. Mr. Warner's three oldest children perished in the flames. The parents with their youngest child, were absent on an evening visit.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The officers and workmen at the Navy Yard are to be paid to-day. Major Russel, paymaster of the marine corps, paid off that department, and will do the same at Charlestown.

AUGUSTA GA., JAN. 11.—On Friday night last seven men, mostly negroes, were scalded to death by molten metal at Cooper's Iron Furnace, Cass Co., this State.

TORONTO MARKET REPORT.—Jan. 9.

Since the date of my last Weekly Report, we have been favored with snow, sufficient to protect the Fall Wheat from frost, and afford us at last good winter roads. Such consummation to our wishes is of too recent a date yet to experience its full benefit, but in a few days we look for supplies pouring in upon our market in the usual winter abundance. Farmers, loathe to accept the low rates that obtained, have sent to market only their inferior wheat since autumn, we anticipate an improvement in quality. We know moreover that the stock of wheat in their hands is heavy; —that exports from this place alone since harvest, are three quarters millions short of those of corresponding periods of the previous season, and the decrease at other ports is in still greater ratio. Low prices and good supplies in quantity and quality, will invite foreign orders to our market for storage till spring.

The scarcity of money is still much felt, and it appears to be the avowed policy of our Banks to keep the screws on, in hope of creating a general cry from the country for a repeal of our Usury Laws; for how can Banks continue to loan money at 6 per cent., when they themselves are charged 8 and 9 per cent. in London.

The Shoals and Quicksands of YOUTH.

Just Published the Third Edition.

ON SPERMATORRHŒA OR SEMINAL DISEASES.—A scientific Treatise on the treatment and perfect cure of Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Impotence, &c., resulting from vicious habits acquired during the critical passage from Youth to Manhood.

BY DR. CULVERWELL,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, (1827), Licentiate of the Hall, (1824), and 20 years Resident Practitioner in London; Author of the "Guide to Health," "Green Book," "How to be Happy," "Memoirs of Married and Single Life," &c.

This small, but highly valuable treatise, written by a world renowned Physician and Surgeon, points out the only sure and permanent cure for all diseases resulting from self abuse, and is the only publication of its kind written in a benevolent spirit and by a scientific man. It should be in the hands of all who value their life and health and happiness here and hereafter.

Price 12 cents, or 4 stamps, at the receipt of which it will be sent, post free, and well secured, by Dr. CH. KLINZE, No. 420 1st Avenue, Box 4586, New York. ja 13 tf

LOCAL.

☞ On Monday evening, Jan. 11, the Temple was filled with a most respectable and attentive audience, assembled in spite of the great rain, to listen to the eulogy on George Washington, pronounced by Edward Everett.

The orator was introduced to the audience by Rev. Dr. Burroughs, who spoke in behalf of the committee of invitation and arrangement, and who congratulated the audience on their fine opportunity to hear a most eloquent orator, to promote a worthy object, and to honor the Father of his Country.

Mr. Everett discussed the Character of Washington, as it existed in itself, and as it compared with the great men of ancient and of modern times: and drew from his subject, thus handled, many valuable inferences, political and moral.

Besides the lecture proper, as delivered elsewhere, Mr. Everett read extracts from Washington's (unpublished) private journal, describing his visit to Portsmouth in 1789, when he dined at Col. Brewster's Tavern, the most genteel public house in the town, (now the Irish residence, No. 23 Hanover street, containing 9 tenants whose names appear in last year's Directory;) when he supped with John Langdon; and when he went down river on a fishing excursion, but being a wrong time of tide, the party only caught two cod fish.

The same document also described his visit to our old (but then new) Assembly Room, now, sad to say, no more; and showed that the good general and excellent president had an eye to beauty both natural and artificial, to grace and gentility. For, says he, the Assembly Room is the best I have seen in the country; and in it were 75 well-behaved and well-dressed ladies, a larger portion of whom had darker hair than is usual at the South.

He also mentions his worshipping at the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning, where he heard a sermon from Rev. Mr. Ogden, and at the North Church in the afternoon, where he heard Mr. (afterwards Dr. Joseph) Buckminster. And he also mentions an interview with Mr. (Dr. Samuel) Haven, who made him a present of colored corn, used as a dye stuff.

These, and similar minutiæ, were of interest to a Portsmouth audience, and gave variety to the lecture.

Washington's nice sense of propriety was shown near the close of these extracts, by his regret that he could not dine at Exeter, as invited—learning as he did too late, that there was a rivalry between Exeter and Portsmouth.

The arrangements made for the lecture were ample and successful; and the result in money must be a pretty little sum in aid of buying and keeping Mount Vernon as the property of the American People.

☞ We cheerfully give place to the well-written and good-tempered communication of "Alexis," on Spiritualism. It is rather long for a newspaper article—altogether too extensive for our little crowded columns—and we are obliged to publish it in two parts, the second of which will appear to-morrow.

CLOAKS AND CLOAK GOODS.

If any of our readers are about purchasing a Cloak, or the materials to make one, they will of course visit NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST., before buying.—Allen & Paine having appropriated one room of their store to that business entirely, are opening to-day one of the largest stocks in this city, including Cloaks, Broadcloths, Black, Brown and Drab Plush for Trimming. To those of their customers who prefer making their own Cloaks, they will give a pattern of any Cloak in their store.

☞ The only place in this city where an Ambrotype can be obtained, is at Davis' Ambrotype Gallery, No. 8 Daniel Street, as they have the Patent, and all infringements will be prosecuted. sept9

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Dr. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to satisfy three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size, and one dozen of $3 size; as we may say that our boy has a healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now assumed its original color. I cannot but recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once mild, pure and agreeable, and in none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

The Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 12 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. A coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with. When this Stove is properly managed, without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the Stove is made durably wrought to save from 30 to 50 per cent. in fuel expense.

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ADVERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no popular class is wanting, the money is returned by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, that interests all parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, and orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the drawing, one number on every tenment draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, which the managers call attention to, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $50. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertiary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 70. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRIME COST, $1,50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, A Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungeneral frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.
For sale by George E. Lawrence, Epping, N. H., at wholesale and retail, and dealers in Medicine generally, where pamphlets, &c., may be had gratis. novl6d&wtapr1

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1858.

ALL MOONSHINE.—A reverend somebody, probably Henry Wood, chaplain U. S. Navy, has written a letter which is published in a political paper, wherein he says:

I observe a statement in a respectable paper which I happened to take up, that in the Presbyterian churches of five of the Southern States the increase of churches has been from 16 to 45 per cent. during the last ten years, and the increase of members from 16 to 60 per cent. for the same period; while in the Northern States the number of church members has diminished by thousands in that period, and many churches have become utterly extinct, while still more are rapidly traveling on to the same doom.

To this the editor of the Congregational Journal replies:—

As to the comparison between the Southern and Northern churches, made by the indefinite figuring in the above paragraph, we should like to see the paper and the documents from which they are taken before we receive them as correct. It is a very easy matter for a mind out of balance to make facts the basis of general and sweeping statements from which inferences will be drawn as wide from the truth as light is from darkness.

Exactly so: but we don't believe the chaplain's figures are facts. His arithmetic is no more correct, probably, than his history, geography, or certificates. We have seen no such statements elsewhere as he makes—and suppose he must have read them by the light of two moons.

A TEMPERANCE DIPLOMATIST.—The new American Envoy at Berlin, Mr. Wright, has created some sensation in diplomatic circles by his temperance principles. He lately gave a dejeuner a la fourchette (breakfast) in honor of Alexander von Humboldt, on which occasion all American residents in Berlin, about forty, were present and introduced to the latter. At the dejeuner, as well as at the dinners of Mr. Wright, in accordance with temperance law, but contrary to German custom, there is no wine on the table; instead of which was an abundance of all sorts of American fares, made of Indian corn, &c.

Mr. Wright has done himself and his country great honor. And so, let us add, has Mr. Speaker Cobb of our Federal House of Representatives, in that he has given his first Speaker's party in Washington, without wines or liquors.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, on Tuesday, a bill was passed repealing the act of March, 1856, authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to change the names of vessels in certain cases.

No other business of importance was transacted, and, after an executive session, the Senate adjourned.

In the House, three messages were received from the President; one, in response to the resolution calling for information relative to recent events in Central America, a second transmitting a copy of the Constitution of Minnesota, and a third in response to a resolution inquiring whether the government of Nicaragua had made any complaint on account of the arrest of Gen. Walker on her soil. The President says that no such complaint has been received.

The U. S. Senate, in executive session, confirmed Hon. Nathan Clifford as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, in place of Justice Curtis, resigned—26 to 23.

The correspondent of the New York Evening Post gives the following curious information respecting the relations of President Buchanan and Gov. Walker:

"Besides the public instructions, the President, on the 11th of July last, just after the denunciation of Walker at the South on account of his Topeka speech, wrote him a letter of six pages, telling him that his course was approved—that the Constitution must be submitted to the people, and that he should use all his power to enforce its submission. 'Let Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi howl, I and my administration will sustain you, and we will stand or fall together on it.'

The letter was not marked private, and was shown to many gentlemen in Kansas, to convince them that Buchanan approved Walker's policy. Some saw it several times, and can repeat it almost verbatim.

It is supposed that this is the private letter which Walker threatened to publish. The moderate tone of Walker's resignation and his abstinence from accusation give credence to an assertion made just before its appearance, that the President had written him a letter expressing the warmest personal regard for him, regretting the difference of opinion even on one point, and deprecating any rupture."

RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 11.—Resolutions have been offered in the Legislature, and printed, requesting members of Congress and Senators to endeavor to procure the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution.

"HIGGINSON ON SPIRITUALISM."

REPLY TO SENEX—CONCLUDED.

We do not consider it a bending-down of the best spirits of this life, to go forth as religious teachers,—telling men, as far as they can know, of heaven and a future existence, and pointing the way; and it is not considered a disgrace to them, or a reproach upon their instructions, that they receive money therefor. And this objection against mediums, comes with a bad grace from a defender of salaried ministers and other et ceteras of the fashionable theology of the day. We grant that if the spirits come for no more useful purpose than Senex would have us believe, then they might be censured by his observations; but these are only the exterior—and behind or within them lie the life and soul of Spiritualism.

When we consider that millions of our fellow men believe not in a future existence; and that none, before the advent of Spiritualism, could tell what or when that future life was; and that a hope that they might live and be happy hereafter, was all the church could offer to its most sanguine followers; and that these manifestations are given to convince skeptical minds of the presence of the "loved and lost;"—they assume a new beauty and a most useful purpose. When a mind is once convinced of spirits' presence and power, and that these spirits are those of its absent friends; then it no longer cares to see tables suspended in the air, musical instruments carried about the room, or pianos tilted, without mortal touch,—but, satisfied on this point, it seeks to learn the intellectual and practical lessons of life, that are flowing down to all who will receive them.

The parable of the rich man and Lazarus is brought forward, to show that spirits could not be permitted to return for the useful purpose of converting sinners. If Senex will read the 10th chapter of Acts, he will learn that a spirit, "as men in shining garments," will be sent to all those who earnestly desire to learn the truth.—If he makes universal application of one, there is no reason why he should not of the other—for the first was apparently a parable, while the second was recorded as a literal fact.

The insinuation that Mr. Higginson is an impostor, because he has had the moral courage to step forward in defence of what he knew to be truth, is worthy of no notice. The assertion that "the character of travelling mediums is not held in high estimation," is true as far as their traducers are concerned; such, not satisfied with asserting that they are deceived themselves, and their manifestations are the results of trickery and imposture,—without the slightest knowledge of them, or their teachings through them, assail them with vituperation and calumny: thus proving their practical appreciation and application of Christ's teachings!

But those who seek to know them, by associating with and learning their motives and daily life, hold them "in high estimation," even if they themselves are not spiritualists—as persons striving to do right. Of course there are exceptions, as among all classes; and we know that those who more than pay their expenses, as they go from place to place, are very few.

While the Christian world are quarrelling about tenets and creeds, and have almost fallen back into infidelity; and while Christian teachers are quibbling about this doctrine and that, and denouncing each other, using their pulpits to hurl at those whom

"The Father made brethren, but creeds have made foes."

—and neglecting the spirit of their Master's teachings, to quarrel about the letter,—we do not wonder that the windows of Heaven have been opened, and the angels commissioned to bear the "olive branch of Peace," and that knowledge which shall enable us to say that if a man die he shall live again.

We do deny most emphatically, that the teachings of Spiritualism are at variance with the pure and holy breathings of Jesus; and we do not deny that they vary from the belief and the practice of the Sectarians that bear His name in this century. Look abroad over the land, and see if our laws are not founded on the principle of "an eye for an eye," and look at our current theology, and see if it is not Jewish rather than Christian. How little does it bear of that Divine image which proceeded from the Father, in the embodiment of love, and came to earth, saying, 'neither do I condemn thee—go thou and sin no more;' and told us that our progress was of no effect, unless we do the will of our Father.

If those zealous defenders of the faith who are so ready to take up the pen in defence of "the pure and holy doctrines of Christianity," were as zealous to make a practical defence before the world, by living them out in every day life, there would be less need of the angels coming down from their high estate, to guide the weary and trembling steps of men in their search for knowledge.

We are very grateful for Senex's kind interest in our welfare, but cannot be lured from our Father's house where we have much bread, to feed again on the husks we have once turned from. ALEXIS.

☞ The Washington Medallion Pen Company, are manufacturing and introducing to the American public, steel pens of the best temper and the smoothest finish. They are the only steel pens made in this country, and they are made and finished mainly by hand, while all the thousands of cheap pens imported, (and which cost from half a million to a million dollars per annum) are made by machinery, and not finished or polished at all, and are very poor affairs.

In this country the people are paying now fifty cents and upwards per gross, for pens—so called—than which the Washington Medallion Pens are better worth five dollars, for the reason, that they will serve to perform more than ten times the work, and execute it, too, without a constant tax upon nerves and patience.

The Washington Medallion Pens and Pen Holders are recommended, after trial, by many principal teachers, and eminent writers, in the country. The Washington Medallion and Ladies' and Ledger Pens, are the only steel pens manufactured in America. We have used both, and pronounce them excellent.

The Medallion Pen Co. have their office at 293 Broadway, N. Y.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—We take the following from the correspondence of the New York Evening Post:

I have excellent authority for saying that Vice President Breckenride sides with Mr. Douglas in the Kansas dispute. It is quite natural that he should do so. They have been intimate socially, and in their business relations. From his position as presiding officer of the Senate, it is unnecessary that he should express an opinion upon any debate, but it must be mortifying to such men as Fitch and Bigler, who have made haste to misrepresent their constituents at the call of the administration, to learn that a Southern statesman, in high position, admits that it is not right and not wise to accept the Lecompton Constitution.

To tell the truth, the dough-face tribe are in a state of great anxiety just now—those of them in Congress. The Lecompton constitution swindle may pass the Senate, perhaps by six majority, but it cannot go through the House. As the case stands to-day, if the entire Southern American delegation in Congress goes with Buchanan, there are enough Northern Democrats who now declare themselves with Douglas, to kill the Lecompton Constitution in the House. Douglas still hopes it will never reach the House—that he can demolish it in the Senate.

From the correspondence of the Philadelphia Enquirer:

It is confidently believed that the long-winded French Spoilation bill will pass this Congress and be approved by the President, who has heretofore voted in its favor. The only serious objection appears to be the condition of the Treasury, but this will probably be obviated by paying the claimants in treasury paper, bearing a very moderate, if any, rate of interest.

☞ The Concord, N. H. Patriot of June 13th says:—

In publishing the resolutions of the Democratic State Committee, last week, we remarked that the three members of the Committee whose names were not attached to the resolutions, "thought no action upon the subject advisable." We are informed by the Chairman that this is not correct; that two of those members were absent, one of whom, Mr. Colby, has since expressed his approval of the action of the Committee, and requested that his name be signed to the resolutions; that the views of the other, Mr. Marcy, were not known; while Mr. Burns did not fully approve of the sentiment of one of the resolutions, but thought it proper for the Committee to adopt them, as they undoubtedly express the views of the Democracy of the State.

REVIVIFIED.—Mr. Reuben Mellen, whose unaccountable disappearance from Chicago, some time since, caused a great deal of search and speculation, returned the other day, having been to New Orleans and California; at which latter place he was engaged in preaching. In the meantime, Mrs. Mellen, having no doubt of his death, had married a printer.—Journal of Commerce.

SUICIDE.—Dr. Austin Jones, ex-President of Texas, committed suicide at his residence in Houston, Texas, on Friday last, by blowing out his brains.

☞ According to the New York Evening Post, Mr. Eli Thayer is organizing a company to send emigrants to Central America.

MARSHAL WESTCOTT, of Newburyport, has lately published his report for ten months.—Drinking and gaming are, in his view, the parent vices, which produce nearly all police offences and high taxes.—He says:

In all cases of drunkenness, where I have been satisfied no harm would result by discharging them when sober, it has been my policy so to do; and it has also been my aim to lessen as much as I could consistently, the great expense which in former years has been put upon the county and city, by reason of so many prosecutions.

The Sunday Police was appointed the 19th of April, to patrol on the Lord's day, at an expense of three dollars and seventy-five cents per day, which money, in my judgment, is well spent.

During the present year, twenty-one places for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors have been closed, and notice has been given to those who still persist in such sales, that prosecution will be commenced when proof enough can be obtained for conviction. Your Boards are well aware that it is useless to commence prosecution with but one witness for the government. In every instance but one where I have prosecuted for such violation of law with but one witness, before the case reached the court of Common Pleas, (the person complained of generally appealing from the decision of the Police Court,) the witness had been tampered with, and could not be found to testify, thereby making an expense to the county.

Having given your Honorable Boards an account of my official acts in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors, I deem it my duty to report of another offence—"an offence of an alarming nature, tending, by necessary consequences, to promote idleness, theft, and debauchery,"—gaming.—For some years past there have been in this city, establishments kept for the sole purpose of gaming, and where the youth have been enticed to go and play. During the present year the most extensive preparations were made to carry on this business; and as soon as the keepers of the establishments commenced operations, through the hearty support of the Committee on Police I commenced prosecutions. Search warrants were obtained, the buildings entered, and all persons found in them, playing for money or otherwise, were arrested, and the gaming implements seized. The value of the implements so seized is three hundred dollars. At the present time there is not to my knowledge an establishment where gaming for money is prosecuted in the city.

HOW IT SUITS.

Whether a paper will suit any given customer, is a question to be answered by his individual taste. Tastes differ, and so do papers. Now for two letters, speaking of the Weekly Chronicle: the first is from an elderly, but active clergyman in the interior of our State, and is dated

W———, Jan. 9th, 1858.

Dear Sir:—I send you enclosed pay for the Chronicle for the present year. I think you succeed admirably in making it the Chronicle. It is my chief dependence for the news of the times: while for temperance items, it need not be ashamed of its position or its articles. Its locality gives it full enough of experience of the evils of intemperance, to sustain it in its warfare against all that intoxicates. But it is a Hydra-headed monster. When you seem to have cut off all its heads, there is in the lust of gain and lust of appetite a recuperative power. If the hearts of men were pure, our success would be sure and easy. While we labor, let us never forget to pray to the Father of lights, from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift. ———

The second is from another clergyman at the center,—brief and to the point.

Messrs. Editors:—I have enclosed $1.00 for the Chronicle, for 1858.

Your paper deserves patronage. Its matter is interesting and profitable.

THE INDIANS GETTING JOVIAL.—It is said the Indians now visiting Washington show an excessive fondness for spirituous liquors, in consequence of which the Commissioner of Indian Affairs has published a request to the tavern keepers not to indulge the natives in their weaknesses.—Boston Courier.

Indeed! and is it not a dreadful invasion of the tavern keepers' rights, to keep the Indian coppers out of their tills?—and is it not oppression of the poor Indian, to prevent him from getting as drunk as Herbert and others, members of congress.

SURGERY.—The Saco Democrat says a lady of that town had a leg amputated on the 23d ult., by Dr. Mulvoy, assisted by Drs. Warren and Allen. The cause was mortification, which disorganized the entire foot—unjointed the ankle, and affected the limb to the knee. The fifteenth day after the operation, she left her room unaided, and attended to home business.

THOMPSON, the confidence operator, who has been entombed in New York, within a day or two, for attempting to swindle a jeweller out of $450 worth of goods, is an old hand. He has successfully operated, quite recently, in buying shoes and dry goods, to the amount of $2000. He is now likely to receive a due measure of punishment.

UTAH EXPEDITION.—St. Louis, Jan. 12. The Republican has advices from the Utah expedition to Dec. 1. The troops were all in winter quarters at Fort Bridger, with the exception of Col. Cook's command, which was posted forty miles distant on Henry's Fork, where a scant supply of grass remained.

Fort Bridger was being rebuilt, for the purpose of protecting the provisions.

The troops were comfortably stationed in tents with stoves.

The weather had been very mild, and good health prevailed.

The provisions on hand were sufficient to last until next June, by close allowance.

Capt. Marcy had been sent to Taos and Santa Fe to obtain supplies.

Nearly two-thirds of the animals of the expedition had died.

The Mormons were preparing to leave for the British possessions, and pioneer parties had already left.

Brigham Young had sent a quantity of salt to Col. Johnston, which that officer sent back, stating that he would hang any messenger from the same quarter, on a similar errand.

Young had also invited the officers of the army to partake of his hospitality and spend the winter at Salt Lake City.

It is said that Col. Johnstone is so well assured that the Mormons will leave in the spring, that he asks no increase of the force now under his command.

Gov. Cummings had signed a proclamation, declaring the Territory in a state of rebellion, and stating that a Court will be organized in Green River County, near Fort Bridger, whence the proclamation is dated by Chief Justice Eckles, for the trial of offenders: that a posse of the inhabitants of the Territory will first be used to enforce obedience to the laws, and that failing, military force will be resorted to; and commanding all armed bodies of men to immediately disband and return home, under the penalty of punishment as traitors.

Lieut. Carrol of the Tenth Infantry, bearer of dispatches to Washington, left here this morning.

ON SPERMATORRHŒA OR SEMINAL DISEASES.—A scientific Treatise on the treatment, and perfect cure of Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Impotence, &c., resulting from vicious habits occurring during the critical passage from Youth to Manhood

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, (1827), Licentiate of the Hall, (1824), and 30 years Resident Practitioner in London; Author of the "Guide to Health," "Green Book," "How to be Happy," "Memoirs of Married and Single Life," &c.

This small, but highly valuable treatise, written by a world renowned Physician and Surgeon, points out the only sure and permanent cure for all diseases resulting from self abuse, and is the only publication of its kind written in a benevolent spirit and by a scientific man. It should be in the hands of all who value their life and health and happiness here and hereafter.

LOCAL.

SHUTTING DOWN.—The City Marshal of Newburyport reports that five liquor sellers discontinued sales, last week. There have been others notified by the police to follow the same track. We understand it to be the intention of the new city government to make clean work of the matter, and confine the sale of spirituous liquors to one agent for the whole city.—Herald.

The citizens of Portsmouth may do the same thing, in the same manner, when they choose to do so; for our law is quite as good as that of Massachusetts. Our city elections, however, are unwisely held on the same day with our State elections,—and so the two things are disadvantageously mixed up together. It would be vastly better, on almost all accounts, to have our city government begin its year in January than in April. We do not despair of seeing changes for the better in both respects.

THE FIREMEN'S LEVEE.

Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondents have been referring for the past week to the Firemen's Levee which is to be held in Jefferson Hall, and have shown not only that the Firemen have always been on hand and performed their duties well, but that the association is altogether indispensable and more useful to the community than any other popular association among us, and is more deserving of the popular favor and patronage.

I am not a member of any of the Fire Companies, but understand that this Fair is to be conducted on the same plan as those which have heretofore been given in behalf of the religious societies; that is, every person who feels an interest in the association under whose auspices this fair is to be given, will confer a favor upon all concerned, by sending into the hall any little articles which are usually saleable at such fairs.

Will it be too much to request those skilled in cookery to make some nice cake, and send along some of their nice specimens of pastry? and will not those who are skillful with the needle, or in any kind of embroidery, exert themselves to make the Levee a success? Let every family in the city do something—the rich in accordance with the abundance which has been bestowed upon them and in accordance with the assistance which may be rendered them at times by firemen; and those who are not rich, according to their means: let every one do something.

The first evening of the Fair will be Wednesday, Jan. 20; and if our citizens act upon these suggestions, or upon the dictates of their own generous feelings, and send in articles, they will be received at Jefferson Hall any time during Wednesday. It would be preferable, however, to have them sent in on Wednesday forenoon.

☞ In our notice of Gen. Washington's Journal in Portsmouth, we placed the General in the wrong pew. He was entertained at Colonel Brewster's tavern—but Col. B. did not then keep at the house now 23 Hanover street. He kept, (as we are told by older men,) at that time in the spacious house on the site now occupied by the residence of Hon. Richard Jenness, at the corner of Court and Pleasant streets.

☞ We are desired to say that Madame Holbrook, the Fortune Teller, is to be found at No. 2 Mulberry street, instead of No. 3 according to street circulars.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band will play in Exeter, this evening, at a Promenade Concert given by the Exeter Cornet Band.

LATER FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, Jan. 12.—The Democrat has Kansas advices of the 7th, which give the following pro-slavery majorities:—

Kickapoo, 86; Doniphan county, 800; Johnson county, 1900; Bourbon county, 430; Douglas county gives 500 Free State majority, and Atchison city about 30.

The Democratic State ticket is probably elected, but a majority of the Legislature is Free State.

About half the vote of the Territory was cast for State officers, but a very decided expression was given against the Lecompton Constitution, the majority against it being set down at 10,000. In some precincts there were two distinct polls kept open.

The Free State Men were making arrests of fraudulent voters, under the recent act of the Legislature.

At Calhoun, a Judge named Calvert was arrested for stuffing the ballot-boxes, and another named Redman, for receiving fraudulent votes.

Calvert was taken to Leavenworth, and with a cannon belonging to the Kickapoo Rangers paraded through the streets.

Political parties were much divided, the majority being bitterly opposed to the Lecompton Constitution.

Gen. Calhoun was supposed to be in Western Missouri, and had been advised not to return to the Territory.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT
That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.
Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER.

So long unsuccessfully sought,

FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scurfy humors of the human head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the human face; cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following:

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Agents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, the 6 dozen sent for being sold all being sold), while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage we receive from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resp'ly,

DANIEL LATHROP & CO.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, which was attended with much suffering. We advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any living child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours resp'ly,

GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it my hair was almost entirely gray. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the superior manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which such Parlor Stoves can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor in 12 hours, without replenishing and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently sifting not required with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent in fuel expense.

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who deal in these lotteries are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that 5 per cent is reserved by law, right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. It no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are all in full, and a copy of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers, which terminate in cents, as in other lotteries. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. Every prize being drawn, and result of drawing, or other information, forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before 12 M. on Saturday next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $1; halves, 85; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties residing at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertany combinations. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 '00. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

—MANUFACTURERS OF—

Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,

—and—

PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.

No. 511 Washington St., Boston,

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Massachusetts Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and in giving the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without hindering the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running, as drawn higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficient for any to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following gentlemen:

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston, who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,
T. Gilbert & Co.,	Wm. P. Emerson,
Brown & Allen,	A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes,	Woodward & Brown,
	Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited on the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain a good article of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, addressed to the Manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

American and Foreign Patents

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immesurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The facts commonly be given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.

INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE,
is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of ungenial frosts and debilitating heats. Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1858.

ANOTHER "SEBASTOPOL OF DRUNKENNESS." Governor Morrill says, in his Message to the Maine Legislature, that "the type of intemperance" in that State, "both as to quantity and quality of liquors, is severer than is known elsewhere."

Will the editor of the Portsmouth Chronicle note this statement, and compare it with that he recently so gratuitously made, to the disparagement of Boston, and has not yet taken back?—Boston Ledger.

Yes, indeed, we note it; and Uncle Toby repeats his true statement, that Boston is the Sebastopol of Drunkenness in New England.

Gov. Morrill's statement, as quoted above, does not in the least contradict it—even if Gov. M's positions were strictly correct, as we believe they are not. Let us see.

"The type of intemperance, as to quantity and quality of liquors, is severer in Maine than elsewhere," says Gov. M.

1st, If he means that any ten drunkards in Maine, drink more liquor, and worse, than any ten in Portsmouth or Boston,—it may be so, but we do not believe it, and it is impossible to prove it.

2d, If he means that Maine drinks more and worse liquor than all the world besides—this cannot be true.

3d, If he means, that, pro rata, Maine consumes more gallons of liquor for every thousand of her population, than Boston; or sells more or sells worse liquor; or gets drunker,—we don't believe it, but merely suppose Gov. Morrill overrates, as is very common, the drunkenness and crime he sees, and underrates what he does not see.

Now we happen to have been closely acquainted with the temperance and intemperance of Boston—as well as of Maine and New Hampshire—and we distinctly and repeatedly warned our temperance friends, five years ago, when they were passing, or trying to pass, laws that were expected by some to cut up intemperance by the roots,—of the immense, and to them almost incredible, strength of the liquor interest, the liquor trade in Boston, interwoven, as it was and is, with the press, bar, bench and pulpit, with the banks, and ballot boxes and jury boxes.

Boston has stood like Sebastopol against the law. Its money and many of its newspapers did what they could to inflict a rum government on Maine, from which she is suffering to-day. She sells more liquor, twice over, than all that is sold in Maine,—and she sells not a little that is sold again, there.

And her own city records show more drunkenness than can be shown from those of all the cities and towns in Maine together.

If it be a disparagement to tell the truth, and say that while Portsmouth has her 60 liquor shops or houses, and Portland her 200 or so, Boston has her 2000, and is therefore the stronghold of drunkenness—why be it so. Let her be disparaged, as she deserves.

MRS. SOPHIA WYATT, wife of Samuel Wyatt, Esq., the well-known landlord of the Dover and New Hampshire Hotels, in former years, and more recently of the Marlboro' and other Hotels in Boston, died quite suddenly at the residence of her daughter, in Georgetown, Mass., on the 31st ult. She took tea in her usual health, retired to her chamber, and died almost instantly. She was a native of Dover, and passed a large portion of her life in that community. Her age was about 78.—Her first husband, Jonathan Hayes, is supposed to have perished at the insurrection in St. Domingo, in 1798, with several others from this vicinity, who sailed from Portsmouth to that island, and from which they never returned. Mrs. Wyatt was a woman of great energy, spent many of her early years as a teacher, and afterwards, as the landlady of various Hotels, was extensively known and appreciated by the travelling community. A few years since, she published the "Auto-Biography of a Landlady of the Old School," which contained considerable information of a local character. She was a member of the First Cong. Church in Dover.

BAPTISTS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—They raised, in 1857, for the support of feeble churches in the State, $1766.29. The sum raised by the denomination in the State during the year, for other benevolent objects, was probably between $7000 and $8000.

☞ Seneca C. Kennard, of South New-Market, has received a patent for improved machine for measuring the superficies of boards.

EXETERIANA.

EXETER, Thursday, Jan. 14.

Dear Chronicle:—The new County Jail, the foundation of which was laid in September last, will be ready for occupancy early in the ensuing Spring. It is situated on a large lot of land, near the track of the B. & M. Railroad, about a quarter of a mile North-Westerly from the depot.—It is built of brick, two stories in height, slated, and surmounted by a cupola. The cells occupy the Easterly part of the building. They are eight in number, four in each story, with a spacious corridor between. Cast-iron plates, made at the Machine Shop in Exeter, are used in the construction of the cells. Each cell is twelve by thirteen feet, and nine feet high, well ventilated and without a stove, a furnace in the cellar warming the whole of this department. The jailor's apartments are extensive and convenient. The appropriation made was eight thousand dollars: nearly twelve thousand have been spent, yet none of it seems to have been wasted.—May it be, as some crusty bachelor said of old maids, always ready, but never wanted.

On Wednesday of last week the large mansion occupied by the family of the late Senator Bell, narrowly escaped destruction by fire. A defect in the chimney caused a part of the wood-work to ignite, and in a short time the flames burst through the roof. The fire was extinguished, however, without the aid of the engines, which, by the by, is commonly the case at all our fires.

Our Band give this evening a Promenade Concert, the music to be furnished by the Exeter and Portsmouth Cornet Bands.—The Portsmouth Quadrille Band will also "fiddle" for the dancers. This arrangement of the two bands is an admirable one, and will meet with the same encouragement here as at Portsmouth. The programme for this evening is a fine one. As tickets are placed at the extremely low price of fifteen cents, of course the Hall will be crowded.

Two singing schools a week have been in full blast here this winter. The well known master of the art, Mr. Durgin, who presides over one of these musical assemblies, proposes to give a concert on Thursday of next week. The Linds and Sontags of Exeter will no doubt appear, and give the public as fair specimens of "native talent" as they did last year.

The report that the N. E. Gas & Steam Pipe Shop was to be rebuilt here, is now contradicted. It is said that it was decided on Saturday that it is to be rebuilt elsewhere, probably in East Boston. This decision will affect Exeter materially.

Dr. William G. Perry publishes the bill of mortality for Exeter during the year 1857. It appears that out of a population of 3,500, the deaths are 28 males and 38 females; in all 66. Average age 35.

Ex-Fountain Engine Co. will give their first annual ball, at Town Hall, on Thursday, the 29th inst. The Exeter Cornet Band, together with Gilmore's Band, from Salem, will furnish music.

Mr. James M. Lovering, in Monday's News Letter, makes what he considers the closing argument in the case of N. H. Patriot vs. Lovering et Exeter Bank. The Patriot will not make a great deal of political capital out of its fiery bombardments of the "rotten bank."

Mrs. M. S. Townsend lectured on Spiritualism last evening; the hall was not crowded. The Cloth Factory will recommence operations on Monday. F. G.

☞ Godey's February Number, as usual, has a splendid Steel Engraving. The Old Stile, and the story that accompanies it, is a very good one. Look at the one, and read the other. The Engravings for 1858 will all be as good as those already published. We are safe in saying this, for the publisher always fulfils his promises in the execution of his work. L. A. Godey, publisher, Philadelphia.

☞ A cow broke into a house in Toledo on Wednesday last, in the absence of the family, and upset the stove, setting the house on fire. The house was burned to the ground, and the cow, being unable to get out, perished in the flames.

☞ An order has been introduced into the Maine Legislature, that the Judiciary Committee be directed to inquire into the propriety of repealing Sect. 5, Chap. 59 of the Revised Statutes, said provision requiring the publication of marriage intention.

☞ Rev. I. F. Holton, late Professor in Middlebury College, is now a permanent supply of the Congregational church in Cornwall, Vt.

Why are potatoes and corn like certain sinners? Because having eyes they see not, and having ears they hear not.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The State Temperance Committee met at Concord, N. H., Jan. 6, 1858.

Chose Hon. T. T. Abbot, of Manchester, Chairman.

Jeremiah Smith, of Lee, Recording Secretary.

T. H. Miller, of Portsmouth, Corresponding Secretary.

John W. Ray, of Manchester, Treasurer.

Voted, to enlarge the committee by electing the following members:

N. R. Cook of Keene, for Cheshire Co.
David Clement of Hudson, for Hillsboro "
Barker Burbank of Sherburne, for Coos "
Col. Duncan of Meriden, for Sullivan "
Larkin D. Mason, Tamworth, for Carroll "
John Coe, Centre Harbor, for Belknap "

The other members of the committee, previously chosen, are:—

Hon. T. T. Abbot of Manchester.
Rev. Isaac Willey of Goffstown.
Hon. Geo. H. Morrison of Nashua.
Benjamin Chase, Esq., of Auburn.
J. Chamberlain, Esq., of Warren.
Hon. H. D. Walker of Portsmouth.
Dr. Hoyt of Wentworth.
Wm. Ramsdell, Esq., of Milford.
Nathaniel White, Esq., of Concord.
Rev. T. H. Miller of Portsmouth.
J. E. Goodwin, Esq., of West Milton.
Mr. Jeremiah Smith of Lee.

The next meeting of the Committee is to be on the first Tuesday in April, at the City Hotel in Manchester, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

SULLIVAN COUNTY TEMPERANCE SOCIETY. This Society held its annual meeting in Newport, at the Congregational meeting-house, Jan. 6th, 1858, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The folllowing officers were elected:—President, Dr. James A. Gregg; Vice Presidents, Rev. R. F. Lawrence, and Samuel B. Duncan; Secretary and Treasurer, H. M. Scales; Directors, Hon. Alvah Smith, Amasa Edes, Esq., Thos. J. Harris, Rev. J. G. Wilson, and Lemuel P. Cooper.

The resolutions passed by the State Convention at Manchester, the 15th ult., were read and adopted by this Society. The following resolutions were passed by the Society:

1st. Resolved, That the present state of the cause of Temperance in this County calls for earnest effort by its friends to circulate the total abstinence pledge, in all its parts, especially among the youth and children, and we highly approve of the formation of Juvenile Temperance Societies.

2d. Resolved, That we are still in favor of the principle of prohibition, and that we recommend to friends of Temperance in the different towns in this County, the enforcement of our prohibitory law.

3d. Resolved, That we regard beer shops and other tippling houses, as recruiting stations to fill up the fast diminishing ranks of the drunken and vicious; and we recommend lovers of Temperance and good order to frown upon their establishment and continuance in communities, and to restrain all under their control or influence from frequenting such places.

Voted, That the next annual meeting of this Society be holden at Claremont, on the first Wednesday of January, 1859.

OUR BLACK LIST.—We print (not publish) to-day, a list of all distant subscribers to the Weekly Chronicle, who are in debt—excepting only a few with whose intention to pay we are acquainted, or who have sent us satisfactory evidence either that they will pay, or that they are unable to do so.

Next week we intend to put this list in our Weekly—leaving off, of course, all who pay in the meantime, and all of whose inability to pay we have good evidence.

Of this list, we send copies only to those whose names are included in it, this week. The amount they owe us is about $400, to say nothing about interest; and there is not a man on the list, who cannot better afford to pay his small part, than we can to lose the whole amount.

We have no apology to offer for printing these names—and don't need to furnish one, half so much as those do who neglect or refuse to send us our money. If it is nothing blameable for them to do this, of course it is not improper for us to tell of it.

Any mistakes we may make here or elsewhere, we shall be happy to rectify.

To those subscribers (a long list) who pay us promptly, in advance, or even when bills are sent them, we are 'much obliged'—and it is to save even the appearance of dunning this desirable class of patrons, that we have adopted this plan, in preference of that of a general dun through our columns. All who have paid for 1858, need not read this article.

We have previously sent bills to all on the list—to most of them several times—so all know the amount of their indebtedness. For arrears only, our terms are $1.50 per year; to those who pay for a year in advance also; we will settle for $1 a year for the whole time.

Postmasters can send money for subscribers, free of postage.

The late firm of Drake & Co., of Havana, drew $100,000 in the last Havana lottery.

CONGRESS.—On Wednesday, Jan. 10, in the U. S. Senate, a proposition was introduced to give Commodore Paulding a gold medal; and another proposition to censure the Naval commander. A joint resolution, explanatory and amendatory of the Act of 1855, to "promote the efficiency of the Navy," was adopted.

The House spent the day in discussing the neutrality laws, and during the debate but one member defended the "little man Walker."

Mr. Lamar frankly acknowledged that the promotion of Southern interests was secondary only to the preservation of Southern honor. Although the South is in a minority, she, relying on the invincibility of truth and right, has been enabled to command the respect of her friends, and to defy the malice of her enemies. While justifying the Lecompton Constitutional Convention, and the result of their action, he said that Gov. Walker had violated his pledges, disgraced his trust, and, in fleeing from Kansas, had scattered firebrands, discord, and dissension; and Stephen A. Douglas, who was for lugging in California over all law, was now endeavoring to outrage the rights of the Southern States, and subjecting Kansas to the rigors of the Inquisition, because there was but slight prospect of its becoming a slave State.

SOUTH AMERICA.—Dates from Valparaiso are to Dec. 12. The government of Chili had made such concessions as were demanded by the public, and all fears of a revolution had ceased.

There was a considerable pressure for money at Valparaiso, but few failures had taken place.

The Peruvian authorities have committed another outrage against the United States, in having taken a sailor from the American ship T. B. Wales, and lashed him on the buoy for four hours, as a punishment for having struck a Chilian, on board the T. B. Wales. Capt. Burr protested against the outrage to the Peruvian commander, who, in a very insolent manner, told Capt. Burr that if he did not mind his own business, he would be put in the sailor's place. The American Minister at Lima is investigating the matter.

LEGISLATIVE.—The Democratic Legislature of Ohio will devote a large part of its time to the labor of annulling the Legislation of its Republican predecessors. The work has already commenced in good earnest. Among the bills thus far brought before the notice of the Legislature are:

A bill to repeal the act prohibiting the confinement of fugitive slaves in the jails of Ohio, passed in April, 1857.

A bill to repeal the act preventing slave-holding and kidnapping in the State, passed in April, 1857.

A bill repealing the act amending the act securing the benefits of the writ of habeas corpus.

Also, a bill prohibiting the immigration and settlement of negroes and mulattoes in the State.

Among the bills regulating the State finances, is one to establish a uniform rate of interest. Seven per cent. is, by this bill to be the legal rate of interest—no more, no less; that all agreements and notes shall be void and forfeited when the consideration, or any part thereof, is for interest greater than authorized.

Also, a bill to revive and amend the act to prohibit the circulation of foreign bank bills of a less denomination than ten dollars, passed during the session of 1854, and repealed during the session of 1856.

CANADA CURRENCY.—At the beginning of the present year, the old method of reckoning currency in Canada by pounds, shillings and pence was abolished, and the decimal system of this country supersedes it. Decimal coins will be coined to meet the requirements, and they will probably correspond in value with our own.

BY DR. CULVERWELL,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, (1827), Licentiate of the Hall, (1824), and 30 years Resident Practitioner in London; Author of the "Guide to Health," "Green Book," "How to be Happy," "Memoirs of Married and Single Life," &c.

This small, but highly valuable treatise, written by a world renowned Physician and Surgeon, points out the only sure and permanent cure for all diseases resulting from self abuse, and is the only publication of its kind written in a benevolent spirit and by a scientific man. It should be in the hands of all who value their life and health and happiness here and hereafter.

OUR CUSTOM HOUSE.

The usually well-informed and reliable Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, "Perley," has the following paragraph in a dispatch to that paper of Thursday:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Albert Blaisdell will be appointed Superintendent of the Custom House in process of erection at Portsmouth, displacing Col. J. M. Weare.

This may or may not be correct—but such a report has been current here for several weeks; that a movement was on foot to have Mr. Weare removed, and that Mr. Blaisdell would probably be given the Superintendence of the work.

From the commencement, Col. Weare and the contractors and overseers have not agreed at all. The original plan was slightly changed, after the contract was made,—agreeably to the petition of many of our citizens—so as to place the water-closets inside the building; which rendered necessary the sinking of a deeper sewer through State street, than would otherwise have been necessary. For this alteration, the contractors, or their bondsmed, claim an amount which Mr. Weare contends is too great. Pending the settlement of this matter, Mr. Diggs, one of the bondsmen, is waiting here.

The work of completing the drain through State street is progressing favorably, by order of Government; under direction of Superintendent Weare and Street Commissioner Jones.

We are informed by Mr. Diggs that neither the contractors nor their bondsmen have received a dollar for work or material furnished, as yet—except by the sale of the old buildings.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS AT EPPING.—On Thursday, Jan. 14, the Republican conventions to nominate Councillor for district No. 1, Senator for district No. 2, and county officers for Rockingham, met at Epping.

We are informed that the conventions were very fully attended, harmonious and enthusiastic.

Hon. Wm. H. H. Bailey, of Concord, was re-nominated as candidate for Councillor in District No. 1.

Hon. John Ordway, of Hampstead, was re-nominated as candidate for Senator in District No. 2.

For Register of Deeds—Charles W. Norris, Esq. of Epping was re-nominated.

For Register of Deeds, Benjamin D. Laighton, Esq., of Stratham.

For County Commissioner—Isaac Woodbury, Esq. of Salem.

☞ We are much indebted to a valued correspondent at Hampton, for a list of Deaths in that town, during the past year, To any person who will send us a full and correct list of the Marriages and Deaths in their town, as they occur, we will furnish a copy of our Weekly.

☞ The U. S. Ship Falmouth, Commander Ferrand, arrived at Rio Janeiro Nov. 19th, only 42 days from this Naval station,—one of the shortest passages made this season, which are usually from fifty to sixty days. All are reported well.

WHISTLING, SCREECHING BOYS.—The greatest nuisance, the most contemptible pest of a concert or lecture room, is the boy that gives a whistling screech for encores, or for applause. At every concert here there are some twenty or thirty that make moments hideous, and frighten strangers from patronizing a second time such entertainments. For the reputation of our city it should be broken up. Bring the boys before the Court for noise and brawl, and they would be hushed. The owners of the halls should employ an officer to look after them, charging the expense to the exhibitors, or else they will miss the presence of ladies and gentlemen.

We copy the above from a paper in a sister city, and adopt it for our own.—Noisy, ill-mannered boys or men, are a nuisance in any assembly of decent people.

☞ The funeral of Mrs. Susan Parker will be from the Stone Church this (Friday) morning, at 11 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Advices from New Grenada state that Santa Anna is expecting to be re-called. He is anxious to resume the reins of government in Mexico.

The Secretary of the Interior received a telegraphic dispatch this evening, dated Boonville, 13th, from an official high in authority, to the effect that the pro-slavery party in Kansas had triumphed, electing their entire ticket—the Legislature, Governor, State officers, etc. No disturbance or difficulties occurred at the election, or interference on the part of Missourians.

The majority of the Committee of the House on Foreign Relations is disposed to report resolutions sustaining Com. Paulding, and censuring fillibusterism.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

TWO WEEKS LATER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The steamship Star of the West, from Aspinwall, 14th inst., arrived this evening, with the California mails to the 21st December, and $1,600,000 in specie on freight, and 387 passengers.

The Star of the West connected with the steamer Golden Gate, the latter having sailed from San Francisco on the afternoon of the 21st ult., with $2,000,000 of specie, about half a million of which was on English account.

The news from California is that copious rains had fallen all over the State.

The journals give glowing accounts of the success of the miners, and speak hopefully of the future.

The Mormons, having all left San Bernardino, for Salt Lake, their farms were being sold at a ruinous sacrifice.

A hill, containing deposits, resembling glass, has been discovered in Napa county.

The Mariposa (Fremont) Ranch is to be sold for taxes. It was assessed at about $700,000, and the taxes amount to $70,000.

A street affray occurred in Sacramento, on the 17th ult., between Charles A. Sumner, a relative of Hon. Chas. Sumner, of Boston, and Henry Shipley, editor of the Republican and State Journal. Mr. Sumner was badly beaten.

Six hundred Chinese sailed from San Francisco, in the first week of December.

General good health prevailed throughout the State.

Business at San Francisco had been exceedingly dull, and mercantile affairs were far from encouraging. The demand for goods from the country had almost entirely ceased. Tea has declined, and domestic liquors are exceedingly depressed.

INTERESTING FROM SALT LAKE CITY.—New York, Jan. 14.—The Los Angelos Star has advices from Salt Lake City to Nov. 8. The Mormons were stationed at Echo Cannon, about fifty miles from the city, through which the troops must pass. A march of two or three days would bring the troops in front of their opponents.—The force of the Mormons has been greatly over-estimated. Almost every available man has been enrolled, and yet the whole force fell far short of ten thousand men.—The winter had set in with severity. In the city the snow was two inches deep, and in the mountains, where the Mormons were encamped, it must have been from six to twelve inches deep. The Mormon army was in a very poor condition, badly clothed, poorly armed, and with very little provision. The families are represented as being in a suffering condition, wanting in provisions and wood, the winter already commenced, and the men all called off to camp.

☞ The January Term of the Court of Common Pleas, for Strafford County, commences its session in Dover, on Tuesday next.

MARRIED.

In Gilmanton Iron Works, James R Robinson, of Clinton, Mass., to Charlotte G Parsons.
In Haverhill, A W Newcomb to Orett A Cass.

DIED.

In Boston, Jan. 12, Mrs. Susan Parker, aged 74, widow of Rev. Nathan Parker, D. D., of this city.

☞ The Funeral of Mrs. Susan Parker will be from the Stone Church this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock.

In Barrington, Mr. Asa Dyer, aged 67.
In Amesbury, Mass., Mr Charles H Caldwell, aged 22, formerly of Barrington.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomach, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy; and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the importation and patronage of ladies from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very respectfully,

DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence. We then thought, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so, with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few bottles completely removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, as well as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. HOGENBOTHAM,

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner, they are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting may be dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed, without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may confidently expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH

THE ENTIRE SEASON,

GEORGIA LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of ANDERSON & SON, are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State, to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawings. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn at Savannah, Ga., about the 15th of every month, and another is drawn at Macon, Ga., every Saturday throughout the year. If no particular class is named, orders are filled by the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $10. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. Persons wishing to act upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination number tickets to sell, which tended the community for years past. Prizes vary in amount from $40 to $60,000. A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount that each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New Orleans Delta, Savannah News, New York Dispatch, and New York Atlas. Write your address plainly, and direct to

—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS.
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the Melodeon, and producing the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the notes. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower containing an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is suitable for any church or house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, which when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In fact, we do promise our customers an Instrument equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an easier and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we have leave to refer, by permission, to the following

VOL. 11. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., SATURDAY, JAN. 16, 1858. NO. 138.

MARYLAND.—Annapolis, Jan. 13.—Gov. Hicks was inaugurated to-day, noon. His address opens with a reference to the evils of a foreign immigration and the naturalization law question, and quotes the farewell address of Gen. Washington against foreign influence. He says the people of Maryland have declared, in a way not to be misunderstood, their appreciation of these evils, and their determination to remedy them. The right to vote is conferred by the Constitution alone. Its imitations are prescribed in that organic law, and it is evident from the result of the late elections, that the people of the State think it requires further guard. He next touches upon religious interference, and alludes to the attempt to divide the public school fund among sectarian schools. He condemns the agitation of the slavery question, and disunion sentiments, and says that while Maryland will hearken to no suggestion inimical to the slaveholding States, she will listen to no suggestion inimical to the union with non-slaveholding States. He alludes to the recent election troubles, and disapproves of military interferences at the polls. He alludes to the evils of carrying deadly weapons concealed, and to the law's delay in the prosecution of criminals.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE. — Cleveland, Jan. 13.—The resolutions introduced into the Ohio Senate on Saturday, by Mr. Phelps, Democrat, were passed yesterday afternoon by a vote of 24 to 14. They express confidence in the administration of Mr. Buchanan; reaffirm the Cincinnati platform; look upon the refusal of the Lecompton Convention to submit the Constitution to the people as unwise, and unfortunate for the peace of Kansas; and instruct our Senators in Congress, and request our Representatives to vote in opposition to the Lecompton or any other Constitution which is not a clear expression of the will of the people. Resolutions similarly instructing, passed the House today by 60 to 44.

This is something like approving the U. S. Bank, and expressing confidence in General Jackson.

A LARGE CHURCH AND CHURCH EDIFICE. The largest collection of church members but one in the world is in the African church, Richmond, Va., numbering over thirty-five hundred persons; five hundred and sixty-five having been united to it in 1857. Alas! that this vast assembly in this enlightened nation is forbidden to read the Scriptures.

In Stafford county, Va., stands one of the largest churches in the country, whose courts were often trodden by Washington, a magnificent but roofless ruin.—Boston Journal.

BANK DIVIDENDS.—The several Banks in Dover have declared semi-annual dividends as follows:—

Cocheco	4 per cent.,
Dover	5 "
Langdon	4 "
Strafford	4 "

A SWORD FOR COM. PAULDING.—The New Orleans Bulletin states that a subscription has been opened in that city, for the purpose of presenting to Commodore Paulding a sword of honor, and to the officers and crew of the frigate Wabash a flag, as an evidence of their acts by those who subscribe.

CAMPHENE HOMICIDES FOR 1857.—E. Meriam, the curious man who lives at Brooklyn Heights, and keeps a record of everything that occurs, says that fifty-nine persons were killed and seventy-nine injured—six of whom were not expected to recover—by fire resulting from the use of camphene and other burning fluids of a kindred preparation, during the past year. As to the loss of property resulting from fires caused by camphene, Mr. Meriam puts the figures at $124,195, which are probably too low.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a needle dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.
PRIME COST, $1, 50 per drachm—PRICE $2 per drachm.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used, will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of undermining frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

The net receipts at the Temple on Monday Evening, paid over to Mr. Everett, were $317.25.

It is said that the Hon. Edward Everett's first public pulpit appearance was in the Old North Church in this city. In 1812, not long before the death of Rev. Dr. Buckminster, Mr. E. came to Portsmouth in company with Rev. Joseph S. Buckminster, and not far from the age of 19 preached here his first sermon. Mr. Everett succeeded Mr. Buckminster in the Brattle street church in Boston.

Hon. Parker Sheldon, who but a few years ago was one of the most prominent business men in Maine, who was several times a member of the legislature, once a member of the executive council, formerly collector of Bath, and first Mayor of the city of Gardiner, is now, in his old age and second childhood, a town pauper, and has actually been sold as such to the lowest bidder, for his support. That is the way public servants are treated at the north, if it so happens that they have no relatives nor property to take care of them when they become superannuated. Some of these respectable old paupers have been heard to wish that they belonged to somebody.—Boston Post.

True, but sad, is it not? It is a fact, as a gentleman remarked to us on reading the account of the affair, that if Mr. Sheldon had been the slave of a kind master, the necessities of helpless old age would have been handsomely provided for, without having been roughly turned over to the tender mercies of the poor house.—Portland Argus.

The above is the first information that has reached us that one of our old townsmen, who used to give us a friendly call when in former years he passed through his native place, is suffering under a visitation of Providence from which no station however exalted can feel secure.

While commiserating his situation, who can look but with contempt upon the miserable effort of the above leading democratic papers of Maine and Massachusetts, to establish on his lamentable case an argument in favor of the principles of slavery! Is it indeed preferable to be a slave through youth and middle life, that some guardian master may take care of us in his own way in old age? If this is the democratic doctrine, the sooner the editors of the Post and Argus find their masters, the better, for insanity already is marked upon them.

We ask every friend of New England institutions, to weigh well the spirit of these leading democratic papers of New England. They plainly say—Better that man should have an ownership in his fellow, that when sickness, insanity, idiocy come on, he should have a personal keeper, rather than receive the provident aid which the popular voice and laws of New England readily provide. Has the miserable subserviency to party reduced the rich boon of northern freedom to this low point? Where is now the boasted feeling of true democracy which once said—

"One day—one hour of sacred liberty
"Is worth a whole eternity of bondage"?—

It surely is not to be found in those leading party prints of New England which bow the suppliant "hinges of the knee" to southern favor.—Journal.

MESSAGE OF GOV. MORRILL OF MAINE.

The inaugural address of Gov. Morrill of Maine occupies about five columns of the Portland papers. In reviewing the financial embarrassment which has recently spread over the country, the Governor says, it is a generally conceded fact that the banks, by their alternate expansions and contractions, have contributed to the present derangement. The following is an extract from his remarks on the liquor question:

"The license system has proved wholly inadequate every where. Under it, the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors have greatly increased. Our habits of intemperance, both as to quantity and quality of liquors used, is severer than is known elsewhere. Experience proves how futile are all attempts to subject to authority, and wisely control, a practice which claims to act by permission. The utmost vigilance over licensed houses has always been in vain—all efforts to prevent abuse of authority, to no purpose.

Under the present law, the traffic in intoxicating drinks for a beverage, is becoming quite general in all the cities and towns. It is fraught with ills innumerable to the State; with beggary and crime.'

He quotes the decisions of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and those of the courts of Maine and Massachusetts, to show that the evil falls within the power of the Legislature. With the subject of slavery, the address closes.

"Slavery agitation rages not from the North but from the South. The repose of the country was not disturbed by attempts from the North to subvert slavery in the slave States or invade its rights. If there be antagonism of opinion between the free and slave States, it has been produced by no movement of the former. It has been brought about by an obvious and conceded change of sentiments and opinions, purposes and designs by the latter, by which they force themselves into collision with the well-known and long cherished sentiments and opinions of the free States, their interests and prosperity. * * * *

While the people of Maine will cultivate a spirit of kindness and forbearance towards every section of the common country, and will ever cherish sentiments of devotion to the Union, they will not fail to utter their solemn and earnest protest against the assumptions of the constitutional guaranty of property in slaves, and the indefeasible rights of slavery in the territories, and will remonstrate against the subversion of the powers of the national government to purposes of slavery extension and slavery perpetuation, and will resist to the full extent of their constitutional powers, all attempts to force the domestic institution of the slave States into contact with free labor and free communities."

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1858.

PAPER CURRENCY OF THE THREE GREAT COMMERCIAL NATIONS.—According to the statement of the Chancellor of the Exchequer in Parliament, the bank note circulation of the United Kingdom in the hands of the public stood in October, as

Issued by the Bank of England	$98,980,000
By the Provincial Banks	29,525 000
Total circulation of Great Britain	188,385 000
Same time Bank of France	121,079,000
Same time Banks of United States	148,929,000
The gross issues of the Banks of the United States on the last Treasury return were	214,778,000
Less notes on hand of the Banks	65, 849,000
Leaving in the hands of the public	148,929,000

According to our Treasury reports, the amount of gold held by this country in 1847 was 120 millions, and in 1856 250 millions, an increase in nine years of 130 millions. By the above table it appears that the amount of bank notes in actual circulation in 1857, before the panic, was about 149 millions, against which the banks held 59 millions of gold; so that the actual increase of currency by the circulation of bank notes was 90 millions, and this is the highest point the banks have ever reached by a gradual increase from the time the first bank was incorporated in this country to the present day, while gold has increased within only nine years past to the amount of 130 millions.

Now let the reader ponder these facts.—They show, not that gold is a good thing and paper a bad thing. But they do show that while bank notes have increased a little, gold has greatly increased. If, therefore, the crisis or the panic, or whatever we call it, was made by increase of currency, gold did the most of it.

The over-production of gold, then, has yet only increased the paper a little—but the aggregate of all currency has gone to help on business a little faster than the real wants and welfare of the community could possibly bear.

Too many railroads, too many ships, too many factories, too many merchants, too big houses, too high rents, too costly watches, horses, dogs, and fiddles. Too much champagne, too many cigars, too many idlers, gamblers, &c., &c. To keep up all this, too many and too large credits, bestowed on persons of all sorts.

The London Shipping and Mercantile Gazette copies and endorses the following from the New York Shipping List as a forcible statement of the true cause of the recent commercial crisis. It agrees substantially with the views which we have repeatedly advanced:

Although the immediate cause of the crisis is undoubtedly attributable to overtrading, an uncurbed spirit of extravagance, a mania for land and stock speculations, and the fatal facility given for the importation of foreign goods on credit, yet we are inclined to think that the expansion given to commerce by the discovery of gold on the shores of the Pacific in 1848, its unfailing and regular supply subsequently, the consequent appearances of a high state of prosperity, and the gradual loosening of those prudent restraints, which, in ordinary times, prevent merchants from engaging in doubtful chances of speculation, will more adequately and satisfactorily explain the origin of the revulsion than any other theory.

NAVAL.—U. S. frigate Congress arrived at Fort Mifflin, below Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening, having left the Mediterranean station on the 26th November last. She touched at no port on the cruise homeward, having passed Gibraltar on the 8th of December.

Post Captain, Samuel L. Breese; Fleet Captain, George A. Magruder: Commander, Thomas T. Craven. The crew consists of 435 men and marines.

The U. S. steamer Merrimack, Commander Hitchcock, from Boston, Oct. 17, arrived at Rio Janeiro, Nov. 30.

Sloop-of-war Marion, Com'r Brent, is fitting out at Norfolk for the Brazil squadron.

CONGRESS.—In the United States Senate on Thursday, Mr. Houston gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the admission of Kansas as a State.

The Nicaragua question was debated in the House. Mr. Leiter sent up an amendment, the reading of which occasioned much laughter, proposing that an inquiry be made to determine whether General Walker was induced to enter upon a fillibuster expedition by the Ostend manifesto and the letter of the Secretary of State, produced at fillibustering meetings held in New York and elsewhere.

Miss Maria Mitchell, of Nantucket, Ms., who received a gold medal from the King of Denmark, for her discovery of a new comet, was spending a few weeks with Professor Whewell at the last dates from England. She had been on a visit to the family of Sir William Herschell.

BAD LAWYERS, AND CLUMSY DECISIONS.—The Boston Courier, speaking of the Dred Scott case, and criticising the Westminster Review, says:—

The case, as reported, is very difficult to understand; that is, it is very difficult to understand, after reading the opinions of the several Judges, what is exactly the opinion of the Court.

Then no great importance is to be attached to it.—The Court have wallowed in the mire of slavery, and bedaubed themselves to no purpose. Again:—

There is very considerable diversity in the views of the seven judges who make up the majority of the Court; and where they arrive at the same point, it is often by different paths. Then again, all the vital and exciting issues in the case depend upon a very nice and a very difficult point of special pleading; or rather of special pleading and practice combined; a point which we cannot attempt to explain to our readers, because no one but a lawyer could understand the very language we must make use of in order to state the case. After most patient and conscientious study of the several judgments delivered by the Judges, we have never found it more difficult to distinguish the points distinctly decided by the Court from those supported purely by the learning and force of reasoning of the several Judges themselves. * * *

If the judgment of the Court be coincident with the opinion of the Chief Justice, then it is true that the Court decide that a negro is not a citizen of the United States in the sense in which those words are used in the Constitution. But it is no less singular than true, after all the heat that has been evolved upon this particular point, that a majority of the Court do not thus decide;—we have three Judges one way, two another, and four who have not expressed their opinion. * * *

The exercise of the power of Congress over the Territories, the subject of slavery included, will be regulated by the views on the majority for the time being, the decision on the Dred Scott case to the contrary notwithstanding.

☞ Forney's Press is jubilant over the now certain triumph of Douglas, Walker and Wise, over the Buchanan wing of the democratic party on the Kansas question. Alluding to Gov. Wise's letter to the Tammany Hall Committee, it says:—

"Let those who still falter and palter take a lesson from the gallant Virginian, Henry. A. Wise. Let them read his clear, cogent, and thrilling denunciation of the great Kansas cheat; and if they do not tear the padlocks from their mouths, and dash the fetters from their wrists, they are fit to live under a despot who rules with the minority of one, and tramples millions under foot only because they will not strike for themselves."

☞ On the 13th of January, at Augusta, Maine, the two branches of the Legislature met in Convention and re-elected Benjamin D. Peck, Treasurer, and Noah Barker, Land Agent. The opposition voted for Isaac Reed for Treasurer, and for James Walker, Land Agent. The average vote was 133 against 29. The accounts of the Treasurer and Land Agent were rigidly examined by the Legislative Committee and found to be correct in every respect.

RUMORS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post announces the organization of the Central American Emigration Company. A New York capitalist has been chosen President. He also states that the Lecompton Democrats will oppose the admission of Minnesota, on the ground that the ennabling act limited the delegates to the constitutional convention to 108. This is to keep out the Douglas Congressmen. The same correspondent asserts that the President has issued orders to force through the Lecompton Constitution at all hazards and at whatever cost.

SINGULAR.—Within the last six weeks, says the Bristol (R. I.) Phenix, several persons, some of whom are among our acquaintance, have, without any known cause, lost all the hair from the head and body. Within two weeks from the time the hair commenced coming out, not a spear was left. The eyebrows and eyelashes also dropped out. Neither of the persons had suffered from recent sickness, nor had used hair-dyes, nor taken any medicines. They had applied to several eminent physicians but can learn no cause for the singular circumstance.

☞ A few days since, an Irishman, in Concord, N. H., was told by his employer to cut up a sled, which had been frozen into the ice. Pat took his axe, and did as he was ordered, cutting up the sled completely, which was nearly new, and had been in use but a short time. The owner of course complained of Pat as a fool, but if he only wanted him to cut around the sled, in order to take it out of the ice, why didn't he tell him so.

☞ The English Society for the Propagating of the Gospel, propose to erect churches in India that shall be memorials of the massacres at Delhi and Cawnpore.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republicans of New Hampshire, assembled in State Convention, exchange congratulations and renew their views of fidelity to the principles on which their organization is founded.

Profoundly impressed with the alarming condition of affairs in one of the Territories, and the imminent danger of extended civil war, we yet find no occasion to promulgate new opinions, or to modify the articles of our political faith.

Having established a platform, based upon the inalienable right of all men to life, liberty and happiness, we know no other remedy for the evils and dangers of the country, than the recognition of our principles by the people, and the practical application of them to the administration of public affairs.

For several years past New Hampshire has uttered no voice, either in the councils of the State or of the Nation, not in accordance with the high behests of Republican liberty. In present difficulty, and in future trial, we pledge her adherence to the sacred teachings of the fathers, and her abiding support of the men and the measures identified with the prosperity of the people, and the perpetuity of our free institutions.

On entering upon the canvass for the approaching election, the peculiar and perilous condition of the country renders proper the following Declaration of Sentiments.

1 Resolved, That we re-affirm our belief, that Congress have ever had power, and it has ever been their duty, to prohibit slavery in all parts of the country, outside of the States; that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was an act of bad faith on the part of the Slave Power, and a criminal departure from the policy of restriction, established by our fathers, and sanctioned by all previous administrations.

2 Resolved, That while the sovereignty of the people of the States is a sound and fundamental principle, as ancient as the Constitution, Squatter Sovereignty, as illustrated by the democracy, is a sham and a deception, serviceable only in the attempt to rivet the fetters of slavery upon a free people—and that if Kansas becomes a Free State, it will be so IN SPITE of the present and the last National Administration.

3 Resolved, That the imposition of an obnoxious Constitution and unjust laws upon an unwilling people, whether such imposition be attempted by a Russian Czar, or an Austrian Despot, or an American President, is TYRANNY!

4 Resolved, That the Republicans regard with alarm the opinions advanced by the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott Decision, and that they will forever resist the pernicious idea therein maintained, that the Constitution of the United States protects slavery in the Free States and in the Territories of the Republic.

5 Resolved, That in the present administration we discover the paramount influence of an Oligarchy, who are wielding the power of the General Government to further their unhallowed scheme for a dissolution of this Union, and the establishment of a Southern Slaveholding Empire.

6 Resolved, That so long as armed hordes of reckless men leave our ports in open day, and are permitted to pollute the soil of a people with whom we are at peace, we can have but little respect for the pretended efforts to maintain our neutrality laws, nor cease to remember that one of the signers of the Ostend Manifesto is President of the United States.

7 Resolved, That while the United States troops were employed in the subjugation of Kansas, the golden opportunity for extinguishing the rebellion in Utah was lost, and now, while Brigham Young and his Mormon disciples are defying the Federal Government, our soldiers are hybernating in the snows and fastnesses of the Wasatch Mountains, and a Democratic Congress is issuing $20,000,000 in treasury notes to pay the expenses.

8 Resolved, That while we are ready to defend, on all proper occasions, the measures of the government of this State, since it has been under the control of the party now in power, and challenge the severest scrutiny of our enemies, we yet refuse to be drawn away from the great national question, whose merits are more than all else at issue in the canvass which we this day inaugurate.

9 Resolved, That in again presenting to the voters of this State the name of our present able and honest Governor, WILLIAM HALE, as a candidate for re-election, we confide in their discrimination, to choose between one who has served them faithfully, efficiently and honestly, and one who sustains all the humiliation connected with regular membership of the democratic party, and approval of their measures.

Unanimously adopted.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

UNION CHURCH, PORTLAND.—Messrs. Editors.—In the Union Congregational Church of Portland, Rev. Henry D. Moore Pastor, at a second sale of Pews, which took place towards the close of the last year, over eight thousand dollars' worth of pews were sold in a single evening.

On Wednesday evening, the 13th inst., at the annual renting of pews remaining unsold, every pew and sitting was rented at an advanced taxation, leaving large numbers of applicants unsupplied.

In addition to the pew accommodations, the parish has furnished a large number of aisle-sittings, which are brought into requisition every Sabbath.

This outward and unexampled temporal prosperity is, and has been from the beginning of this Church, accompanied by spiritual growth, and strong, working increase. During the last year, eighty persons were received into its communion.

The Sabbath School is increased by additions every Sabbath, and the large vestry, capable of seating between four hundred and five hundred persons, has become too small for the school, and the large infant-class has been removed to the committee room.

This large vestry is filled with worshippers on the ordinary weekly prayer meeting occasion.

On no occasion have extra meetings been held. The spiritual growth of the church has been steady, gentle, and substantial. The pastor and all the people labor in love together as one man, and they have the confidence and love of all the churches, and the entire community.

Yours, PORTLAND.

A CARD.

The Ladies' General Charitable Society has just received the sum of twenty-five dollars from the avails of the Ladies' Fair recently held in this city. This was certainly honorable on the part of the conductors of the Fair, whose whole profits amounted to only fifty dollars. It is also a very timely contribution, as the calls upon our charity are exceedingly numerous and pressing.

MRS. ELIZABETH C. HAVEN,
Portsmouth, Jan. 14, '58. Secretary.

THE FIREMEN.—Messrs. Editors.—I am glad that something is said and done in regard to our fire department. I have in some way been connected with this department for the last thirty years, and have often thought that it has not been appreciated as it should have been. It has been provided with good apparatus, but the engine houses have been very much neglected till of late.—I never have complained of the small pay the members have received, for I think the city is paying as much as it can afford; but every one must see that the pay is not all the firemen work for. It is true they are not called out to fires very often; but they have to meet often to try their tubs, and have some other labor to perform, so as to be in readiness when the alarm of fire is given: then they run to the fire, when they get there they work hard and expose themselves to fire and water, and sometimes endanger their lives. As a fair is to be had for the purpose of raising a Firemen's Fund to assist any one who may get disabled at a fire, I hope our citizens will contribute something for this object, either by attending the fair, or by sending in something to sell from the tables. AN OLD FIREMAN.

☞ We understand that the Promenade Concert at Exeter, on Thursday evening, by the Exeter and Portsmouth Bands, was well attended and successful every way.—Our Band was escorted to the depot in Exeter, by the Exeter Band—and played beautifully in our streets, on arrival here.

THE SHIPWRECK ON PLUM ISLAND.—We learn from our correspondent at Newburyport that the keeper of the Plum Island Light House did not know of the wreck of the schooner Sunbeam, which occurred early on Friday morning within a rifle shot of his house, until Saturday, when he read it in the Newburyport Herald! The keeper of this light has charge of the signals and life saving apparatus of the Humane Society, and is expected to exercise some degree of vigilance in looking out for wrecks. For a long series of years, while Mr. George was keeper, there had been no wreck on Plum Island or Salisbury, the occurrence of which was not immediately communicated to the inhabitants of Newburyport. Mr. George was constantly on the lookout, and the moment a wreck occurred signal guns were fired and signal flags were hoisted. If the sea was so that a boat could live he was the first to board the wreck, and in numerous instances, life has been preserved which, without his prompt assistance, would have been lost. The removal of Mr. George was made against the protest of the pilots of Newburyport, and the indifference of the present keeper to the preservation of human life is not likely to make the change any more popular. It is probable that if the wreck of the schooner Sunbeam had been known by sunrise, the life of Capt. Toggerson would have been saved.—Boston Journal.

☞ In Boston, about 11 o'clock Thursday night, a man named Bryan Kelly, who with a friend had just come out of a cellar at the corner of Broad and Purchase sts., met on the sidewalk Michael J. Doyle, who was brandishing the sword of a sword-cane as he passed along. Kelly asked Doyle what the matter was, whereupon Doyle turned upon Kelly and inflicted a stab in his thigh with the sword, and then gave him a heavy blow with his fist under one of his eyes. Both parties were conveyed to the Second Station House, where the wounds of the injured man, not serious, were dressed. Doyle is an inspector of Russia iron, and was intoxicated when the occurrence took place.

A FEMALE HORSE THIEF.—A woman in man's attire committed suicide by poisoning herself at McKay's Hotel, St. Mary's, Canada, on Tuesday evening. She had been arrested for horse-stealing, and was seen to put a handkerchief to her face, it was thought to hide her emotion, but really for the purpose of swallowing a portion of strychnine and chloroform which she had prepared. She was instantly seized with spasms and soon expired. Her name was Margaret Cook, and she is said to have been respectably connected in the town of Woodstock, Canada.—Portland Advertiser.

AN ELECTION INCIDENT.—It is related that at the recent election in Worcester, a candidate for alderman went up to vote very near the close of the polls, and taking a ticket scratched his name off. His rival for the office asked him why he did this, saying he himself put his own name in the ballot-box. So he scratched his own name on again. Soon after he was found to be elected by one vote, and that his own vote, cast at the solicitation of his rival.—Portland Advertiser.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 14.—The screw steamship North American, Capt., Grange, from Liverpool 30th, December, with 73 passengers arrived here this evening.

London Dec. 30.—The Times says:—The funds open steadily, and showed a tendency to increased firmness during the whole day, until after regular hours, when a sudden decline took place, attributed to operations in connection with failures.

Liverpool Cotton Market.—A slight advance has been experienced on all qualities, but the lower grades have improved most, say 1-8d. per lb., the market closing firm.

Richardson, Spence & Co. report: Flour very dull at a decline of 6d a 1s.

A letter from Capt. Castle, commander of the "Sarah Sands," is published, describing the partial destruction of that ship, and the escape of the troops and crew. The fire was discovered at 3.45 P. M., and the flames burnt through the upper deck; about 9 P. M., a fearful explosion took place in the port magazine.—By this time, says Capt. C., the ship was a body of flame form the stern to the main rigging, and thinking it scarcely possible to save her, called Major Brett, in command of the troops, forward, and told him my opinion, and requesting him to endeavor to keep order among the troops till the last, but at the same time to use every exersion to check the flames.—No person can describe the manner in which the men kept the fire back; one party were below, keeping the bulkheads cool, several of whom were dragged up senseless, and fresh volunteers took their places, but were soon in the same state.

At 11 P. M., the main topsail yard took fire. Quarter master Welch, and four or five soldiers, went aft with wet blankets, and succeeded in extinguishing it. About midnight we appeared to have made some impression on the fire, and after that drove it back inch by inch until daylight, when it had been completely subdued. The ship now appeared in a fearful plight, merely the shell remaining, the port quarter blown out by the explosion, 15 feet of water in the hold, and the ship rolling heavily and taking in large quantities water aft.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Dispatches to the Government this evening announce that the professional fillibusters of Texas are gathering in large numbers on the Rio Grande, preparatory to engaging in the Mexican revolution. Gen. Walker may turn his attention that way, as he has abandoned his Nicaragua enterprise.

(Times correspondence.)—The law expires to-morrow under which the President is authorized to restore to the active list the Navy officers retired by the late Navy Board. In order to prevent the nominations pending from falling by tne expiration of this law, the Senate to-day took them all out of the hands of the Naval Committee, and confirmed the whole and then entered motions for reconsideration, so that hereafter nominations, if deemed necessary, may be taken up and rejected. The general disposition of the Senate as exhibited to-day was clearly in favor of sustaining the nominations.

Mr. Wier, the United States Attorney for Kansas, arrived to-day. It is understood that he has brought the Lecompton Constitution. He proceeded directly to the President, who has been engaged all day professedly on urgent business.

The Kansas bill, of which Senator Houston gave notice to-day, proposes to submit both the Topeka and the Lecompton Constitutions to the popular vote, either for or against the admission of Kansas with either if accepted, If neither is accepted the bill authorizes a new Convention. The General says that his purpose is to secure the fullest exercise of popular sovereignty.

☞ Frederick Douglas's paper reports the arrival, at Rochester, New York, within sixty days past, of forty fugitives from slavery, who have been cared for during their halt and sent forward to the Queen's dominions.

DECREASE OF TRAVEL.—The New York papers state that the guests—transient and otherwise—stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel for the month of October, 1856, were 33,000, and for the corresponding period of 1857 the number was 24,000.

John H. White, while at work in a sash and blind factory at Bloomfield, Me., on Tuesday, was killed by being caught by his clothing in the machinery. He was 45 years of age, and leaves a family to mourn his loss.—Portland Adv.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER
So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache See circular and the following:

DOVER, N. H., Feb 2, 1857.
Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Enclosed find one dollar, for which send us one more bottle. Hair Restorative is here sold among our customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.
Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; your very reply,
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and the result was so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.
Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative. We did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,
CHARLES W. BOWMAN,
SARAH A. HOGSHENSHILK.
GARDNER, MO., June 22, 1855.
Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy, my hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.
Yours Respectfully,
O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.
WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give
Any amount of Heat required,
and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and so none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, being obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.
These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.
For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.
The inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,
THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,
without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received in time for the drawing of next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that one can tell to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers
☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Persons address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia
Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.
All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which E. FRANEX & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who live at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland consolidated lotteries, as legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100 000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.
☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.
The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.
By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which for merly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.
THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house that is fearfully built from 1000 to 1500.
THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of keys, and when used together by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.
Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings
511 Washington Street,
We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skilful workmen. In short, we will promise our customer an Instrument, which if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.
Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.
As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we have leave to refer, by permission, to the following

T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. P. Emerson,

George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.
MELODEONS RENTED.
Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instrument's merits, to obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.
Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

TO THE LADIES.
WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, purity and virtue are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MALE, WOMAN OR WIDOW, that SHERMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are ALONE the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization, such as suppressed or painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing healthy and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married ones, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operation, and unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN that the said PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS;—and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered sun and moon; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

☞ The Portland, Me., Democrat accuses the "Douglas Press" of taking ground against the policy of the Administration in relation to Kansas.

But the Bath Organ says:—

It is not so. From March till November the administration stood just where Mr. Douglas stands now—took it for granted the Constitution of Lecompton was to be submitted to the people. The administration has changed its policy—not its principles,—and it is disingenuous to deny it. And must a free democratic press change its tone at the dictum of the administration? Have we no more freedom here than in France? Out upon such nonsense.

The same Bath Organ "pitches in" to Judge Clifford's appointment, and says:—

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Nathan Clifford to the Supreme Bench on the 12th, by a vote of 26 against 23.—There were 13 Senators absent. We sincerely regret Mr. C.'s appointment, and are sure that the Democrats of Maine will accept it as no compliment. In justice to our friends we will say that we have on hand a mass of facts and history in relation to this man, furnished by some of the most distinguished, honorable and high-minded democrats in the state, which will forever preclude us from regarding the appointment in any other light than as an indignity offered to the honest democracy of Maine, from which they were entitled to be protected. We have reason to believe that the voluminous puffings, the ocean of whitewash and the newspaper glorifications which have been expended upon this man, have been procured, in many instances, by means the most discreditable to the parties concerned; that newspapers have praised while the ostensible writers have disapproved of him, and that some of the most offensive republican fountains have been pumped dry—doubtless at large expense—to furnish the means of washing and purifying him for the occasion. Such a compliment as the vote on his confirmation is the most scathing rebuke ever administered under our form of government, to a candidate for such an office.

CENTRAL AMERICA TO BE COLONIZED.—The New York Evening Post says Mr. Eli Thayer has already commenced the organization of a company, which is expected to send emigrants to Central America within the year, to found two substantial sea-ports at either extremity of the Nicaraguan route, and to put them into profitable relations with the agricultural interests of the interior. Such a scheme would probably be successful and profitable. It is the same that Col. Kinney had, when he called in the aid of Walker, who by attempting conquest defeated the whole plan. Col. Kinney was adapted to such a settlement, having seen much of frontier life in the Western States and in Texas. The whites of Nicaragua are desirous of such emigration, for they fear that the native and mixed races are incapable of speedy civilization, and even the priests extended a welcome hand to Kinney.

We are glad that Eli Thayer has taken hold of the matter. He has the idea in him—it was conceived in his own brain, and he has the character and the public confidence that will sustain him. His movement will banish slavery, to which all the present population are opposed, and if Nicaragua is ever admitted to the Union, secure it to us as Free States. Mr. Thayer has met the southerners in Kansas and beaten them; with that success fresh upon him he can meet them in Central America and beat them again. Give him a half million dollars to begin with, and he can land a hundred thousand men from the Free States and Europe in Central America, while the South are forwarding ten thousand. His men will be welcomed by the native population, and theirs feared and rejected. His will go with the implements of industry, the arts of civilization, and the precepts of religion; theirs would go with guns and swords, for rapine and murder, in violation of liberty and all human rights. By commerce he could build up great cities full of wealth and enterprise, while they would destroy the cities now there and turn the country to poorly cultivated plantations that would hardly support lazy negroes and lousy masters.

REBUKE.—The Boston Courier says:—

The sluggishness of the New York officials in administering justice has just received a scathing rebuke. One Michael Wogan, Jr., a laboring man, and not one of the most reputable characters, was some months ago tried and convicted on a charge of arson. It was strongly suspected that he had been concerned in a number of incendiary attempts, but notwithstanding these suspicons and the fact of his conviction, the City Judge, as he is by law empowered to do, suspended the sentence in conformance with a petition in his favor, signed by a number of prominent politicians. Wogan was released, and about thirty days after, attention was again called to him by his alleged connection with another incendiary fire. Shortly after this he was indicted for an assault with intent to kill; and more recently he was arrested on a charge of murder, of which he is pronounced guilty by the Coroner's Jury. In view of these circumstances, and the extraordinary lenity shown towards the criminal by Judge Russell, the Coroner's Jury in their verdict say they consider the action of the magistrate "in suspending sentence on the said Wogan, but a short time since convicted of a high crime, extremely censurable, and that, had he performed his duty, he would have saved the life of an innocent victim."

GAS HEALTHY.—The Medical Gazette, of Lisbon, asserts that all the persons of that city, who reside in houses lighted by gas, have escaped the yellow fever.

American and Foreign Patents
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted by the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of an ivory stilt dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate it purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unseasonal frosts and debilitating heats. MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1858.

FRANKLIN.

BY THEODORE PARKER.

Early in the last century there lived in Boston a strong, sturdy man, born in England, by name Josiah Franklin. He was poor, a tallow chandler by trade, a strong Calvinist in religion, of excellent common sense which he was much in the habit of showing in his conversation, possessing some good books that were much read, and getting an honest living by his labor, and supporting a large family, seconded by a good and frugal housewife of the old English stamp. Of these parents was born, January 17, A. D. 1706, Benjamin Franklin, the tenth son, and fifteenth child, though two more were added to the family afterward, bringing the whole family up to the good old-fashioned number of seventeen children.

It was Sabbath day when he was born, and according to the custom of those days with the pious puritans, he was taken immediately to the minister's and baptized, as the general impression at that time among Christian people was that the devil lurked about the cradle of the new born babies, and stole away their souls, unless they were baptized, which ceremony saved them from his clutches. Behold then the old aunts and venerable spinsters of the neighborhood witnessing the sacred performance, and wondering meanwhile what Mr. Franklin could do with so large a family, and what the infant boy would come to.

Well, the end has come, and we see the result. That baby boy became in his day the greatest man that ever saw the light on this side of the ocean, and for the four generations since his birth no one has ever approximated to him in those mighty qualities he manifested. Washington is the only man that disputes the palm with him, but Washington is misunderstood by many. His great and crowning virtue was integrity. But his name has become recently the common catchword of politicians when they wish to get up a hurrah, and cover some of their infamous designs. I almost always distrust a politician's sincerity, when I hear him calling on the name of Washington, so much is his sacred name abused by that class of persons.

But Washington, calm in the integrity of his nature, and every nerve bursting with philantrophic patriotism, armed with the vigor of his great understanding, was just the man for the camp, and really merits the veneration of his countrymen. Still in those great departments of knowledge, most important to be understood by men, he was to a great degree the inferior of Franklin. Of this great mind, then, to whose greatness the united assent of all nations has readily been given, the following sketch may suffice as a map of the time in which he lived, and a chart of the leading events of his life.

Born in Boston, January 17th, 1706. At the age of eight years was a member of a public school one year, then one year in the Latin school. At ten leaves school and is taken into the shop of his father to make the acquaintance of dips and moulds. At twelve is apprenticed to his brother James as printer—quarrels with James at seventeen and runs away, to New York and then to Philadelphia, which city he reaches in 1723. At nineteen, deceived by the contemptible governor of Pennsylvania, he visits England in 1724, returns in 1726—married in 1730, and was a husband forty-four years—leaving one legitimate daughter and one illegitimate son—both of whom had families when he died. In 1753, was Postmaster of Philadelphia. In July, 1757, went to England again, returned in November, 1759. Went to England again in 1765 as agent for Pennsylvania, and returned in 1775. Went to France as minister for the United Colonies in 1776—returned in 1785 to Philadelphia, and never left again.

He was governor of Pennsylvania from 1785 to 1788, was a member of the Continental Congress that made the Declaration of Independence, and a member of the Committee who drew up that instrument, and again of the convention that formed our Constitution, which instrument he opposed, but finally put his hand to it as the the best that could be got under the circumstances.—Lastly, he was President of the first abolition society ever formed, and the last line his pen ever wrote was a parody, of a southern statesman's argument in favor of slavery. He died, April 17th, 1790, aged 84 years, having passed 52 in public life. These 84 years stretch almost across the whole 18th century. He was the first twenty years of his life the contemporary of Newton, and the last twenty the contemporary of Humboldt, who now lives. His life naturally divides itself into six different scenes.

Scene 1st. A stout, hardy boy of twelve years is seen hawking about the streets of Boston two ballads written by himself. These ballads have disappeared, but Franklin speaks of them as nonsensical. Be that as it may, could one be found it would be invaluable. These 12 years of boyhood have not been without interest. He has been in school two years.—He has learned to read, and has devoured all the books in his father's library, such as Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, the Bible, Essays to do Good, and sundry other solid books. He has been one of the "boys," doing his share of mischief for the sake of fun, and helping other boys to do the same. He has quit school, worked with his father, and taken to writing ballads. He is a keen boy, able at repartee, ready to stand up in his own defence, and fearing no man very much. Such was the boy Franklin.

Scene 2d. He is in Philadelphia in 1727, editor and publisher of the Pennsylvania Gazette. Since the last scene much has transpired. He has been apprentice to James Franklin, who was subject to quarrels with the government, whom he had a right to fight, and in which contest he was in the right; and also with his own family, whom he had no right to quarrel with and where he is in the wrong, and Benjamin absconded. He reaches Philadelphia, and takes his first meal of a drink of Delaware river water, and a penny worth of bread, having given twopence to a poor woman. Thus was taken his first meal, and here was his first charity in the city of his adoption. He has been in England and returned. He has also showed his moral weakness by having been in low company, not of men merely, but of silly women, but which latter fault he has corrected, yet not without being stained somewhat. He has struggled against poverty, worked hard, doing his most menial work with his own hands, and now is editor and politician, and fast making his way among men, and beginning to see prosperity dawn upon his efforts.

Scene 3d. Forty-six years old, A. D., 1752. The printer goes out one day in the field, just as a thunder-storm was rising, with a kite having a long sharp point of steel projecting from the upper end, and connected by a hempen cord to a key near the lower end, and held below the key by a silken string by the hand, and after raising the kite, on applying the knuckle to the key a spark of electricity is obtained. This problem is solved—lightning and electricity are the same thing. The discovery which had so far baffled all the efforts of the philosophers of every age, is thus effected by the printer-philosopher in the simplest manner. Since the last scene he has not been idle. He has married the girl he thoughtlessly missed, has been prominent in Philadelphia, has made his mark as a politician, has studied the Latin, French, Italian and German languages, all of which he will soon need to read the praises that each nation will soon be ringing in his ears. He has now passed from his boyhood—from peddling "verses"—he has been frowned upon by the snobbish aristocracy of Boston and their coadjutors of Philadelphia—has been deliberately insulted by the Governor of Pennsylvania—has been on the side of the people in the contests of politics, and has been justice of the peace, when that office meant something, and now suddenly the world is in a blaze with his renown. The printer-philosopher is soon honored with a degree from Yale College, which is followed by one from Harvard, and others from England, France and Germany, and the printer is thus suddenly transformed into Dr. Franklin, by which title he is to be known hereafter.

Scene 4th. He is before a committee of the House of Lords in 1776, and interrogated on the condition and state of feeling in the colonies, respecting the stamp act. He is dressed in an embroidered coat of Manchester velvet. The committee consisted of thirty-five of the House of Lords, and was addressed by Mr. Wedderburne against Dr. Franklin, in a speech fraught with all the maliginity that pure disholism can furnish. Franklin stands by the mantle-piece with immovable features, and after the harangue laid aside the robe of Manchester velvet for a time, and did not put it on again till an opportunity came, to which we shall refer.—Since the last scene much has occurred. The French and Indian war has been enacted. Franklin and a young Virginian buckskin have furnished the brains to Braddock in his campaign, which, however, did not prevent his disastrous defeat. Franklin has organized the city of Philadelphia against the pirates of the Delaware—has been postmaster of Philadelphia—has published Poor Richard's Almanac, and instructed multitudes—has been colonel of a regiment, and has been famous for years all over the world as the lightning-tamer—has invented the lightning rod, bringing safety to every dwelling that wishes it, and is now agent for Pennsylvania and the other colonies in England, and is opening the eyes of that government to the true state of public feeling in America. He now feels the cutting sarcasm of paid Mr. Wedderburne, but no word escapes him—he bides his time.

Scene 5th.—In a hall in the city of Philadelphia in A. D. 1776, are assembled a convention of delegates from the different colonies. War rages in the land, and the outraged people, goaded to the last resort by the manifold abuses of the English government, have arisen and struck for liberty. Lexington, Concord and Bunker Hill have been reddened with human blood. Still the country stands to its determination. Washington has driven the British from Boston. The Congress are deliberating on making a Declaration of Independence. On the Committee for drafting the declaration are Franklin, Jefferson, Sherman and John Adams. Behind these however, stands Samuel Adams, whom history has not yet done justice to, as noiseless as the Holy Ghost, and like that influence everywhere felt, infusing life into all their movements. Virginia furnished the pen of Jefferson to draft the declaration, but old Massachusetts—for Franklin, Adams and Sherman were her sons by birth—furnished the matter for the document. It was Massachusetts that put into that declaration that "all men were created equal, and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, such as life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." The declaration was made; the first announcement to the world of a government based upon the rights of all men, for the first time thrown into the teeth of tyrants, and America—the infant Hercules, as Franklin was wont to call his country, commenced struggling with the serpents that beset her. Franklin was the master spirit of the whole, as the Union now consummated was what he had proposed twenty years before, during the old French war, to the British government, for the strengthening of the colonies, but which England's far sighted statesmen frowed upon as a hazardous measure. He was also hated by the English and the American tories for having ferretted out and sent home a secret correspondence of the Governor of Massachusetts to England, showing how America might be taxed indirectly and without her knowledge, till the coils should be so firmly wound around her that she could not break them. He also remembered the insults of the Lords, cheering Wedderburne when insulting him. Now the die is cast. America must strangle the serpents or fall. Franklin goes to France, and in December 1777 he hears of the capture of Burgoyne, and remarked that the infant Hercules had strangled one serpent. France now made a treaty with America through Franklin's efforts, and enabled us to gain our independence, and without it we should have failed. No other man could have done with the European diplomatists what Franklin did. His fame as a philosopher had preceded him, and his correct knowledge of men was also of infinite importance in his correspondence with the Foreign Courts. He remained in Europe till 1785; and on hearing of the capture of Cornwallis in 1781 he quietly remarked that the infant Hercules had strangled the second snake, and England would now give up the task of subjugation. He was appointed with Laurens to negotiate peace, and on that occasion took out the identical coat of Manchester velvet that he had kept since his appearing before the Lords in 1766, and put it on for the last time.

Scene 6th. Franklin, now an old man, is making ready to die. He calmly reviews the past—a poor boy—a runaway—a printer—a philosopher—an inventor—a statesman of the highest rank—he now casts about him for the last acts of kindness before the angel unbinds his spirit.—He has since the last scene returned from Europe after visiting several kingdoms and making treaties with them, and one with Prussia, in which he embodied principles of justice between nations that the world's diplomatists or governments have not come up to—regarding prisoners of war, privateering, and private property. He has been three years governor of Pennsylvania, and has assisted in making the Federal Constitution. In looking around for an object of benevolent action, he finds six hundred thousand bondmen in the United States, and accordingly he as president of the first Abolition society ever organized, memorialized Congress to "step to the very verge of the power vested in them to liberate those unhappy men, who for no fault of their own are still deprived of their freedom." This petition raised a Southern storm which then was feared, people not having then observed that storms from the South were violent but short. Having done this he calmly lays himself down and sleeps in a quiet burying place in Philadelphia, which a true American as he passes by reverently recognizes as the spot where a great presence reposes.

As to Franklin's character, we can truly say that he lacked imagination! He never could have made a good poet. His understanding and reason were immense! consequently he easily mastered principles in society or mechanics, and stood forth an organizer of men and forces. His talents were of a practical cast, as is evinced in his discoveries and teachings. He organized the first fire company; put down the first sidewalk, and flag stones for street crossings; taught city authorities to sweep streets in dry weather; cured smoky chimneys; invented a new Alphabet on the Phonetic plan! invented lightning rods; wrote pithy sayings for poor men; spoke little in public, never exceeding ten minutes at a time,—then usually it was a story or parable, and in all things, the least as well as greatest, showed the profundity of his understanding, as the Creator does in the management of the universe.

Other men have excelled him in some things,—in learning, in mathematics: but none in the real Saxon peculiarities of his mind, tho' in these he was like Bacon and Locke. He was not perfect; he had his foibles, some large, some small. He has been called low by snobs, and irreligious by bigots. As to the first, it comes from men whose patent to manhood lies in the clothes they wear, rather than brains. As to the last, if religion consists, as we have high authority in saying, "in doing good, loving mercy and walking humbly before God," we know of no bishop, priest or religious zealot of the last or present century who can compare with him. In his autobiography, he candidly confesses his foibles, as a warning to young men. He was social and affectionate in disposition; his moral sense did not develop so early as his reason. This is often the case; but his vices were not of the order that leads to sensuality and crime; they were of the more excusable kind, though the moral influence over him was bad. But in the magnitude of his noble deeds he merits the eulogy of Mirabeau to the fullest extent. He had his enemies; but in his writings he leaves no hard words for any of them. He was not vain, and his philanthropy was world-wide. The veneration of his countrymen is shown in the fact that over 130 towns or post-offices are named after him—in a word, he is an established institution.

☞ The Printers of Manchester, with their accustomed enterprise and public spirit, are to "celebrate the Anniversary of the Birth of Franklin, by a grand Levee and supper," to-night. We acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation—which we regret we cannot avail ourselves of. Probably they will serve up better fare than Franklin's "saw-dust pudding."

☞ We begin to get a string of illegal votes from Kansas, given Jan. 4.

At Oxford, they put their faith in U. S. Marshal Dennis and the troops, and the result is that over 1500 Missourians voted at that place.

The New York Herald contains a letter from Senator Brown of Miss., denying that he has abandoned the Lecompton Constitution, and saying that he has not the shadow of a doubt that Kansas will be admitted under it, without the slightest regard to the vote of the 4th.

☞ The answer to the enigma published in the Chronicle a few days ago, may be found in the following lines:

The Bee employs the sunny hours
Sipping honey from the flowers
But, at evening time, you see,
Ladies sip their cup of Tea.
The letter A is first of all,
When at School, we learn to call.
And with the gloomy shades of night,
The little bat begins his flight. VIR.

☞ Harper's Magazine, for February, is received in this city, at J. H. Foster's. A. Williams & Co., Boston, are always prompt in their supplies.

FIFTY YEARS IN CHAINS.—This is the title of one of the simplest, yet most intensely interesting, autobiographics of the day. It is the plain, homely history of an American slave in the far South, who, after two or three escapes and recaptures, finally, an old man, found freedom and rest in one of the Northern States. The story is told with great simplicity, but with much power and pathos. Leave the reader to reason, to moralize—let the writer, the sufferer, tell his story! As a very interesting piece of self-history, this work has high merit, and, as a picture of American Slavery, higher still.

The book is a volume of 430 pages, published by H. Dayton, 29 Ann street, New York,—and is sold by A. Williams & Co., Boston, and J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

☞ In England, every Printing-office was formerly called a Chapel—and all the printers were Members of the Chapel, the oldest foreman being Father. Probably "this style was origially conferred upon it by the courtesy of some great churchman, who for the books of divinity that proceeded from printing offices, gave them the name of Chapels — doubtless when Chapels were more in veneration than of late years they have been.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while has, if not far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

LOCAL.

☞ Yesterday, Sunday, January 17th, was the Anniversary of the Birthday of "Benjamin Franklin, Printer;" and as in commemoration of that event, we shall "keep holiday" to-day—no Daily Chronicle will be issued on Tuesday morning.

It is a general complaint—and is generally true, too, that we Americans, especially we Yankees, don't have half enough days of recreation or relaxation. And to us it is a cheering sign, to see improvement in this direction—witness the increasing ease with which special gala days are taken, and the shorter hours of shop-keeping, all over the country.

Mr. Everett recommended in his address, that Washington's Birthday be "celebrated nationally," to which proposition we gladly accede; and the natal day of Franklin is at least equally worthy of commemoration,—as the day which gave to the nation and the world, a statesman, philosopher and sage, the like of whom perhaps has never been seen.

Especially should Printers keep fresh the memory of Franklin—who, when laden with fame and honors, was yet proud to write himself "Benjamin Franklin, Printer." This day ought to be a universal holiday with the craft, and the nation—and for ourselves, we shall do what we can to render it such.

We should like a general holiday at least once a month—and shall try to pick up excuses for a dozen of them during the year—beginning with this, the occasion for which can't be equalled half our desired number of times.

☞ On Friday night, or rather on Saturday morning, between midnight and three o'clock, three stores in market street were broken into, viz. Mrs. Trickey's Millinery store, Mr. Henry C. Gerrish's Fruit and Refreshment Store, and the Hat store of Messrs. Daniel Knight & Co.—The stores were all entered in the rear, and were broken open so violently that there must have been quite a noise in the operation,—but the night was windy and rainy.

In Mrs. Trickey's store, the thieves tumbled over the bonnets and ribbons, but did not get much booty. In Mr. Gerrish's, they ate pies, &c., stole some change, and carried a bottle of beer into the store of D. Knight & Co. In this latter store, they opened trunks of papers of the North Church and Parish, and of the partners, mixing up the documents, and carrying off about $40 in counterfeit and uncurrent bills, the accumulation of years. Here they burnt a candle and lots of matches, but did no further damage.

They then tried the store of Messrs. Hill & Carr, next door to Knight & Co.—but by this time they waked up a lodger in the block, who spoke to them, and they left. The thieves were three in number.

On the same night, a red French horse was stolen from the stable of Mr. E. Paul, at Kittery Fore Side, with a top wagon.—This horse was put up at 1 o'clock A. M., and of course was taken at a later hour.—The thieves dropped a vest near the stable, doubtless a stolen garment.

It is quite probable the same thieves stole the horse and the bogus money.

P. S.—We learn that the horse was found on Saturday afternoon, tied to a fence, near Berwick.

A week or two since, the Eastern Railroad depot in this city was broken into, and $20 stolen—after four o'clock in the morning. About 5, three unknown men passed over Portsmouth Bridge on foot;—and an hour or two later, were seen going through Eliot toward Berwick.

These facts may point to the whereabouts of the rascals.

ELECTION IN WARD THREE.—The alteration in the Ward lines in this city, left only one of the Selectmen of the old Ward Three, resident in the new Ward. So a town meeting was called in that Ward, on Saturday last, to fill the two vacancies. But very little interest was manifested—and the vote was very small. We have no official report of the meeting, but are informed that only twenty-eight ballots were cast, and these all Democratic—no Republican nomination being made.

Richard Walden and Aaron Lang (regular Democratic nomination, elected) had 25 votes; Nath'l Gunnison and Augustus Abbott (also Democrats) three each.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band—our only musical institution, and one which has proved itself richly worthy of patronage—give a Promenade Concert this evening at Jefferson Hall. Tickets almost nothing, with the privilege of taking a couple of ladies, thrown in.

☞ Eleven converts were baptised at Noble's Island, on Sunday noon, by Rev. Messrs. Perkins, Hall and Holmes.

☞ On Friday evening, Jan. 15th, Albert Laighton read his Poem on "Beauty," before the Newmarket Lyceum. The Town Hall was filled with an attentive and appreciative audience, including several of his Portsmouth friends. We considered ourselves richly repaid for a ride home in the dark, by listening to his delicious rhymings a second time. The Poem has been extended considerably, and improved, since it was first delivered; and we found we had but just began to appreciate its merit—the exquisite conceptions and not less exquisite expression.

At the close of the Poem, several musical ladies and gentlemen, from Portsmouth and elsewhere, entertained the reluctantly-departing audience, with a few old popular songs—getting up a choir on the spur of the moment and the occasion. That Poem ought never to be read, without sweet music before and after it. It is by far the finest production of the sort it has been our good fortune to hear.

☞ Is it not surprising that while everybody is continually commending and wishing for "congregational singing"—yet we have in Portsmouth, no Singing School or practising Society or club of any sort——not even a juvenile school? Wonder where people expect to get singers—or do they grow ready made? Every music teacher in the city ought to have a couple of good classes—that is, if it is worth while for "the congregation" to sing at all.

"MONEY is getting easier," is it? Well, it is no easier getting money. Ah, but, that means that those folks who have plenty, can get plenty more—on the old rule that to him who hath shall be given;—while those who haven't any money, can't be trusted with any.

We notice by the papers that money is getting more plenty all about—and an advertisement in the Chronicle of $500 wanted, has met with ten times the number of responses that any similar application ever received before.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The administration men say it is settled that Kansas, Oregon, and Minnesota are to be yoked together and forced through, and that the Indiana Senators, with Bigler and Jones, are relied on to unite with and secure the necessary majority.

Despatches received from Commodore Paulding by the Star of the West, announced his intention of returning home shortly. As no leave of absence has been granted, this step of the Commodore, it is said, is received with much disfavor by the authorities at Washington.

LARGE SALE OF WOOLENS.—New York, Jan. 15.—The public sale of Woolens today drew together an immense audience. Among the company were many out-of-town buyers; in fact the sale seemed to have attracted very general attention from the trade. The entire catalogue was nearly all sold, including the duplicates. The sale passed off well and with much spirit; the prices realized were full as well as could be expected considering the present condition of the trade.

The Lawrence Herald of Freedom of Dec. 26, states that at the election on the 21st of that month, when the Lecompton Constitution was first submitted to the people, at least one thousand persons came over from Missouri and voted at points between Kickapoo and Wyandott. The captain of the steam ferry at Leavenworth says he passed over 200 at that point.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER

So long unsuccessfully sought,
FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head and all eruptions;—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgia and nervous headache. See circular and the following:

Dover, N. H., Feb. 3, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen of $2 size; yours very resply.

DANIEL LATHEOP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and the result was so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his suffering, advised us to use your Restorative, which we tried with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a healthy and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do heartily recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,

GEORGE W. BRIGHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the Hair. Before using it I was a man of middle age, my hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours Respectfully,
O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 116 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.

WHICH for economy, purity of air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give

Any amount of Heat required,

and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once moist, pure and agreeable, and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most superior manner, are fully warranted, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.

For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.

The inventor challenges the world to produce an article which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to fill an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.—When this Stove is properly managed,

THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON,

without once going out. Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent, in fuel expense.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with them is conducted in the most honest manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lottery is authorized by an act passed by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $50,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Fanshaw & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the tones full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tones. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,

Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or banks of Keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two banks of keys may be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is sufficiently heavy to fill a house the size of Faneuil Hall.

THE ORGAN MELODEON

is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being arranged with two banks of Keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals. Also, every variety of MELODEONS for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon instruments from our Manufactory, being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced and skillful workmen. In short, we will make instruments to order in any shape, and not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an entire and perfect satisfaction.

Music Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or test the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we beg leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,

who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon:

Chickering & Sons, Hallet, Davis & Co.,
T. Gilbert & Co., Wm. F. Emerson,
Brown & Allen, A. W. Ladd & Co.,
George Hewes, Woodward & Brown,
Newhall & Co.

MELODEONS RENTED.

"Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment on the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing, to obtain it at the cost of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

CONGRESS.—On Friday, Jan. 15, the Senate did not sit,—and in the House, the eighty-seven thousand dollars disbursed by the agents of the Middlesex Manufacturing Company in aid of the passage of the tariff by the last Congress, was the theme of debate. Several gentlemen took part in the discussion, but of the Massachusetts delegation, Mr. Burlingame was the only member who addressed the House. A proposition introduced by Mr. Letcher of Virginia, "that a select committee of five be appointed, with power to send for persons and papers, to investigate the charges preferred against members and officers of the last House, growing out of the disbursement of any sum of money by Lawrence, Stone & Co. or other persons, and to report the facts to the House, with such recommendations as they may deem proper," was agreed to.

Some items in the discussion were amusing.

Mr. Davis of Maryland said that no man held the political press in more contempt than he. He stood in no fear of it, and held it in such utter contempt that he should take no notice of it, except to carry it before the Grand Jury for vile libel. When charges are made in the press, he deemed them unworthy of investigation. He regarded his reputation, and the reputation of every gentlemen here, as more than enough to look in the face the whole combined press of the country. But this was a different case. It involved one of the merchant princes, in the books of whose firm an entry appeared of $87,000, paid for procuring the passage of the tariff act.

Mr. Sherman said that if there was anything wrong, or fraudulent, or bribery in the legislation on the tariff bill, it was not done by the Republican party, for thirty Republicans only voted for it, and seventy against it, while only two Democrats voted against it.

The House took from the Speaker's table the Senate bill, making appropriations for indemnity for slaves carried from the Southern States by the British during the last war. The reading of their names caused excessive merriment.

Mr. Giddings obtained the floor, but gave way to a motion to adjourn till Monday, which prevailed.

THE FIRST RESPONSE.—In our last Weekly we enclosed to all delinquent subscribers printed slips, containing the names of all such—stating that we intend, probably in our next Weekly, to publish in our columns the names of all who do not pay in the meantime. The following letter from a gentleman in E—— shows that at least one shot "told" that time, at any rate—as well as that the writer is a gentleman and a reasonable man.

E——, Jan, 15, '58.

FRANK W. MILLER, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—As one likes to see his name in print, I was not displeased to see my name in your "black list" of delinquent subscribers. I am sorry to have given you the trouble, but you were right in printing the list. I do not blame you. It should have been paid before—negligence alone has been the cause of the delay. So, with the reminder, and fear of being put in print again, and above all, the realizing sense of the justice of the thing, I forward you enclosed $2, for which please forward your receipts to 1859. Respectfully, ——

A RAT ADVENTURE.—The New Bedford Standard says: "Sometime since, a lady in this city, while dressing for church, thought that she felt something moving between her dress and skirt, but after shaking them, paid no more attention to the circumstance, until seated in her pew at church, when out fell a rat upon the floor, much to the consternation of several other ladies in the pew. It commenced running from one end of the pew to the other, and at last was lost sight of—they presuming it had escaped into the aisle. The first named lady upon arriving home was in the act of changing her dress for another, when upon shaking it, out fell the rat, having made the trip to church and back in safety."

MILITARY RIOT IN DUBLIN.—The Dublin (Ireland) Freeman's Journal states that there has been an alarming military emeute in Dublin. Bands of soldiery have thrown off military restraint and have kept the city in a constant state of excitement by their drunken rows. This news comes by the steamer North American.

CROUP.—A piece of fresh lard, as large as a butternut, rubbed up with sugar, in the same way that butter is prepared for the dressing of puddings, divided into three parts, and given at intervals of twenty minutes, will relieve any case of croup not already allowed to progress to the fatal point.—Albany Transcript.

Coggswell's Medical Salt,
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE
FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.

MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unusual frosts and debilitating heats. See Circulars.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1858.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

WYANDOTTE CITY, Jan. 5, '58.

Dear Friend:—Yesterday was an exciting day throughout the Territory. We had an election of State officers under the provisions of the Lecompton Constitution; also a ballot on the acceptance or rejection of this same Lecompton Constitution. We polled at this precinct (which includes Quindaro) 530 votes for State officers, beating our opponents by an average vote of over 200; Lieut. Governor Roberts getting a majority of 337 over his opponent, William G. Mathias of Leavenworth. We cannot of course determine how the election has gone as yet; but if the Free State men have generally voted, I have no doubt that we have carried every precinct in the Territory—that is, if there has been no bogus voting, but we have every reason to fear that such is the case.

Rumor has reached us to-day there was six hundred pro-slavery majority at the precinct of Delaware Ferry, (a ford about ten miles up the Kaw river,) where there are not fifty white men within the whole precinct. There were two wagon loads of men from Westport, Mo., drove up to the polls here just before sunset, their horses reeking with sweat, and demanded the privilege of voting. Some of them were known, and when accused of being from Westport, they made no denial of the fact, but said they were then citizens of Kansas, and as such claimed their right to vote. The were not permitted to do so, and they afterwards boasted that they had voted "as much as once," at Delaware Ferry, and had been to Shawnee and Olather, before coming here. Six of the "Blue Lodge" rode up one of the avenues, all armed with revolvers and Sharp's rifles, but as they made no attempt to vote, they were not molested.

"Jim Lane," it was reported, was at Oxford yesterday, with three hundred men, and there was a strong force of U. S. troops at Kickapoo. So the probability is that there was some show of fairness at those two celebrated precincts, at least.—It was rumored here that Gen. Lane would march on Westport if he was molested at Oxford, and "clean out the town." A "consummation devoutly to be wished;" for it is the meanest pro-slavery town on the border, except perhaps New Santa Fe. I was over at Westport on New Year's day, and it impressed me less favorably (if possible) than Kansas City, Mo., which I always, till then, supposed to be the sink hole of creation. Low, dirty, irregularly laid out, reeking with whiskey,—why, there are enough whiskey shops there to sink the place, if it were otherwise as pure as——the good city of Boston, and I suppose the morals of that place are unimpeachable.

We polled 373 votes against the Lecompton Constitution at this precinct yesterday, and only two in favor of it, neither of which were legally worded. I acted as one of the clerks of the election. We forwarded the returns to-day.

6 P. M.—The report has just been confirmed that six hundred votes were polled at Delaware Ferry. Yours, F. H. B.

☞ A telegraphic dispatch from St. Louis, dated Monday, states that a gentleman just from "Kansas" reports that Gen. Calhoun was to have "commenced counting the returns of the election of the 21st of December on Tuesday last, in the presence of the presiding officers of the Legislature and Gov. Denver. As soon as this was done, a messenger would be dispatched to Washington with the vote and the State Constitution. Calhoun would not leave the Territory until after the returns were made of the election for State officers. The result of the 4th was still uncertain. Col. Henderson of Leavenworth was forcibly taken from the stage, two miles from that city, by a party of Free State men, and has not been heard of since."

☞ On the 12th January, in Concord, N. H., an Irishman named James Larrazee was arrested as the robber of James Spellman, and three days were spent in examining witnesses by the Police Court, when the justice, to the surprise of many, discharged him.—The special correspondent of the Manchester Mirror says:—

It is not to be supposed, however, that the matter will rest here, but that the Grand Jury will have the matter under consideration.

☞ From the verdict of the coroner's jury, it appears that Charles L. Cater died of consumption, hastened by pleurisy.

NO SPLIT.—The N. H. Gazette of Jan. 16, says;—in regard to New Hampshire and the general government:

There is no "split," and there will be none. The difference of opinion between some of the leading Democratic statesmen as to the propriety, expediency and justice of the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, whichever way it may be decided, will "split" nobody from the Democratic party, whose adhesion is worth the cohesive attraction which it costs to hold him in place. We believe the Lecompton Constitution, either before, or by a Congressional proviso, immediately after the admission of Kansas, should be submitted to a full and fair vote of her people; so believes, with almost entire unanimity, the democratic voters of this State; but whether it be or not, on a non-essential like this, we know of no Democrat who will "split" from his party, or even "split" his ticket in the coming election.

Let us see how this matter stands.—It is either just or unjust to cram the Lecompton swindle down the throats of an unwilling people, by the bogus convention and the federal government. Yet this question is so non-essential,—that no good Democrat will split off, one way or the other.

☞ In Congress, on Monday, Jan. 18, in the House a number of bills were introduced, and resolutions calling for information were passed. Mr. Campbell of Ohio asked leave to introduce a joint resolution authorizing the President to negotiate for the acquisition of Canada, Nova Scotia, and other parts of British America, and Cuba and the Islands adjacent thereto, and annex them to the United States. Mr. Giddings, also from Ohio, asked leave to offer a long preamble and resolution setting forth human rights as embodied in the Declaration of Independence, and declaring that the Supreme Court, in the Dred Scott decision, had "unjustly assailed the learning, intelligence and Christianity of the distinguished revolutionary patriots." Leave was refused in both instances. Mr. Humphrey Marshall of Kentucky was refused permission to introduce an amendment to the Constitution in regard to foreign born citizens.—In the Senate. Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, made a speech on Kansas and the Administration.

"BLACK LISTS."—At an Editorial Convention in Florida, a few years since, it was voted that

A Black List shall be kept in each newspaper establishment, and the names of absconding and delinquent subscribers, (those who stop their papers without paying up arrearages,) shall be published for the benefit of the craft. And the names of the delinquents of any one establishment shall be mutually copied and re-published in the papers of each other.

This is all very well, except the waiting till the black sheep "stop" their papers. Why they never will stop, at that rate. This sending papers "till all arrearages are paid," will insure a life-list of dead-heads. No, no,—better print your black-list every year,—and include all who are in arrears.

☞ The newspaper editors in Florida, once on a time agreed that

All announcements of candidates for offices will be charged Five Dollars for insertion during the canvass.

All personal communications which are admissable, or communications relating to one's individual nature, puffs of new inventions, new goods, new establishments, candidates, and the like, will be charged at the same price as advertisements.

Wonder if some folks wouldn't think this last rule was compromising independence.

They charge $5 for a handbill, a pack of cards or a year's subscription to a Weekly paper in Florida.

☞ The Essex County Temperance Convention met in the City Hall, Newburyport, on Thursday, Jan. 4, and had a very encouraging meeting. They passed resolutions confirmatory of the law and approving the organization of temperance societies: we copy one of them.

Resolved, That the final triumph of the cause depends essentially on the young; therefore, it is the imperative duty of every friend of the cause to encourage the formation of Young Men's Temperance Societies, and also, Bands of Hope, among the children.

The encouraging aspect of the Temperance cause on the opening of the new year, in Essex county, and in Massachusetts, was a subject of congratulation by several speakers, and the duty of going on with the work to ultimate triumph was eloquently enforced.

☞ We learn from the report of the Milwaukie county jail that there have been 104 "ladies" and only two servant girls confined in it during the past year. The whole number of prisoners committed was 920.

MR. HALE'S SPEECH.

In the United States Senate, on Monday, January 18, when the special order on the affairs of Kansas was taken up,

Senator John P. Hale of New Hampshire said,—

He had refrained from participating in the debate heretofore, because he presumed that the public were more anxious to hear from other Senators, rather than learn the opinions of so humble an individual as himself. He did not think this discussion ill-timed or premature. The distinguished Senator from Illinois had spoken, and his speech fully met public expectations. He agreed with Mr. Douglas in opposing the Lecompton Constitution, not because it is in contravention with the principles and policy of the Nebraska bill. He opposed it for just the opposite reason, namely, because he considered it in exact conformity with the act. He regarded it as a part of the original programme, and as the carrying out in letter and spirit. He was inclined to think that in the controversy between Mr. Douglas and the President, the palm of victory ought to be awarded to the President. When the latter undertakes to bring in the federal army to force the obnoxious Constitution down the throats of the people of Kansas, it is because he understands the Nebraska bill just as well as if he was in the territory at the time that measure became law. Mr. Hale was opposed to the whole thing from beginning to end. He was opposed to the tree then, and the foliage now. He opposed the plucking of the ripe fruit. He could only judge the object of the passage of the bill by the natural and inevitable consequences which must result from such a measure. The object could be nothing else than to break down the barriers which separated free territory from slave territory, and bring Kansas into the Union as a Slave State, legally and peacefully, if it could be,—but bring it in as a Slave State, anyhow. Some of the advocates of that bill, the senior Senator from South Carolina, (Mr. Evans) included, had avowed that it was their intention to extend slavery into Kansas at the time. With regard to the proceedings in Kansas under the Nebraska bill, the elections were carried, not by a mob from Missouri, but by an invading army, who went over the line with drum and fife, and banners flying, and carried everything in their own way, and returned across the river, openly avowing that they had conquered the Territory. Thus matters went on in this "perfect freedom" and "popular sovereignty," and at length the Convention assembled to form a Constitution for the future State of Kansas,—and what did they do? They adopted the very best plan which could be desired to make Kansas a slave State. The people were permitted to vote for the Constitution with slavery, or for the Constitution without slavery; but it was a somewhat singular fact, going to explain the vote on this Constitution, that the Constitution without slavery was a more stringent pro-slavery instrument than the Constitution with slavery. If the Constitution was adopted with slavery, there were means provided by which, at some future period, the slave might be emancipated; but the adoption of the Constitution without slavery, made slavery perpetual. It has been said that this matter was in the hands of the people, who could at any time change their Constitution, and abolish slavery. if they saw fit; but he contended they had no such power. He had heard a great deal about "popular sovereignty." but thought there were two kinds,—the one genuine, and the other spurious.

The kind of popular sovereignty which it was now proposed to establish and maintain in Kansas was not the genuine article, and he would mention two or three cases of what he regarded as real popular sovereignty. In January, 1775, 18 months previous to the Declaration of Independence, the people of New Hampshire came together, and, ignoring the King and Parliament altogether, adopted a written constitution, embodying the great principles of civil liberty. That was the genuine popular sovereignty. Next, the Declaration of Independence, by which our fathers declared that henceforth they would regard the people of England as "enemies in war—in peace, friends," was another example of popular sovereignty. But there is still another instance, and one in the history of England which he ever regarded with profound admiration; that was, when the House of Commons, ignoring the House of Lords as an useless appendage of government, and ignoring, also, the old doctrine of regal sovereignty, determined to bring King Charles the First before their tribunal, and try him as a criminal. They did try him, and found him guilty of high crimes against the State, and for these crimes his head was severed from his body. This event had cast a shadow over the crowned heads of Europe which has ever since rested on them, and liberty to-day is safer in England than in this country, in consequence of that occurrence. Allusion was made to the remark of Mr. Broderick, that Mr. Buchanan and his Cabinet were to blame for the excited state of Kansas.—He dissented from that opinion. He thought that neither the present Executive or his predecessor was the man to guide and control public events, but they were vanes set in high places, to show the direction of public sentiment. Mr. Hale read from one of Mr. Buchanan's former speeches, in which he declared that "all Christendom is leagued against the South on this question of domestic slavery." Of course, remarked Mr. Hale, the South can have no allies except those who are out of Christendom. [Laughter] But what does Mr. Buchanan say in his next sentence? "They have no other allies to sustain their constitutional rights except the Democracy of the North." There's a fight for you. All Christendom on one side, and the Democrats of the North on the other. [Hearty bursts of laughter.]

POLICE COURT.—Newburyport, Jan. 18, 1858.—Edward Ready, the keeper of a small rum hole in Liberty street, was arraigned on complaint of the City Marshal, for selling a quantity of gin to Peter Waters, on Wednesday last. The only witness of the sale, says the Herald, was the wife of Peter, a very worthy and upright woman. Her story was sad and melancholory; her husband, she said, was last week sent to the House of Correction as a common drunkard, leaving her with seven small children to support. Until within a few months, her husband has been a sober and industrious man, providing well for his family. On the occasion referred to, she went to the store of the defendant in search of her husband, and found him at the bar, holding a tumbler in one hand and a bottle of gin in the other. She begged him not to drink, but he was determined. She implored Ready not to sell,—told him her husband had no money to pay for it. But sell he would, and the last five cents of that poor man was taken from him. The wife then led her husband from the store, and induced him to go to Father Lennon's to sign the pledge, but when he reached there he was so drunk it was deemed inexpedient to administer the pledge. On returning to the store he was taken by the officers and sent to Ipswich. The wife of Peter on going to Ready, to inform him of the trouble and suffering he had caused her, was immediately thrust out of doors. Well did his Honor, Judge Maston, say that it was a sad case indeed for the father, and sad indeed for the mother, sad for the children. The defendant was convicted and appealed, and for want of sureties was committed.

EFFECT OF THE ABOLITION OF FLOGGING IN THE NAVY.—The Journal of Commerce publishes a letter written on board the U. S. frigate Congress, which has arrived at Philadelphia after a cruise of two years and a half, in which the writer says:

"The new mode of discipline without flogging is producing a rapid and decided change in the character of seamen; and in almost every particular the change is of the most desireable nature. There is perhaps less promptness and energy in the movements of some who formerly jumped at the ropes from fear of the "cats;" and that class of reckless, bold and dare-devil spirits who seemed in their native element only when the storm was highest and howled through the rigging with most terrific violence, is to some extent passing away. But there is rising in its place a self-respect and intelligent manliness, a reliable fidelity, a sympathy with their fellow men, and a desire for their regard, which is full of promise. Considering the grade of society from which seamen generally come, and the motives which lead the great majority to seek the service, it is surprising that the improvement in their character should have been as great as those most experienced declare it to be.

☞ The Maine State Temperance Convention held its session at Augusta, Jan. 13. Gov. Morrill was president; speeches were made, among others, by Rev. Mr. Dillingham formerly of this city, by Rev. E. W. Jackson, and by Hon. Neal Dow. The following were the resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That we hail with profound gratitude to God the present wide-spread conviction of the people of Maine that the license system for the suppression of the liquor traffic has been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

Resolved, That prohibition is the true and only basis of legislation that will give efficiency to any law for the suppression of intemperance; and the people of Maine demand an immediate return to that great principle.

Resolved, That in the cause in which we are engaged we recognize no religious sect or political party as such, but cheerfully welcome to our ranks any man who will adopt in principle and practice the great moral doctrine which lies at the foundation of our enterprise—the legal prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, as a drink.

Resolved, That we repudiate the aspersion which has been cast upon us that in giving prominence to the doctrine of prohibition, we have abandoned moral suasion; while, on the contrary, we believe that prohibition is the highest and truest development of moral suasion. Moral suasion in its kind and sympathizing application to the inebriate; but legal suasion in the just and rigorous application of law to rumselling as to other notorious crimes.

Resolved, That since it is understood to be the policy of the Legislature to submit to the people a law to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors, it is expressly important and we think is imperatively demanded by the friends of temperance throughout the State, that the law be submitted at the earliest possible day.

WILD CHERRY.—We hear so much said of the wonderful curative power of Dr. Wistar's Balsam, in all stages of diseased lungs, that we feel perfectly safe in recommending it for general use for coughs, colds, bronchitis, &c.

IT IS A MOST UNDOUBTED FACT

That "Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years practice to find what particular organ when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease while if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last, but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is, that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver, than from all other causes put together.

Taking this so be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all the diseases of the stomarch, or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest, and most efficacious remedy known.

LOCAL.

HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE.—On Saturday evening last, about 7 o'clock, Mr. John S. Sheridan, a young man who works in the Gazette office, was knocked down on Lafayette Road, and robbed of his wallet, containing $40 or more. He had received the pay for his work, early in the afternoon; and proceeded to his father's residence on South Road, soon after leaving the Gazette office—without visiting any other place, or exhibiting or speaking of his money, so far as he can remember.—The various reports that two strangers were in the office at the time he received the money, &c., are without foundation, so far as the recollection of the foreman of the office, and the young man himself, will serve.

Mr. Sheridan states that soon after he turned from Middle Road into Lafayette, a man, walking, stopped him by inquiring the distance to the city; and having replied, about a mile, Mr. Sheridan stepped from the path to the side of the road, to let the stranger pass. Instead of this, the unknown villain dealt Sheridan a blow in the side of his head, which prostrated him; and then jumped upon him, choked him by winding his hand in the scarf about his neck, and told him that if he said a word he would kill him—which, even if so disposed, he could not have spoken, for reason of the robber's holding the scarf so tight.

After turning Mr. Sheridan's pocket wrong-side out, and securing his wallet, the robber left in the direction of the city, as near as Mr. S. could tell in the dark.

There is no clue as yet to the perpetrator of this bold assault. The man was of medium size, and wore heavy whiskers; but it was too dark to distinguish much. Mr. Sheridan is an industrious, temperate and highly-respectable young man; and we see no reason to discredit his relation of this remarkable and unusual adventure.

His appearance on his arrival home, would go to confirm his story—his clothes being wet and muddy, his face and hands bloody, (chiefly from his nose bleeding,) and he very much agitated and excited.

It will be seen that his father offers a reward of $50 for the detection of the highway robber; and it would seem that so aggravated a case demands some notice of our city government.

THE FIREMEN'S FAIR opens at Jefferson Hall, this evening. Having for managers one of the strongest and most influential bodies of men in the community, with all their lady friends, there can be no doubt we shall have one of the most attractive exhibitions of the kind ever presented in the city—and entirely novel for us. And having for its object a most public-spirited charity, (the founding of a Firemen's Fund,) there ought not to be, and we think there is not, a question of its success. Some very attractive features, entirely new, will be presented—but as all who care to know about it will be there, we need not state them. See advertisement.

☞ It is reported "about town," that seven men or boys have been arrested in Dover—suspected of breaking into and robbing stores, &c., including the stores in Market street in this city last week.—Among them are a couple of fellows named Benson and Kehoe of this city.

☞ As a very pleasant wind-up to a most agreeable holiday—a couple of musical young friends of ours favored us with a charming serenade, on Monday evening.—It was fitting to discourse such melodious strains in memory of Franklin—who was an ardent lover and promoter of the delightful science.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Senate went into executive session at 2 o'clock to-day, and the consideration of the naval confirmations came up. Before proceeding with them, they made some confirmations. Gen. Lamar was confirmed as Minister to Nicaragua, and Gen. Denver as Governor of Kansas. They also ratified a rendition treaty between the United States and the Netherlands, for the mutual delivery of criminals, fugitives from justice, and deserting sailors. The question of reconsidering certain naval cases reported against by the Naval Committee, was then taken up, when Gen. Houston delivered a withering phillippic against the whole proceedings of the Courts of Inquiry, and wound up by giving the "immortal fifteen" a terrible castigation. Without coming to any action, at 4 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

The Investigating Committee on the Lawrence and Stone transaction is a general one. They will organize to-morrow, and proceed immediately to business.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. [Correspondence of the Evening Post.] The Minesota Constitution, submitted with the names of all the Democrats, and certified to by the Secretary of the Territory, has arrived.—Gov. Medary refuses to sign it. He says the copy sent him agreeably to the new Constitution, he sent to the President.—The new Senators, Representatives and delegates from Minesota, agree to certify that the Republican Constitution is the true copy, and that the names signed are genuine, which may be acceptable.

The Committee on Territories have a meeting to-day to settle the matter. The Lecomptonites feel sanguine of success, and boast that they will carry the Constitution through Congress in less than ninety days. The Administration is anxious to keep Minesota out. Its supporters in the Senate will refuse to unseat Fitch and Bright, but they will press action in the House against Davis and Harris of Mo., and Campbell of Ohio, anti-Lecomptonites.

THE GREAT BEAUTIFIER
So long unsuccessfully sought, FOUND AT LAST.

FOR IT RESTORES PERMANENTLY GRAY HAIR to its original color; covers luxuriantly the bald head; removes all dandruff, itching, and all scrofula, scald head, and all eruptions—makes the hair soft, healthy, and glossy, and will preserve it to any imaginable age; removes, as if by magic, all blotches, &c., from the face, and cures all neuralgic and nervous headache. See circular and the following.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2, 1857.
Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.—Gents: Within a few days we have received your Restorative, for which for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that today we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold,) while we might order a quantity from home. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced there or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage it received from the most influential and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convinces us that it is A MOST VALUABLE PREPARATION.
Send us as soon as may be one gross of $1 size; and one dozen at $2 size; yours very respy.
DANIEL LATHROP & Co.

Hickory Grove, St. Charles Co., Mo., 1856.
Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.
Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, who had suffering, advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has a healthy scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HUGHINGTON,
SARAH A. HUGHINGTON.
GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.
Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: I have used two bottles of Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and can say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.
Yours Respectfully,
O. J. WOOD & CO., 312 Broadway, N. Y., (in great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.

Magee's Patent Ventilating Stove.

FOR WARMING AND VENTILATING
PARLORS, OFFICES, HALLS, STORES,
SCHOOL HOUSES, &c.
WHICH for economy of fuel, air, and ease of management, has no equal. It can be regulated so as to give
Any amount of Heat required,
and unlike all other Anthracite Coal Burners, ventilates the apartments quite as thoroughly, as a wood fire or Franklin, producing a current of Air, at once pure and agreeable, and not as some of the air which comes in contact with the fire pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache, so much complained of by those using Stoves and Furnaces, is entirely obviated. The fire may be continued from one to four days without replenishing.
These Stoves are beautiful in Design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them.
For Offices and Stores as well as the Parlor.
The Inventor challenges the world to produce an article by which so much Pure Warm Air can be generated, from so small an amount of fuel, consuming but 15 pounds of Anthracite Coal, to warm an ordinary sized parlor for 24 hours, without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all used, and no clinkers made, consequently, sifting coal is dispensed with.
When this Stove is properly managed,
THE FIRE MAY BE CONTINUED THROUGH THE ENTIRE SEASON, without once going out; and added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save from 30 to 50 per cent. in fuel expense.
For sale by FRANK JONES,

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify the results of the same, and with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, upon the same terms as at distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten will draw a prize. Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $30,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.
☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.
Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.
All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRAZER & Co are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. In no particular class is numbered, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are sent unless the money accompanies the same, and the drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combinations. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.
☞ The drawn numbers of the Maryland Lotteries are published by the State Commissioner in the following papers, viz: Sun, Clipper, Patriot, American, Argus, of Baltimore; also, the National Intelligencer and Union, of Washington, D.C.

S. D. & H. W. Smith,
—MANUFACTURERS OF—
Melodeons, Organ Melodeons,
—and—
PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
No. 511 Washington St., Boston.

The first premium over all competitors, at the Fair of the Mass Charitable Mechanic Association, of the National Fair, Washington, D. C., also at the Ohio State Fair, held at Columbus, Ohio, was awarded to these Manufacturers.

By means of a new method of Voicing, known only to themselves, they have succeeded in removing the harsh and buzzing sound which formerly characterized the instrument, and rendering the voice full, clear and organ like. The action is prompt and reliable, enabling the performer to execute the most rapid music without blurring the tone. The swell is arranged to give great expression.

THE PEDAL BASS MELODEONS,
Are designed particularly for Churches, Lodges, Halls, &c. It is arranged with two manuals, or rows of keys, the lower set running an octave higher than the other, and may be used separately, and thus get in one case two distinct instruments; or by use of the coupler, the two keys can be played at the same time by use of the front set only. This connected with the Pedal Bass, will produce the effect of a large organ, and is satisfactory to fill a house that seats from 1000 to 1500 persons.

THE ORGAN MELODEON
Is designed for parlor and private use. The construction is similar to the Church Instrument, being furnished with two banks of keys, and when used together, by means of the coupler, is capable of as great volume of power as the Church Instrument when used without the pedals, and, every variety of Melodious for Parlor use.

Purchasers may rely upon Instruments from our Manufactory being made in the most complete and thorough manner. Having removed to the spacious Buildings

511 Washington Street,

We have every facility for manufacturing purposes, and employ none but the most experienced workmen in our business. In short, we will promise our customers an instrument, equal, if not superior, to any Manufacturer, and guarantee an native and perfect satisfaction.

Musical Societies, Teachers, Amateurs, and others interested in musical matters, are respectfully invited to visit our Rooms at any time and examine or try the instruments on exhibition for sale at their pleasure.

As a still further guarantee to the public as to the excellence of the MELODEONS from our Manufactory, we have leave to refer, by permission, to the following

Piano Forte Manufacturers of Boston,
who have examined our Instruments, and will give their opinion when called upon.

Chickering & Sons,	Hallett & Cumston,

MELODEONS RENTED.
Persons who wish to hire Melodeons with a view of purchasing at the end of the year, can have the rent credited as part payment of the purchase money. This matter is worthy of special note, as it enables those who desire a fair test of the instruments before purchasing. We obtain it at the expense of the manufacturers, to the extent at least of a year's rent.

Orders from any part of the country or world, sent direct to the manufactory in Boston, with cash, or satisfactory reference, will be promptly attended to, and as faithfully executed as if the parties were present, or employed an agent to select, and on as reasonable terms.

STATE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

At the meeting in Concord, Jan. 6, after organization:

The Committee then took up the following which was laid down for them by the State Convention at Manchester:

PLAN OF ACTION,

"Two classes of work seem now to demand the attention of the friends of temperance in this State—both designed to distribute and make personal the labor now needed.

The first class we style the primary labor, to be done in neighborhoods, school districts and towns. The main feature being the use of the Pledge constantly for signatures.

Also Temperance Conferences in towns and districts, in which the common people relate experiences and views; aiming at the creating, educating, and animating a just public sentiment and feeling for the Suppression of Intemperance.

The second class we term the organic mode, viz., by local conventions or meetings, called from two or several adjacent towns, systematically organized,—the plan of meeting settled beforehand, and definite work prepared as far as may be.

Out of these meetings we should look for concerted action in prosecution, and in direct attack upon abusers of the Law.

As few and as many towns uniting in these meetings, as can work efficiently; the State Committee to apportion these sectional meetings, as judged best,—send a plan of meeting with circulars to some one or more tried friends of temperance in the district, that they may call, or caused to be called, the meetings."

In pursuance of the above plan, the Committee laid out the following and appointed the following Committees for each:

Cheshire County to be one District.—Marshall Kingman and S. W. Buffum, both of Winchester, Committee.

Hillsborough County to be divided into three Districts.

No. 1 contains Nashua, Hollis, Merrimack, Pelham, Hudson and Litchfield.—Col. Thomas G. Banks, of Nashua, Chairman of District Committee.

No. 2 contains Manchester, Bedford, Weare, New Boston, Antrim, Deering, Goffstown, Hillsboro', Bennington, Francestown, Greenfield and Hancock. Rev. Isaac Willey, of Goffstown, Chairman.

No. 3 contains Milford, Amherst, Mount Vernon, Lyndeboro', Wilton, Brookline, Mason, New Ipswich, Temple, Sharon and Peterboro'. George Daniels, of Milford, Chairman.

Merrimack County to be one District.—Col. Dudley S. Palmer, of Concord, Chairman. In this county there is already a county committee.

Grafton County one District, to be organized by Dr. Hoyt and Mr. Chamberlain, of the State Committee. J. Chamberlain, of Warren, Chairman.

Strafford County two Districts.

Great Falls District includes Somersworth, Rochester, Farmington, Milton, Middleton, New Durham, and Strafford.—John E. Goodwin, of West Milton, Chairman.

Dover District includes Dover, Rollinsford, Madbury, Lee, Durham, and Barrington. Rev. E. Hutchins, of Dover, Chairman.

Rockingham County to be organized by the Committee, and divided, if they see fit. Prof. J. G. Hoyt, of Exeter, Chairman; Rev. Mr. Herrick of Candia, and T. H. Miller of Portsmouth, Committee.

Carroll County one District. Larkin D. Mason, of Tamworth, Chairman.

Belknap County one District. John Coe, of Centre Harbor, Chairman.

Coos County, probably three Districts, to be reported by Mr. Burbank, of the State Committee.

Androscoggin River District includes Shelburne, Gorham, Berlin, Randolph, Milan, and Dummer. Geo. H. Pinkham, of Shelburne, Chairman of District Committee.

The other two Districts to be arranged hereafter.

Sullivan County one District. John Wilcox, of Newport, Chairman.

[A county society is in operation in this county, which met on the same day with the State Committee. The president is Dr. James A. Gregg, of Newport.]

Sons of Temperance.—Messrs. Marshall Kingman and S. W. Buffum, both of Winchester, were present in the State Committee, as delegates from the Sons of Temperance, Grand Division of New Hampshire.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

The State Committee voted, that the Corresponding Secretary notify the Chairman of each District, by sending him a copy of this circular,—and that he also notify each member of the State Committee, in the same way.

If any member of the State Committee cannot serve, he is requested to inform the Corresponding Secretary of it, as soon as possible.

If any Chairman of a County or District Committee cannot serve, he is requested to inform the State Committee man in his County,—who is hereby authorized to fill the vacancy, either by a new appointment, or by doing the duties himself.

The State Committee are happy to know that there are County Societies, or organizations for temperance in two Counties—Sullivan and Merrimack. And they hope and recommend that similar societies be organized in all the other Counties and Districts,—each County or smaller division bearing its own expenses, having its own officers, and pursuing its object, the promotion of temperance, in its own way.

And the State Committee understand themselves to be a body organized chiefly for the purpose of keeping up a correspondence and concert of action between the working friends of temperance in all parts of the State.

The Chairman of each County or District is requested to converse or correspond as soon as may be, with known friends of temperance within his limits, and get up meetings, &c., as proposed in the "Plan of Action."

It is desirable to have one man in each town, who will give in to the County or District Committee, at these meetings, a careful statement of the number of places where liquor is sold, amount sold, number of drunkards, number of pledged total abstinents, &c., &c.

The County or District Chairman and the Members of the State Committee are also requested to visit conferences, conventions or associations of the different religious societies in their respective Counties, and endeavor to enlist all christians and good citizens, in the work of doing what we can to stem and turn back the tide of intemperance.

The next meeting of the Committee is to be on the first Tuesday in April (6th day) at the City Hotel in Manchester, at 10 o'clock A. M.

By that time the State Committee hope to hear a good report from all parts of the State. Per order,

T. H. MILLER, Cor. Sec.

FOR THE
LANCET, LEECHES AND BLISTERS.
INSTEAD of being a panacea for all maladies, it has control over but ONE MALADY—has but ONE AIM—accomplishes but ONE THING, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE—whatever be its form or locality—whether in the head, throat, chest, abdomen, extremities or skin. Every form of inflammation (but no other disease) is subdued, by it as easily as fire is extinguished by water. Is it asked, how it does this?—simply by restoring the lost balance between the fluids and solids. Such is its potency, that like vaccine matter, it requires merely what adheres to the point of a quill dipped into a solution of it, to affect the entire system.
☞ Of its intrinsic value, the enlightened community, and not the discoverer, must be the judge.

Cold Winter is Coming on.
AND with it will return the usual concomitants, Coughs, Colds, Dyspepsia, Scorbutic Eruptions, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Tetter, Ring Worm, &c., which the genial warmth of summer and free perspiration has, for a time relieved, but which the return of rigid, cheerless winter, will bring back, unless resisted by some medicamentum.
MYER'S EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE, is peculiarly applicable, and if freely used will not fail to protect the constitution against the sudden and extreme changes of our variable climate it purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and invigorates the whole system, thus fortifying against the insidious attacks of unseemly frosts and debilitating heats. Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1858.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18th, 1858.

Dear Chronicle.—A package from home! there is something so sweet in the very sound of the word "home." That however is an old story for any son of Portsmouth to repeat—but there is a sensation more literally satisfying in the actual evidence of a remembrance, than in the mere poetical sentiment—that unsubstantial imaginary feeling, often akin to home-sickness—and at this particular season, how uncommonly pleasant are our anticipations. There is a selfish eagerness added to the usual zest with which we are wont to receive a missive or more substantial token of regard from our friends. But our impatient curiosity will allow us no time for moralizing.

Our package is open, and to our expectant gaze, a vision of sunbeams seems to glow out from within its enchanted covers. Who can say that this actual sunshine is not preferable to the fictitious ideality of moonshine, in that sentimental passion for "home, sweet home." Would that such reminders might come even oftener than it is our unusually-happy lot to receive them. Laying aside for future admiration, some of the more costly and very acceptable gifts, we immediately proceed to investigate the contents of sundry mysterious parcels, of various dimensions, which from their outward appearance excite our anticipations of "something good." The most diminutive of this collection—carefully folded in a yellow printed wrapper, turns out to be an Esculapian production, —a box of Preston's Pills— the brown globules wearing such an inviting look that we are tempted to devour the "original package" instanter. But stay, what is this? On tip-toe with excitement, we unfold its companion—a carefully protected and enveloped package of promising weight and magnitude. Shades of the Chinese sugar-cane! an uplifted cover, the last of the series of tantalizing concealers, reveals to our delighted eyes and longing lips a dish of molasses candy, made by fair ladies' hands. The temptation is too strong to be resisted—abandoning the rest of our prizes, we devour nearly two-thirds of the delectable feast, to the visible exterior disadvantage of our hands and chops.

Our enthusiasm declining with our satiated appetite, we have leisure to discover in the chaotic assortment on our table, a letter. Drawing our chairs up to the stove (like the Governor's, it's a "bully little stove," although it has never seen the inside of a county mansion house,) we peruse its contents;—an extract will exhibit its comprehensive and comprehensible character.

My Dear Son,

I write to send you two pair of my old breeches, that you may have a new coat made out of them; also some new socks, which your mother has just knit by cutting down some of mine; also a box of Preston's Pills, and another of Thacher's Figs—the pills are to eat, and the figs to play marbles with. Your sister, Pollena Joanna, sends her latest culinary production, 4 tarts, of shoe leather, tater peelings and brick-dust. Your mother sends you ten dollars, without my knowledge; and for fear you would not spend it wisely, I have kept back half, and only send you five. Your mother and I are all well, except your sister has got the measles, which we think would spread among the other girls, if Tom had not had them before, and he is the only one left. I hope you will do honor to my teachings; if not you are an ass, and your mother and myself your affectionate parents.

Verily, as I remarked at the commencement of my letter, is the name of home sweet—particularly when associated with molasses candy.

An amusing spectacle was presented to the crowd as they passed the park on their way down town on Friday morning. A squad of police, in accordance with one of the city ordinances, (which, by the way, are too seldom enforced,) stationed themselves on Broadway, at that point, to intercept all market wagons not bearing numbers, — as the statute requires,—as they came up Barclay, Vesey, and other streets, on their way across the city, returning from Washington Market to their Long Island farms. The carts were stopped, one by one, and drawn up in front of the City Hall, where the owners were fined—the vehicles were arranged in a line—a motley procession, such as can only be constituted by a collection of Queen's and King's county market-carts—a variety of equipage, from the genteel green wagon and well fed Dobbin of the Flatbush farmer, to the four-wheeled hencoop attached by ropes and broken sticks to two somethings supposed to be horses, but composed of more knife-handle material and less horse-flesh than I ever saw inside of two hides, looking as if a powerful sneeze would blow them from their skins, and driven by a duplicate of one of those antiquated but respectable females, whose morning transit over the rushing Piscataqua to the wharf slip of Spring Market, was always connected in my boyish imagination with the romantic legend of "Lord Ullin's Daughter."

Poultry, vegetables and fruits of all kinds, the remnants of the morning sale, were heaped in confusion behind the drivers, adding to the ludicrous effect of this involuntary array of Long Island industry.

It may be interesting to your readers to learn that Gardner, the great New England soap man, that most successful of itinerant venders, has for a time suspended his travels for the sale of that article, and is now engaged in peddling Marsh & Co.'s shoulder braces in this city. On questioning him for the reason of this change in business, he informed me that "he found people wouldn't take soap so easy since the panic, but need something more bracing." Yours, ISLINGTON.

☞ Fillibuster Scrip, is an article of trade. A New York paper says:—

I am credibly informed that Gen. Walker has flooded the South with bonds of one hundred dollars each, issued in his (Walker's) name, running twenty years, payable in Nicaragua lands. A large number of said bonds are now in this city for disposition. Upon them Walker has raised, and continues to raise funds to carry on his expedition. Large quantities of these bonds are held by persons residing in Mobile, Montgomery, and New Orleans, which accounts for the indignation manifested in those cities.
